NEWS OF PENDLETON

Will Build Barn.

Ed Lanning this morning took out a permit for the building of a barn, 32x40 in dimensions, on Chestnut street. It will cost him about $200.

Joke on the Census Taker.

County Superintendent L. E. Young has a joke on Harry Bickers, who took the school census of Pendleton. In checking over the list of names of children of school age in Pendleton, the county superintendent found that his own four children had not been enumerated.

Costs Assessed to Twitchell.

County Clerk Frank Salling this morning received the mandate of the supreme court in the case of Sharon Arnold Twitchell vs. W. L. Thompson, made in conformance with the recent findings of that tribunal. The cost of the trial to the defendant, $162, are assessed to the plaintiff, the supreme court finding that the lower court had made no error in rulings.

Estate of Hannah Young.

John H. Young, husband of the late Hannah Young, who died at her home here on Nov. 28, was this morning appointed administrator of her estate which is valued approximately at $5000. It consists of a lot on Market street valued at $600, two lots on the corner of Main and Bluff, valued at $3500 and one Portland lot valued at $1500. The husband and three sons are the heirs.

Evans May Meet Rivers.

Bobby Evans, the lightweight fighter who has had several scraps in Pendleton, Athena and Weston, may meet Joe Rivers, the Mexican terror, sometime in the near future, according to Portland papers. Rivers is now in Montana and Butte promoters have been trying to sign up Evans. The latter retired from the ring some time ago to manage Billy Mascott, the bantam who fought Jockey Bennett several times, but may re-enter to meet the Mex.

Coe Trades Stanfield Property.

Dr. Henry Waldo Coe has just purchased 10 acres of land lying in a strip adjoining Morningside Hospital on the east and facing Base Line road, or East Stark street. The consideration was $12,000. As part payment on this property a 20-acre tract on the Furnish irrigation project at Stanfield and lying near the government reservoir was turned over at $5000. The Stanfield tract will at once be improved by the purchaser, while the tract at the sanitarium will go into intensified gardening for the most part, although the erection of a second men's pavilion thereon is also in contemplation for the institution.—Portland Oregonian.

Has Bloodpoisoning.

Richard Yerxa of Umatilla came up last night from his home, suffering from blood poisoning in his hand. He went to the hospital and underwent an operation.

Old Indian Woman Dies.

We-lak-hin, an Indian woman about 75 years old, died yesterday of the reservation of complications due to senility. For the past two years she had been a charge of Parsons Motanic, prominent Indian.

Strain Spent Nothing.

Water Commissioner C. P. Strain was another candidate who spent nothing during the recent campaign, according to his statement just filed. Councilman-elect Claude Penland's campaign was equally expensive.

Christmas Candy Arrives.

The candy for the municipal Christmas tree has already arrived and is now stored in the city hall. There are ten 30 pound pails of plain mixed candy and three large boxes of chocolates.

Death at County Hospital.

John Hubbard, who for the past nine years had been at the county hospital, died yesterday of ailments incident to old age. He was 87 years old. His only known relative is a daughter living in California.

Pendleton the Best Town.

Pendleton is the best little city James Titus of Baker has seen for a long time. He said so himself this morning just before boarding No. 17 en route to California to spend the winter. Mr. Titus, who is 73 years old, has been visiting his step-daughter, Mrs. Ina Rice, in this city.

Goose Hunters Fined.

Two arrests were made yesterday at Millers Station on the O. W. R. & N. road by Warden Robert H. Young of Heppner, both men being charged with shooting geese on the Columbia near that place. One is the section foreman of the railroad at Millers and the other is his assistant. Both men were fined $25 each. They shot into a drove of wild geese.

A County-Wide Snowfall.

Snow fell last night in every section of Umatilla county. Here in Pendleton the sleety fall of yesterday afternoon gave way during the early evening to a heavy rain but about 9:20 snow began falling again, and this morning there was a blanket of white over the city about an inch and a half in depth. In the west end of the county the fall was about the same, according to reports brought up, but at Helix, Athena and surrounding points the storm was much heavier. Between six and ten inches fell at these places, according to news brought in today. In the foothill sections, the precipitation was also much heavier. Today the weather has moderated and the snow has been melting, making the streets very slushy.

Decree in Herr-Ritter Case.

Judge Phelps has finally settled the Herr-Ritter land dispute which has received considerable attention from the court during the past year. His decree, signed today, instructs John Ritter to execute a written contract with T. F. Herr for a ten acre piece of land in the east end of the county, he finding that the two had had a verbal contract for the purchase of the same. He also orders Ritter to pay to Nehemiah McDonald the sum of $213.32 interest on a mortgage which the latter holds against the land in question and 30 acres more. The deed given by Ritter to McDonald he declares to be nothing more than a mortgage and orders the same foreclosed if Ritter fails to pay the interest. He decrees that Herr owes $106.66 interest on the mortgage and declares the value of the improvements on the land, put there by Herr, to be worth $450 and decrees the same to be a lien against the land. In case the mortgage is foreclosed, he orders the 20 acre piece sold first and, if this is not sufficient, that the other 10 acres be sold, McDonald's mortgage to be satisfied first and Herr's lien second.

