

HUNT'S Quality Fruits

We have just received a large shipment of this well known brand direct from California.

IF QUALITY COUNTS WITH YOU, ASK FOR "HUNT'S."

A Few of the Kinds We Carry.

- Apricots
- Peeled Apricots
- Sliced Apricots
- Royal Anne Cherries
- Black Cherries
- Yellow Free Peaches
- Yellow Cling Peaches
- Bartlett Pears
- Gage Plums
- Strawberries
- Blackberries
- Loganberries
- Black Raspberries
- Red Raspberries
- Sliced Pineapple
- Tomatoes
- String Beans

Gray Bros. Grocery Co.

"QUALITY"

Two Phones, 28.

823 Main St.

NEWS OF PENDLETON

Divorce Is Granted.
Judge Phelps yesterday signed a divorce decree in the case of Nellie G. Tweedy vs. Jesse M. Tweedy.

Dwelling Being Remodeled.
E. E. Gervais has taken out a permit to remodel and enlarge his dwelling on Alta street, the improvement to cost $300.

Judgment Is Given.
A default judgment for the plaintiff was yesterday taken in the case of the Oregon Lumber Yard vs. Roger Averill and J. C. Sullivan. The judgment amounts to $124 and 111 cents.

Suit Is Dismissed.
Upon the motion of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the damage suit brought by T. F. Boylen and Howard Stephens against the O-W. R. & N. Co. for alleged damage done to sheep in transit, has been dismissed, a settlement having been made.

Left $25,000 Estate.
W. S. Badley, J. B. McCook and F. E. Judd, appraisers of the estate of the late Joseph Harris, who died in this city on August 1, have filed their report with the county court. The value of the estate, which consists entirely of notes and certificates of deposit, is given as $24,332.95.

Taken to New York.
Word has been received here by friends of Mrs. W. C. Shultz that she has taken her husband, who is a railroad man to the big railroad hospital in New York for treatment for Bright's disease. Her father, A. W. Nye, Pendleton pioneer, and her son, Clark Shultz, have gone to Niagara to stay with her sister, Mrs. Lachlan McCleay.

Isolated Tracts Purchased.
Twenty-one isolated tracts were sold Thursday at a public sale at the La Grande land office and a number of Umatilla county residents were among the purchasers. Among them were the following: John McLaughlin of Pilot Rock, two 40 acre tracts, William C. Shields of Pilot Rock, 120 acres, Guy French of Nye, 40 acres, Henry E. Westgate of Pilot Rock, 40 acres, Nancy J. Round of Cottonwood, 40 acres, Charles W. Mulligan of Echo, 40 acres, Hugh L. Stanfield of Echo, two 40 acre tracts.

Has Schoolmate on Team.
C. P. A. Lonergan, superintendent of the Warren Construction Co., was a little more interested in the coming of the All-Stars today than was the average citizen inasmuch as it gave him an opportunity to renew acquaintance with a former college friend, Pitcher Peffer of the Brooklyn team, who is with the All-Stars, and Lonergan attended the University of Illinois at the same time and played on the same football team.

Peffer took up baseball afterwards and developed into a college star. The last game Lonergan saw him pitch was against Rubbach, another big leaguer who was then in Notre Dame.

Remodeling House.
Dean Tatom has taken out a permit to make interior improvements to his residence on West Court street. The improvements will cost about $400.

Firemen Enjoyed Feed.
The firemen of Hose Co. No. 1 enjoyed a clam bake last evening in the firemen's rooms at the city hall. There was a full attendance out and a very enjoyable time was had. Jack Gibson acted as toastmaster.

Spoke at Arlington.
Rev. J. E. Snyder of the Presbyterian church, spoke on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Arlington on the work the Oregon State Social Hygiene Society is doing. He was assisted by Dr. Donnelly of Arlington and Dr. Parker of La Grande.

Parent-Teachers' Meeting.
A meeting of the parent-teacher's association of the Hawthorne school will be held next Monday in the teachers' room at the Field school. C. P. Strain of the school board and Rev. H. H. Hubbel of the Christian church will be the speakers.

Has Woolen Mill Position.
H. E. McLean has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Pendleton woolen mills and will start upon his duties Monday. Mr. McLean is a graduate of O. A. C. and of an eastern technical school. He has been doing some work under County Surveyor Bradley.

Doctor's Family Ill.
The epidemic of influenza which has been prevalent in Pendleton during the past few weeks is not sparing the homes of the doctors. Dr. J. D. Temple and his four sons have all been confined to their home for several days though the doctor is able to be out today.

Funeral of Mrs. Kimbrell.
The funeral of Mrs. John W. Kimbrell was held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Methodist church and many friends of the pioneer lady and family were present. Rev. C. A. Hodshire preached the funeral sermon. Interment was made in Olney cemetery.

Boys to Use Club Room.
Temporary provision for the newly organized boys' club was made this morning by the board of managers of the Commercial association when it was decided to permit the boys to use the billiard room of the Commercial association until the present library room in the city hall is vacated. At the same time it was decided to sub-rent the Commercial gymnasium to the Pendleton Athletic Club.

Raley to Welcome Sheepmen.
Vice President A. J. McAllister has appointed J. Roy Raley to make the address of welcome to the members of the Oregon Woolgrowers' association at the annual convention to be held in this city next month. Selection of a man this early was made at the request of Secretary J. G. Hoke who is now preparing the program. Secretary Hoke writes that there will be a large delegation of sheepmen present for the convention and that he expects a good meeting.

