NEWS OF PENDLETON

Athena Couple Get License. A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Thomas H. Boucher and Ruth E. Schneider, both of Athena.

Some Athena Wheat Sold. At a price of 80 cents a bushel a considerable quantity of Athena wheat was recently sold, according to J. N. Scott who was here yesterday. The mill at Athena was the heaviest buyer.

Seward vs. Samuelson. Loren Seward today filed suit against Samuel Samuelson, a west end farmer, to collect on a note for $2500 alleged to be past due. Attorneys for the plaintiff are Fee and Fee.

Sues for Rent. George E. Perring, well known farmer, today filed suit against M. J. Carney, G. W. Bradley and O. W. Huey, proprietors of a livery business, for $591, alleged to be a balance due for the rent of the building occupied by their livery. Fee & Fee were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Arctic Fur Window. The Peoples Warehouse will this evening prepare an arctic window display of furs. Hal Bishop has painted a winter scene for a background and the scene shows the fur-trapper at his work in the deep snows of the north. The effect will be carried out by imitation snow in the foreground.

Athletic Club Reorganizes. The Pendleton Athletic Club, organized last year by a number of well known young men, has decided to continue its activities and a meeting will be held this evening in the offices of the Farmers' Union Grain Agency to discuss plans for the year. The gymnasium in the rear of the Commercial club will probably be used again by the association.

Round-up Pictures Shown. An audience composed of the directors and many stockholders of the Round-up saw the first view of the 1915 Round-up motion pictures at the Temple theater this morning. The pictures were splendid and in many respects superior to any taken heretofore. The Indians are especially well pictured. The steer bulldogging is vividly portrayed and numerous daring feats by cowboy and cowgirl are shown.

Boys Meet With Committee. A number of the high school boys met this morning with the Commercial club committee, appointed to help organize a boys' club, this morning and discussed plans for organization. The boys will proceed with their organization while the committee tries to solve the problem of quarters. The committee is now working on a proposition which, if it matures, will give the boys very desirable quarters.

Stormograph Tells Weather. Hereafter local people will not have to rely upon Mr. Beals of Portland or local optimists for weather forecasts. Royal M. Sawtelle now has a scientific "stormograph," a mechanism so delicate that it is supposed to indicate a change in weather 24 hours away. Mr. Sawtelle put it in his window yesterday morning and declares he was able to foretell the sunshine which arrived about noon today. There are eight vacuum drums to the machine and they are extremely sensitive to the humidity of the atmosphere. A needle marks on a chart the condition of the atmosphere. Mr. Sawtelle intends issuing cards upon which will be printed instructions how to read the chart.

Many Beggars in Walla Walla. House to house beggary is reported in Walla Walla during the past few days, the city having been visited by a swarm of men out of work, according to papers of that city. Almost every house in the city has been visited and many petty thefts have been reported. It is said that many men have been driven out of Spokane and are making their way south.

HOME-COMING IS STATE WIDE Oregon-O. A. C. Game November 29 May Be Seen by 10,000 Persons.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 8.—A statewide homecoming and reunion that is not merely for alumni but for all citizens is to be a feature of the Oregon-O. A. C. annual football game, November 29. Ten thousand invitations are being sent. Fifteen hundred O. A. C. rovers are expected. Special trains are to be run from Portland.

Comparative scores in northwest conference games this year promise a close struggle, although O. A. C.'s 29 to 0 victory over the famous Michigan Aggies gives its team a great initial prestige. Ten thousand persons may see the game.

Eugene's business district will be decorated; so will the campus and the fraternity houses. A luncheon will be served to the alumni on the campus at noon and a dance to which they will be admitted free will be given in the new armory after the game. Governor Withycombe, Congressman "Pat" McArthur, President Campbell and Kerr and other notables will be in the receiving line.

SPLENDID MEDICAL BUILDING SURE; MAY COST $150,000

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 8.—Twenty-five thousand dollars has been pledged by Portland business and professional men toward the University of Oregon medical building on the Portland campus. Four men gave each a large subscription.

The legislature of last January appropriated $50,000 toward this medical building, provided $25,000 more was raised by subscription. There is thus $75,000 now available.

So ready was the Portland response, however, that Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, dean of the medical school, proposes raising perhaps $75,000 more by subscription so that a $150,000 medical building is expected to go up on the splendid site just south of Portland on the heights.

The medical school this year has 10 freshmen. It is the only medical school in the northwest. Its official national rating is Class A.

The University's Portland activities are annually being extended. In extension courses this year about 600 Portlanders are enrolled.

DIAMONDS The gift "de luxe" "Splinters from the stars" the ancients called them, and they were to them the symbol of affection as undying as the stars themselves. So what could be more fitting as a Christmas gift—mounted in ring, brooch, LaValliere, or other attractive ways? Prices as low as $10 and as high as $250, with scores of other prices between these two extremes. Come in and have a talk with us, anyway. We will be glad to give you the benefit of our years of experience in judging and choosing diamonds. Royal M. Sawtelle Established 1887 The HALLMARK Store

Country School Makes Fine Record. Mrs. W. R. Roberts and Mrs. H. R. Fostek, both well known farmers wives living near Pilot Rock Junction, attended the school fair at Hermiston Nov. 5 and 6, taking with them the school exhibits of District No. 25 for Miss Rose Hamilton's room in the Pilot Rock Junction school.

This school was awarded three prizes: First prize on a sofa pillow made by Alpha Ogs, age 9 years; a second prize on a hair receiver made by Iva Keeslar, age 10 years, and a third prize for the second best display (grades 1-4) of any school in the county. This is a splendid showing for a country school in competition with the town schools of the county.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A young and beautiful New York girl has just declared her intention to become a nurse and join the leper colony in far-off Molokai. The young woman to choose this living death is Miss Mary Chemielewska, a twenty year old parishioner of St. Casimir's church. Miss Chemielewska has gone to Syracuse, the mother home of the Franciscan nuns, where after a novitiate of several months, during which time she will be instructed in nursing, she will leave for the Hawaiian Islands. The colony she will join is the one where Father Damien labored and died. It is one of the most desolate islands of the Hawaiian group.
