Get Seventh Aviator.
BERLIN, Dec. 21.—Lieutenant Immanuel, over Valenciennes, shot down an English monoplane, his seventh British flyer, the war office said. In a French raid on Muelheim, one citizen was killed and another wounded while windows of the military hospital were broken.
Of the eastern front, the statement said, Field Marshal von Hindenburg's counter attacked the Russians and drove them from a German position near Riga.

NEWS OF PENDLETON

Christmas Rehearsal.
To rehearse for the Christmas exercises the choir of the Christian church will meet this evening.

Recovering from La Grippe.
Ed Hemmick is able to be on the street again after having been confined to his home for some time with a severe attack of la grippe.

More Evergreens Received.
A wagon load of evergreen trees was received this morning at the city hall and the firemen have been further decorating the building and grounds with these Christmas ornaments.

Returning for Holidays.
Nat Kimball, well known Pendleton boy who has been attending the Blair Business College in Spokane during the winter, is expected to arrive home for the holidays tomorrow evening.

Shortest Day of Year.
Today, the 21st of December, is the shortest day of the year, by a very few minutes. After today the length of time between sunrise and sunset will gradually lengthen until June 21 which is the longest day of the year.

Postal Business Increasing.
That the Christmas postal business of this year will greatly exceed that of last year is the belief of Assistant Postmaster Lester Cronin who is keeping check. To date the volume of business is considerably larger for the month, he states, and if it holds up will soon pass the 1914 mark.

Assistant Biologist Here.
S. E. Piper of Washington, D. C., assistant biologist who has been organizing the campaign for the extermination of predatory animals in the west, was here yesterday conferring with E. F. Averill, who has charge of the work in the northwest. Messrs Piper and Averill left last night for Plymouth, opposite Umatilla, to visit the camp of hunters which Mr. Averill has established there.

Intends Going to War.
Ernest Crockett, Pendleton boy who has been attending high school in Tillamook, where his brother is principal, spent yesterday in the city en route to Spokane to visit his mother and sister. He declares his intention of enlisting in the English army as soon as he can meet the requirements. His brother, Peter Crockett, handed in his resignation to the Tillamook school board with the avowed intention of enlisting, as stated, but was prevailed upon to remain at least for the semester.

Trains Back on Schedule.
Traffic on the O.-W. R. & N. is again normal today, following a tie-up of 24 hours yesterday due to the worst snow blockade of the past three years. A strong wind sucking through a gulch at Bacon, three miles east of Union Junction, piled up snow in great banks on the tracks and at one time five trains were stalled just west of that point. Rotary plows and shovel gangs were put to work and after 14 hours work, succeeded in clearing the tracks. Nos. 19, 2 and 17, all due during the morning yesterday, arrived at 3:10, 3:40 and 5:50 p. m. respectively. Today the trains are running nearly on time.

Funeral of Helix Pioneer.
The funeral of I. M. Davis, pioneer farmer of Helix, who died in Portland, was held this morning at 10 o'clock at Helix and several friends of the city went out to attend.

Gets Bad Check Man.
Sheriff Lee Barnes of Walla Walla passed through Pendleton yesterday from La Grande with R. C. Smith alias Hingham, wanted in Walla Walla and Dayton on a charge of passing bad checks.

Two Divorces Granted.
Divorces were granted yesterday by Judge Phelps in the cases of Velora Alda Nelson vs. Richard Nelson and of Sadie Beedo vs. George Beedo. In the latter case the plaintiff's maiden name, Collins, was restored to her.

Administrator Is Named.
Judge Stephen A. Lowell has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late John McAfee, the three daughters of the deceased waiving their rights. The estate is valued at $2500, and the administrator was placed under $5000 fees.

Forshaw Head of Masons.
At the annual election of the Pendleton Lodge, A. F. & A. M. last evening, Sam H. Forshaw was chosen worshipful master for the next year. George C. Baer was elected senior warden, J. C. Woodworth, junior warden and G. W. Miller, secretary. Will Moore was re-elected treasurer. The installation will take place on the evening of December 27.

Husband a Convict, Asks Divorce.
Alleging that her husband, W. C. Galloway, was convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses in Baker in April, 1914 and sentenced to the penitentiary for a period of one to five years, Edna Galloway today filed suit for a divorce. The couple were married in this city October 9, 1913. J. B. Perry is attorney for the plaintiff.

To Look for Community House.
At a joint meeting of representatives of the W. C. T. U., Associated Charities, Commercial association, various churches and lodges, last evening, J. V. Tallman and H. G. Byrdstone were named a committee to look for a suitable room for the community house or coffee club. They will report this evening at the meeting of the Associated Charities.

Taxi Hits Another Car.
Yesterday was a bad day for the taxis of the Parker Taxi Co. In the morning one driven by Mr. Parker struck the Hudson of E. E. Ehler of Helix and last evening another, driven by one of his chauffeurs, struck a Ford at the intersection of Main and Webb streets. Both cars were damaged slightly. The taxi was going south on Main and the Ford was traveling west on Webb. The owner of the Ford car is not known.

CHRISTMAS AT HOME FOR OFFICER AFTER PRISON

MRS. GUSSIE JINGS MARTIE
NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Edward Hugh Martie, ex-army officer, who has just been paroled from the Oregon state prison, where he served 10 years of a life term on a charge of murdering Nathan Wolff, a pawnbroker, will eat his Christmas dinner in New York with his wife, formerly "Gussie" McGee, at one time a keeper of poolrooms for women in this city.
Martie, who was a drug fiend when he entered the prison is now cured and he and his wife, who met him upon his release from the penal institution, declare that they will begin life anew.
Martie married his wife in 1901, but they soon separated, because of his drug habits, she said.
There was always a doubt that Martie killed Wolff. He has always
