SWINE MARKET IS OFF A NICKEL; BIG RUN IN PORTLAND

(Courtesy The Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Hog market was under pressure at North Portland yards overnight. A large per cent of the arrivals consisted of contract stuff from the Willamette valley to a local meat company at $5.85, although top seat of the mountain stuff was not that low. There were no arrivals of either mutton or lambs in the North Portland yards overnight. With the exception of the very small showing during the previous 24 hours, there have been no arrivals in the mutton division since Monday, when the showing was comparatively limited.

General strength is indicated by the mutton and lamb trade with former extreme prices nominally continued.

Farm Home Names Urged.
SALEM, Ore., Dec. 2.—Prospects for the success of the "rural home beautification" project for industrial clubs in rural districts of Oregon are bright according to J. A. Churchill, superintendent of public instruction. This is a new club project added at the suggestion of T. B. Wilcox of Portland, who has offered prizes for the winners.

Superintendent Churchill suggests that every farm of rural home should have a name. The legislature has passed a law providing for the registration of farm homes with the county clerk.

Mr. Churchill believes a campaign among school children would result in the naming of many more farms.

TRYING TO FORCE MANDOT INTO FIGHT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—Tommy Door, the New Orleans fight manager who is plotting the destiny of "Pete" Herman the heavyweight and Frankie Russell, the lightweight, is real proved the cause of Peter's bewilderment is that he thinks Joe Mandot, the lightweight who fought with Russell, is substituting a bout with Russell.

According to Door, Mandot would lead to fight Russell if the latter would defeat Rocky Kinnis of Detroit. Russell went out and won a decision over Kinnis, but Mandot then went back on his promise to fight Russell, saying that the latter was not in his class.

Wife, I am certainly glad we've got our Winter Coal Supply in—it looks as though we're going to have a real cold winter; besides, think of the money I've saved by buying early in the season. There's Jones' across the street, they never buy their coal until the cold weather sets in—they not only pay more, but as a rule are freezing while waiting for it to be delivered.

Have you YOUR WINTER COAL SUPPLY in?

Why not order NOW, when deliveries are prompt?
