Ten of his high school boy friends last evening ate a very excellent birthday dinner with Harry Hayes, Jr., at his home, 515 Blaine street, his mother inviting them in for the occasion. The young man was eighteen years old yesterday and the anniversary proved a happy one. His friends presented him with a ring the setting of which was a turquoise, his birthstone.

The Eagles enjoyed another one of their good times, set-together meetings last evening, a program, banquet and dance making a full evening. Mayor-elect James A. Best presided over the meeting and introduced the performers on the program. Music by the United Orchestra opened the program and this was followed by a duet by Richard K. Lawrence and Joe Roundly. Angus Walker, a Scotch comedian, played several five selections and did some character work that entitles him to ranking alongside the popular Jock Coleman. Mr. Lawrence sang a solo, "The Organ Grinder's Serenade," and later gave a very clever recitation. A Gerson played several instrumental selections. A sumptuous banquet followed the program and the evening was concluded by a few hours of dancing.

The following from the Stanfield Optimist concerns a former Pendleton high school boy and a young lady who formerly lived at Pilot Rock: Miss Mabel Connor, the attractiveness of Raymond Horace Walker whose wedding is to be an event of the near future, was the inspiration for a charmingly appointed luncheon and "shower" on Wednesday afternoon for which Mrs. Charles Hoggard, Mrs. Harry Wesel and Miss Bernice Walker were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Hoggard. An unusually clever arrangement was carried out in the appointments of the affair. A color motif of red and white being perfected by the use of quantities of fascinating red hearts mingled with delicate white button chrysanthemums and streamers of red and white. At the daintily decked luncheon table where covers were laid for 22, the places were marked by name cards fastened to chrysanthemums and tied with red bows. A great number of handsome gifts were received by the pretty bride-elect which will find a permanent place in the new household. Following the luncheon the guests hemmed towels which were later presented to Miss Connor. Among those who enjoyed the happy occasion were:

Mrs. E. E. Ostant Mrs. Karl Lund Mrs. John Pagan, Mrs. Herb Perrin, Mrs. B. A. Holte, Mrs. Ivan Dunning, Mrs. Harry Wesel, Miss Bernice Walker, Miss Mary Connelly, Miss Cora Farringer, Miss Mabel Connor, Mrs. Hascue Duff, Miss Lena Wald, Mrs. L. M. Hills, Mrs. E. S. Lundwall, Mrs. H. E. Bartholomew, Mrs. Nolep Richards, Mrs. Chas. Hoggard, Mrs. T. O. Yates, Mrs. Frank Sloan, Mrs. George Coe, Mrs. John Beaver.

The bride-to-be is the charming and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Connor of Pilot Rock. Her fiance is the elder son of former county commissioner Horace Walker and a prominent young business man. The wedding will be celebrated on December 23rd in Pendleton.

The program on Christmas eve for the children will start promptly at 7 o'clock with the singing of carols by Miss Eleanor Vincent and a chorus of fifty children. They will be on a float and will be drawn through the following streets, starting from the Presbyterian church: West Alta to Main, north on Main to Pendleton hotel; return to Court street; east on Court street to College street; west on College street to Alta; west on Alta to Main street; south on Main street to Railroad and back on Main street to the Christmas tree. At 7:30 o'clock the musical program will start at the tree, opened by a trombone solo by Frank Haves. The rest of the program will be as follows: Solo, selected; anthem, choir of 36 voices under direction of Hal Bishop; solo, Walter Rose; anthem choir; solo, Miss Mary Lee Snyder; anthem, choir; reading, Miss Olive Gwin. After the musical program, the girls of the high school, under the direction of Miss Boyd, will give a jumping jack drill around the tree.

At 8 o'clock the big event for the children will start with the arrival of Santa Claus and members of the Claus family. The distinguished visitors will be drawn in a decorated automobile and will make their entrance from the south on Main street. The committee has again called attention to parents that they should have their children at the tree a 3 o'clock promptly. Every child must have a ticket and these may be secured at the schools or from teachers who will be at the tree. All the teachers will wear a red ribbon over the shoulder. Spectators are again asked to remember they should keep to the sidewalks so as not to crowd those who take part in the program.

Miss Irene Shea left yesterday afternoon for Vancycle to be a guest of Mrs. George Strang.

Roy Blake and daughter, of Washburn, Wash., were passengers on the N. P. train from Helix this morning.

Dr. J. Griswold of Helix, came down on the Northern Pacific train this morning to attend to some business here.

J. H. Young, pioneer local resident, is recovering from an illness of several weeks that confined him to his home on East Bluff street.

WIFE HAS RIGHT TO TANGO.

