NEWS OF PENDLETON

Hospital Dairymen Ill.

J. O. Travelstead, head dairyman at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital, is confined to his bed with a severe case of la grippe.

Mercury Down to 24.

The mercury in the official thermometer fell to 24 last night. This is within one degree of the minimum recorded so far this winter. A heavy frost gave Pendleton its whitest coat of the season last night.

Recovering from Injury.

Torrance Crosson, one of the attendants at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital who some time ago suffered a fracture of the leg, is able to be about on crutches now but is still unable to attend to his duties.

Default Judgment Taken.

A default judgment for $1250, attorneys fees, interest and costs in the case of Frank Stanton vs. Chas. Stanton, has been signed by Judge Phelps and the lien on two lots in Helix is ordered foreclosed for the satisfaction of the judgment.

Ritner Is Returning.

Representative R. W. Ritner, who has been in California during the last few weeks, is returning home, according to Sheriff T. D. Taylor, who arrived back from San Francisco last evening. Mr. Ritner was to have reached Portland last night.

Umatilla Men Get Patents.

Among the list of Oregon inventors receiving letters patent from the U. S. Patent office recently appears the name of Roy H. Irwin of Stanfield and Cyril G. Brownell of Umatilla. The former received a patent for a filing device and the latter for a control for a buck rake.

Sheriff Back With Duke.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor arrived home last night from San Francisco with Charles Duke, the young Italian contractor wanted here on a charge of lasing bogus checks. Duke was arrested in the Bay City on a similar charge but was released to the local officials.

Election Judges Get Pay.

Instead of receiving pay for two days as stated yesterday in a local paper, the judges and clerks who served Monday in the city election are drawing warrants only for one day. They are each being paid three dollars. The total election expense was $150.

Treasurer's November Report.

The November report of Treasurer G. W. Bradley shows that the balance in all of the county funds shows on the books at $77,756.88. However, this is not the actual balance inasmuch as there are a good many outstanding warrants. The amount in the general fund is shown to be $34,259.71.

New Steel Being Delivered.

The O.-W. R. & N. Co. has begun the delivering of steel for the 104 miles of track replacement ordered a few weeks ago, according to word received here. Of this new track, there will be 10 1-2 miles between Echo and Yoakum for which seven miles of rails have been delivered, there will be 22 miles between Pendleton and Gibbon and rails for which have been received and distributed and 11 1-2 miles between Gibbon and Duncan, the work being now actually under way.

Ill With Tonsillitis.

Elvin Lampkin, who has been ill for several days with a severe case of tonsillitis, is reported better today.

Another LaGrippe Victim.

Mrs. A. C. Hampton, wife of the city superintendent, is confined to her bed today with an attack of la grippe.

Last Day for Census Returns.

Today is the last day for the filing of school census reports with the county superintendent, according to the law, but as yet there are many of the reports not yet received.

Bishop Mayor of Freewater.

G. H. Bishop, well known young attorney of Freewater and law partner of W. M. Peterson of this city, was elected mayor of Freewater without opposition, according to news received here. Bishop is also president of the Freewater Commercial Club.

Back from Farmers' Convention.

Assessor C. P. Strain and W. W. Harrah returned home at noon today from Weiser, Idaho, where they attended the convention of the Idaho Farmers' Union as delegates from the Umatilla county union. They report a splendid meeting. A. R. Shumway of Milton was also among the county delegates in attendance.

To Hold Meetings at Helix.

Rev. H. H. Hubbell, pastor of the local Christian church, will leave tomorrow for Helix where he will conduct evangelistic meetings for two weeks at the church there. During the two Sundays he will be absent his pulpit will be filled by Rev. McCormack of Helix.

Trial Is Postponed.

The trial of Eckles and Geinger in the Pilot Rock justice court on a charge of hunting quail, set for yesterday afternoon, was again postponed and January 26 is the new date set. The defendants demanded trial by jury and it will be impossible to pick such a jury as they demanded until after the first of the year.

PENDLETON BOWLING TEAM DEFEATED BY WALLA WALLA

The Pendleton bowling team lost a match with the Walla Walla team last evening on the Walla Walla alleys, winning only one out of the three games played. The Walla Wallans scored 2709 pins in the three games and the Pendletonians 2545, both scores being high for those alleys. Adolph Mollitor of Walla Walla, formerly of this city, was high roller with a score of 574 and McDevitt of Pendleton was only six pins behind Slaughter of Walla Walla who made the highest single score, 212. BAKER SCHOOL OPENS BANK.

Books Taken Out by 50 Young Depositors on First Day. BAKER, Ore., Dec. 10.—When the Baker public school savings system started City Superintendent A. C. Strange made out books for 50 youthful depositors in the South Baker and Central schools.

Nearly $50 was placed on deposit, but Mr. Strange feels highly encouraged as it developed that a large number of students already had accounts at the postoffice or at the bank. Mr. Strange expects a total of 200 depositors from the four schools. Nickel deposits were the most frequent made, also among the most numerous. A thrifty girl in the third grade stored the largest account with $2.15.

Tanker sailed Wednesday. LONDON, Dec. 10.—Lloyd's announced that the Standard Oil tank steamer Communipaw, which was variously reported as sunk, captured, shelled and uninjured, sailed from Alexandria Wednesday.

Panama City has two breweries.

BAR VIEW STILL ON MAP.

Buildings Destroyed by Tides Are to Be Replaced.

BARVIEW, Ore., Dec. 10.—While everything south of the jetty and on the outside of the tracks has been demolished by the waves, this constituted but a small part of the available property at this place, there being left a long strip of territory east of the tracks.

This property is safe now, thanks to the Southern Pacific, in building a seawall to protect their tracks. There is a considerable stretch of smooth sandy beach outside this wall at mean tide now, and it is thought that with the lower summer tides this will provide a better beach than ever. Besides this beach sand jetties in back of the jetty and these

"The Blindness of Virtue"

The great morality photodrama, is attracting universal attention because of the wonderful lesson it carries to young girls. It presents a moral every girl will understand. Indorsed by churchmen and sociologists. Mothers do you tell your daughters all they should know?

This great picture abolishes ignorance in such a way that no one is shocked and good taste is not violated.