State Institutions to See Films.
The motion pictures of the 1915 Round-up will be shown to the inmates of the various state eleemosynary and penal institutions in the near future. Next week they will be exhibited at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital and will then be sent to the state board of control at Salem for exhibition at the dozen or more state institutions in and near that city. The Round-up directors offered the board of control the use of the films and the offer was eagerly accepted.

To Handle Tourist Business.
According to B. Parlett, local manager of the American Express company, arrangements have been completed for that company to undertake in a large way a general tourist business. It is now ready to sell steamship tickets, outline travel routes, and to arrange for personally conducted tours to all parts of the world. It was explained by Mr. Parlett that the actual arrangements of a traveler's tour was merely a legitimate extension of the work the company has been doing for many years for practically all Americans who travel abroad.

Saw the Indians Hung.
D. D. Earp, who now hails from Walla Walla and Waitsburg but was formerly a Weston resident, was here yesterday on a real estate deal. He was first in Pendleton in 1875 and was at Weston during the Indian war of 1855. As a reporter for the Weston Ledger he covered the hanging of the three Indians who had murdered some white men on the reservation. Mr. Earp has been a newspaper man, cartoonist and real estate dealer. He has had some very interesting experiences. He is the father of Fred Earp, formerly city editor of the East Oregonian and now northwest editor on the Seattle Times.

Mrs. Charles Rayburn is confined to her home for a week suffering from a dislocated arm and an attack of grip. She has been ill for a week, and is not improving very rapidly.

Do Your Thanksgiving Shopping Now

"It's a pleasure to trade at the Golden Rule Store, for we know we get the right goods at the right price." That's a remark we hear quite often and it's from people who talk from experience. Compare our every day prices with others offered you at specials.

- Thanksgiving table linen, compare these with a 50c value, Golden Rule price, 25c.
- Table linens, a good dollar value only 69c.
- Compare our 72 in. all pure linen damask with any $1.50 quality, Golden Rule store every day price 98c.
- Real heavy Irish table linen, $1.75 value only $1.25.
- Extra fancy pure linen damask, full 72 in. wide, Compare it with a $2 quality, Golden Rule price only $1.49.
- Napkins, good size and splendid for every day use, per doz. 49c, 69c, 98c.
- All linen napkins, full size, at a third less than elsewhere, per set 98c, $1.49, $1.98.
- Extra fancy napkins, large size, pure linen, per set, $2.49, $2.98.
- Fancy linen towels suitable for dresser scarfs at 25c, 49c, 69c, 98c.
- Large size huck towels, others get 15c, 20c and 25c for no better quality, at 8 1/2c, 10c, 12 1/2c.
- Turkish towels extra large and heavy, 65c and 75c values at 39c, 49c.
- Large heavy Turk towel, compare these with any 40c value at 2 for 39c, 20c and 25c Turkish towels. You can get the same value at the Golden Rule for 10c, 12 1/2c.

You can do better at The Golden Rule - J.C. Penney Co. Inc. - 83 BUSY STORES. We Lead Others follow.

TEMPLE THEATRE

Saturday Only—Peggy Burke in "THE BOWL BEARER" 5c 5 Good Films Tonight 10c

STARTING SUNDAY NIGHT The Frank Rich Co.

and "The 20th Century Maids" PEOPLE SHOWS Costumes. All New. Late Musical Comedy Success. 2 Performances Sunday Night. Many Girls—Few Men. 15c, 25c, 35c.

Pastime

TODAY ONLY Essanay proffers "THE REAPING," in 3 acts, presenting Richard C. Travers and Lillian Drew. Vitagraph presents the comical farce "ON WITH THE DANCE," presenting Jewel Hunt and Mary Murrie. Helen R. Gibson in Hazards of Helen; sensational railroad story "DANGER AHEAD." 10c 5c

Pastime Sunday

FRANK DANIELS in CROOKY By Paul West

Vitagraph in 5 parts under the personal direction of J. STUART BLACKTON and ALBERT E. SMITH

Vitagraph BLUE RIBBON FEATURE

The inimitable comic opera king, Frank Daniels, in a Comedy Error in five parts. First time in pictures, assisted by Charles Eldridge, Harry T. Morey, Edwin Robbins, Anna Laughlin and Evart Overton. 15c 5c

ALTA

Last Time Today THE NOTED DRAMATIC STAR OF BEAUTY CHARLOTTE WALKER In an original photoplay of stirring dramatic episode and thrilling narrative, entitled,

'Out of Darkness'

MISS WALKER IN THE ROLE OF A WOMAN OF LOST MEMORY. Big Time Vaudeville Tomorrow and Monday Mary Pickford

In a faithful screen presentation of the celebrated stage success "ESMERALDA" By Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "The Dawn of a Tomorrow." As "Esmeralda" Mary Pickford renders a most touching and sympathetic screen impersonation and scores a remarkable success. PARAMOUNT TRAVELOGUE NO. 10—Various modes of transportation in Santiago; Efficiency drill of famous fire department; a clever serious cartoon. MONDAY—VIN MOORE DRAMATIC STOCK CO. BAND and ORCHESTRA.