A Notre Dame Lady's Appeal

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pain in the kidneys or neuralgia pain, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Sumner, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

grin; there are gruesome sounds when the lights are low, and screech outdoors in the drifting snow, and ghostly steps on the silent stair, and seven bars are active there. Oh, seven bars of divers kinds, but all possessing inventive mimics, and when their presence they would explain you're satisfied they're all insane. A fishy magnate who trades in bonds, a learned professor who talks of blonde, two lovely maidens, a stately dame, a haberdasher whose heart's gone lame, a politician, who trains with crooks, a famous author of summer books—they all line up at the Baldpate Inn, and the way they lie is a mere act. "Scotch all the fun, as it bubbles there, a drama's working, that lifts your hair, a plot's unfolded, so well designed, methinks its equal is hard to find. Oh love and laughter, and hate and fear, and all emotions are sizzling here, and while you're laughing you sigh, and then you quit your sighing to laugh again. You'll miss a gem if you don't see a performance of "Seven Keys to Baldpate Inn."—Walt Mason, Oregon theater, Sunday, November 28.

"Potash & Perimeter"

The return of "Potash & Perimeter" to Pendleton will seem to hundreds of playgoers like the return of two cherished friends after a long absence. Their unconscious hunch, their keen knowledge of human nature, their philosophy and their kindness under their crude business exterior have endeared them to millions in this country and in England. "Ab" and "Mawruss" return to the Oregon theater for an engagement of one night only—Tuesday, November 29. Seats will be placed on sale Monday, November 29 at 10 a. m. at Warren's Music Store.

Trying to Use "Muffer"?

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Hints have been circulated that the state department at Washington is seeking to pin the "muffer" on evidence tending to incite the German Attaché, Baron Ed. in charges of customs violation against Hamburg-American officials. For this reason it was further hinted, certain evidence connecting him with supplying German commerce raiders may not be introduced.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Speaking of the Blomgren-Kirkpatrick nuptials the Western Leader has the following to say:

Tuesday evening, November 23, at eight o'clock, Miss Anita A. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Robert G. Blomgren were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick, on South Water street.

The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used by the officiating minister, Rev. N. D. Wood. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk marquisette over white satin, and the couple presented an attractive appearance. Only immediate relatives were present.

The bride was born and reared in this community and is a graduate of the Eastern Oregon State Normal. She is also a graduate of Holmes Business College of Portland, and took special training at the University of Washington. A trained and capable teacher, she was for the past two years principal of the Washington school at Pendleton.

The groom is the eldest son of Joseph Blomgren, and is a progressive young farmer. He is held by the community in the highest esteem.

Mr. and Mrs. Blomgren went at once to housekeeping on the Blomgren farm, where the many valuable wedding gifts bestowed upon them will be utilized to good advantage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and their two little daughters, Margaret and Pauline, left Wednesday morning for a winter's sojourn at Huntington Beach and Long Beach, in California. They had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ely in Portland yesterday, and purpose spending the next week in San Francisco, where Mr. and Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Scott's parents, will meet them, remaining there until the close of the fair—Athena Press.

The Friday Bridge Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. R. H. Horne as hostess at her home on Madison street. Honors were won by Mrs. C. S. King. Mrs. Horne had as guests other than club members Mrs. Sylvan Cohn, Mrs. King, Mrs. W. C. McKinney, Mrs. Sam Palne and Mrs. C. O. Hinehart. The club will not meet again until after the holidays.

Mrs. N. R. Messerly of Tacoma is a house guest of Mrs. Dean Tatom.

Bert Cariano, well known Athena saloonman, was a visitor in the city yesterday. He reports having sold his stock to Al Nordman and Charles Brown, who will conduct the thirst parlor until Dec. 31.

Walter A. Smith of Ione, a brother of Mrs. Joe H. Parkes and of Mrs. Rose Campbell, is visiting in the city.

Frank Berlin, a prominent farmer of Athena, was here yesterday ascertaining the condition of the wheat market.

A family reunion about the dinner table was enjoyed Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Porter of this city. Will Porter of Pilot Rock and Mr. and Mrs. James Hoskins of Echo were among those present.

The members of the Eagles lodge enjoyed a social session in their hall last evening until a late hour. The Eagles will join with the Woodmen of the World on December 14 in a celebration of the lifting of the mortgage on their hall.

The Woodmen of the World will hold forth in the Eagle-Woodmen hall Monday evening and all members and their families have been invited to attend. A program of entertainment will be followed by a dance and banquet.

A pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent yesterday by the Pendleton Delphian Club at their regular meeting. The program was a continuation of the previous one on Egypt. The following ladies took part with well prepared talks on the subject of their assignment: Mesdames Willard Bond, Will Moore, Roy Bailey, Laura Nash, D. N. Heber, Omer Smith. Mr. Watt of Portland, who is here in the interest of the young ladies' Delphian Club, was present and was much pleased with the work of the club. He believes the well known Pendleton spirit of advancement was well manifested and remarks that there was a large per cent responded when called upon than in the average Delphian Club. The date of the next meeting is December 18th.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-up people on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Church of the Redeemer. Advent Sunday. The holy communion will be celebrated at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; divine service and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. There will be special music with anthems. All are cordially invited. Charles Guinness, rector.

550 RABBITS DIE IN DRIVE. IONE, Ore., Nov. 26.—The rabbit drive held at Cecil, Ore., was attended by about 500 from Ione and vicinity. More than 550 rabbits were slain. Lunch was served to the visitors by some of the resident ranchers.