Mrs. Skinner Sues Furnas.

Another development in the Furnas-Skinner legal controversy over property on the Umatilla project is the filing of a suit by Mrs. Georgis Skinner, wife of W. H. Skinner, against Leroy W. Furnas and wife and J. H. Reed and wife. Furnas sued Skinner recently but lost because he made the husband instead of the wife the defendant. He immediately filed another suit with Mrs. Skinner as a party and now she comes with her own suit. She alleges that the Furnases sold a tract of land on the project to the Reeds and that she contracted to buy a small portion of the land from Reed for $450, payment to be made when clear title to the property could be given. She, thereupon, entered into open possession of the property and constructed a $4500 dwelling upon it. She has never paid the purchase price, she alleges, because the Reeds have never been able to furnish clear title. She stands ready, she declares, to pay the price with interest to whomsoever the court orders. She asks that she be declared the rightful owner of the property and be given a deed upon payment of the $615

G. A. R. is Meeting.

KH Carson Post, G. A. R. is this afternoon holding a meeting in the city hall for the purpose of preparing a report for the state officers.

Representative Ritter Back.

Representative H. W. Ritter has returned to Pendleton after spending several weeks in California. He stopped at Portland for several days en route home.

District Attorneys Meet.

About half the district attorneys in the state, including District Attorney Steiner of this county, met today at Salem to discuss the prohibition law which goes into effect January 1. Attorney General Brown made an address to the prosecuting officers, according to a telegraphic dispatch.

First Game This Eve.

Tonight will see the first basketball game of the Pendleton high school season with the Weston high school girls lined up against the local team. Besides the regular game a preliminary will be played between the soph and junior boys. The whistle for the first game will be blown at 7:45.

Deputy Warden Appointed.

Deputy Game Warden George Tonkin this morning received from the state warden notices of the appointment of George Bade, Ernest March, Charles Winn and W. J. Kelly, Jr., all of Milton as special deputy wardens for Umatilla county. H. A. Williams of the same city was re-appointed. The Milton Gun Club joined with Warden Tonkin in recommending these men.

Delegates Are Named.

A meeting of the Umatilla County Fish & Game association and of the Round-up Gun Club was held last evening at the Mallock-Laatz offices and delegates named to the annual convention of the Oregon Sportsmen's League in Portland on Dec. 19 and 20. President Wesley Mallock of the fish and game association, W. W. Hoch and Jack Gibson were named as delegates and will probably attend. Marion Jack, who is a member of the state fish and game commission, will also probably attend.

Good Goose Weather.

Local sportsmen are anticipating some good goose hunting if the snow weather continues for a few days. Though the snow keeps the geese from alighting in fields, it makes hunting along the streams much better. The geese keep moving and their flights are generally along the river. The snow also eliminates the necessity of pits, the only shelter for the hunter needed being a sheet or piece of white canvas.

Three More Taking Exams.

Three more teachers appeared this morning to take the examinations being conducted for applicants for state certificates. They are Lucille Cordery of Adams, Mabel Montgomery of Weston and Loda A. McDonald principal of the Columbia school. All three are applying for exemption papers. Of the 24 now taking the examinations only one has never had any experience as a teacher. Supt. Young expects several more teachers tomorrow.

"Twin Beds" Was Funny.

Ludicrous situations and ready wit mark the farce comedy by Margaret Mayo and Salisbury Field given here last evening. It is a clever play, though not any more laughable than Miss Mayo's production, "Baby Mine," shown here a few seasons ago. The cast now carrying "Twin Beds" is good and there is room for particular praise for Pulette Day as Blanche Hawkins and J. Paul Porcast as Signor Monti. The play drew a good house.

Young Girls Win Prizes.

Florence Mytinger of the Lincoln school, Lois Vanlandingham of the Hawthorne school and Mary Frances of the Washington school have been declared the winners in the prize essay contest conducted in the three grade schools by Manager Vincent of the Pacific Power & Light Co. As winners each will receive from the company a small electric range which is an exact replica of the larger ranges and upon which the girls can cook and bake. The three prize essays will be run in the advertisements of the P. P. & L. Co., beginning today with the essay of little Miss Mytinger. Manager Vincent also announces that his company will present an electric grill to the girl in the high school domestic science department making the best grades for the semester.
