EARL C. ABELL.

Captain Earl C. Abell, right tackle on the Colgate team looks like All-American material. Abell is playing his fourth and last year on the Colgate team. He is 22 years of age, is five feet eleven inches tall and weighs 294 pounds. He is one of the heaviest tackles playing this year. He has proved himself a leader of quality not only by directing his men on the field, but by opening wide holes in the opposing lines for his backs. He charges hard and tackles with his head and shoulders. His work in the army and Yale games was sensational and gives him first rank among the tackles of the east.

Coffee

Coffee may be good at the roaster and poor in your coffee-cup. It may be cheap by the pound and high-priced by the cup.

Cheap coffee can't be protected against loss of flavor. It is only such coffee as Schilling's Best that gets the absolute protection of airtight tins.

All the fine flavor is preserved for you. This means more cups to a pound—economy and quality.

Poor to See Fair Free. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—The attendance figures for the Panama-Pacific Exposition passed the 17,000,000 mark. There remains practically 16 days in which the exposition may reach the 18,000,000 mark set for it by the officials some time ago. Every person in San Francisco too poor to afford to buy a ticket to the exposition will be admitted free on a day set apart. Patrolmen on every beat began taking the names of such as have not seen the exposition.

British Writer Is Fined. LONDON, Nov. 24.—J. T. W. Newbold, formerly English correspondent of the New York Call, pleaded guilty in the Buxton police court where he was placed on trial on a charge of intruding the defense of the realm act, in writing a letter printed in the Call, "containing statements likely to interfere with the success of his majesty's forces."

He was fined $125. In defense of his anti-militarist articles he said he was a Quaker and wrote from religious convictions.

Maternity! The Word of Words

It is written into life's expectations that motherhood is the one sublime accomplishment. And if there is anything, no matter how simple, how apparently trivial it may seem, if it can aid, help, assist or in any way comfort the expectant mother, it is a blessing. And such is a remedy called "Mother's Friend."

You apply it over the stomach muscles. It is gently rubbed on the surface, and makes the muscles pliant; this relieves the strain on ligaments, natural expansion takes place without undue effect upon the nerves. And as the time approaches, the mind has gone through a period of repose, of gentle expectancy, and this has an unquestioned influence upon the future child. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that three generations of mothers have used and recommended "Mother's Friend." Ask your nearest druggist for a bottle of this splendid remedy. He will get it for you. And then write to Bradford Regulator Co., 467 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most interesting book of information to prospective mothers. It is mailed free. Write today. It is a book you will enjoy.

LOST—ONE LEGATION, FINDER NOTIFY GERARD

(United Press Correspondence.) BERLIN, Oct. 15.—(By Mail.) A Washington cablegram today instructed Ambassador Gerard to take over the diplomatic affairs, documents and property of the tiny Italian republic of San Marino, geographically the smallest in the world. The country covers only a few square miles but has 20,000 inhabitants and possesses guns which cannot be used in target practice because they overshoot the borders in all directions. Nevertheless, San Marino has declared war on Germany and Mr. Gerard is its Berlin representative. The only trouble is that he can't find anything with which to do representing. As representative in Berlin of England Japan and other enemies of Germany's, Mr. Gerard has taken over their enormous embassies and voluminous documents. He has tried and tried hard to find the San Marino legation. He can't find a thing. He said he might advise Washington that the legation is mislaid or that, if San Marino ever had a legation or anything else in Berlin, somebody has walked away with it.

Distress of the Stomach. There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after meals. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Padgham, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere. Adv.