Court So Rules and Suppresses Protesting Husband. PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Police Justice Du France of Mount Kisco, near here, settled a dispute between Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Osborne, of Mohagan today as to her right to tango over his objection. Osborne rebuked his wife for going to a dance in Mount Kisco. When she insisted on tangoing as one of a wife's privileges, she alleged, he boxed her ears. She summoned him to court and asked the justice if she hadn't a right to tango if she wished. Winning her point she made a complaint of assault. Osborne was found guilty and placed upon probation for six months. Mrs. Osborne smiled, asserting, as she left court that she would dance now all she pleased.

Assist Your Stomach

To Get Rid of the Poisonous Gases and Fermenting Food.

A good long fast will do this sometimes. A trip to the mountains, tramping, roughing it. Yes, very good remedies. But are you going to avail yourself of either one of these remedies? No! Then the next best thing is to try a bottle of Peruna. Take it according to directions. You will have a natural appetite. All gas and fermentation in the stomach will disappear.

Read what Mrs. Emma Bell, Box 204, Fort Pierce, Florida, says: "I was taken suddenly with swelling of the stomach and bowels, and great distress. Very painful. Three doctors gave me no relief. Could not eat anything. Everything soured. I was starving to death. I began taking Peruna and was soon strong enough to do work. After taking five bottles I can truthfully say I am well. I gained twenty pounds."

RAILWAY LINES IN OREGON EARN OVER 7 MILLION DOLLARS

TAXES AGGREGATING OVER TWO MILLIONS ARE INCREASE OVER 1911.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 18.—Net operating revenues of the 29 steam railroads in Oregon for the year ending June 30, 1915, were $4,235,598.33, according to the ninth annual report of the Oregon Public Service Commission. The report was filed with Governor Withycombe. In taxes, the report shows that the steam roads paid $1,452,577.61 to Oregon counties. The roads' freight revenue per ton mile amounted to 1.2093 cents. These roads received 1,459,4 revenue per passenger mile. The total steam mileage operated in Oregon during the 12 months was 2918.57. Net operating revenues of electric railroads totaled $1,645,124.35, while taxes paid were $723,879.32. Net operating revenue of both steam and electric roads in Oregon for the year was $4,785,479.57, while $2,200,441.27 was paid in taxes. The report shows a falling off in operating revenues of $1,177,430 from the year preceding, while taxes paid show a slight increase.

Net operating revenues of electric utilities for the year ending June 30 last totaled $2,278,389; gas utilities, $789,495; telegraph utilities, $2189; telephone utilities, $824,413; water utilities, $153,532. The total number of formal complaints filed with the commission during the year was 139, compared with 141 in 1914. Ninety-one of the new matters were in utility matters. New informal railroad complaints were 263 against 345 in 1914, while informal utility complaints increased from 177 to 194 in 1915. There were handed during the year 296 informal railroad matters, 263 filed during the year, and 27 pending at the time of the last report. Adjustment of 184 was procured informally, eight were transferred to formal or other position, 10 were carried to the interstate commerce commission, 25 were dropped for lack of jurisdiction, 11 were discontinued because of the discontinuation of the plaintiff to pursue to a conclusion, 17 were dismissed as not well founded, and 21 are pending.

Of the new complaints, 196 were filed by individuals, companies or associations, 21 were investigations on the commission's own motion, and 12 originated with the carriers. Complaints dealing with service that were handled informally numbered 79, while rates were involved in 101. Of informal utility matters, 219 were handled, 294 of these being new. Informal adjustment was accomplished in 167, and 69 were transferred to other dockets, five were discontinued because plaintiffs were disinclined to pursue them further, 13 were dismissed as not well founded, and 25 are pending.

Electric rates for light or power were involved in 28 informal utility matters, electric services in 17, gas rates or service in 39, water rates of service in eight, street railway fare or service in two telephone rates in 23, telephone service in 61, telegraph rates or service in two, hazardous wiring conditions in 50.

COOS CAMP WILL RESUME.

MILL at Marshfield is badly in Need of Logging Material. MARSHFIELD, Ore., Dec. 17.—The Coos Bay Mill Company, which contracted for a log supply with a firm that is logging on Coos river, needed from 40,000 to 50,000 feet a day and the logging concern was unable to supply only half that quantity. To assure the mill a constant supply so there will be no shutdowns a logging camp of their own on Coos river during January. William Montgomery will be foreman of the camp and the company expects to furnish at least 30,000 feet of logs daily when the camp is in running order.

Austria Calls Boys Under 18.

BERNE, Dec. 17.—Austria is calling up on January 1, youths who will attain the age of 18 during 1916. Civil servants, merchants, manufacturers, teachers, professors and professional men generally under arms in Austria are now allowed to wear a yellow armband to distinguish them from soldiers of inferior social position. Those wearing the armbands are entitled to live outside the barracks and are exempted from mental tasks of the Cleveland club.
