SOCIAL and PERSONAL

The seventh annual Library Ball Saturday evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall proved an appropriate climax to the holiday festivities. It will be remembered as one of the prettiest and most enjoyable social events of the year and withal one so successful financially that the club ladies will have a tidy sum to turn over for the benefit of the library.

The hall was very prettily decorated in green and red. The music by the United Orchestra was excellent and the other essential elements for an evening of pleasure were present. In consequence there were few of the many guests who left before the "Home, Sweet Home" dance.

The guests began arriving shortly before 9 o'clock. In the receiving line were Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, and Mrs. John P. Robinson, members of the library board, Misses Nason, Criswell and Delano, librarians, Mrs. G. I. La Dow, president of the Thursday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. A. C. Hampton, president of the Current Literature Club. Later these ladies alternated in serving coffee and sandwiches in the balcony. Punch was served during the evening by the Misses Angela Bowler and Edith Richardson.

Misses Verne Parker and Lula Matlock left today for Portland to enter St. Helen's Hall. The former has been attending that school since fall but Miss Matlock spent the pre-holiday term at Brunot Hall in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sayres gave a delightful dinner party on New Year's eve at the Hotel Pendleton dining room. At the table besides them and their son, Stanley Sayres, were Mrs. Ellen Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bond and little daughter, Betty, Robert Bond of Yoakum and Mrs. Alice Hayes and Mrs. Lewis of Portland, mother and sister of Mrs. Willard Bond.

Mrs. Thomas Vaughan and baby daughter left on No. 17 today for Portland after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith.

Misses Rose and Myrtle Rose left today noon for Portland where they are attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thomson came up this morning from Echo and expect to make Pendleton their home in the near future.

Compromise Likely to be Reached in the Library Trouble

JUDGE MARSH AND COMMISSIONER COCKBURN WILL MEET TOMORROW.

Judge C. H. Marsh and County Commissioner H. M. Cockburn will meet in Pendleton tomorrow to reach some compromise in the library disagreement which has held up the tax levy and which has threatened to deprive the local library board of the $10,000 promised by the county court. Judge Marsh talked over the telephone with the commissioner this morning and the latter promised to come down from Milton in the morning. The judge feels that they will get together on some kind of an agreement so that the levy can be made.

The publication of the story of the deadlock Saturday resulted in many taxpayers "sitting up and taking notice," so serious did many local people think the situation that President Tillman of the Commercial Association has been asked to call a meeting. However, Judge Marsh feels that such a meeting will be unnecessary.

WHAT THE PENDLETON PICTURE THEATRES HAVE TO TELL YOU ABOUT PRESENT AND COMING PHOTO PLAYS

"THE NATION'S PERIL. TIMELY SUBJECT."

Taking for their theme a delicate subject, the topic of the present day, and deftly moulding that subject so that no man may feel offense in the teaching, the Lubin Company have produced a five-reel picture dealing with the question of the hypenated American and unpreparedness, which will be shown at the Pastime for the last time today.

The picture records vivid and thrilling scenes of a ship being sunk by actual shell fire of the United States Atlantic fleet; mine explosions; artillery engagements; thousands of sailors, soldiers and marines, a head on train collision; the burning of an entire town and in addition the personalities of Secretary Daniels, Admiral Winslow and Fletcher and all the officers of the Atlantic fleet, the naval war college at Newport, Rhode Island, and of the naval training station.

Carmen, Wonderful Picture.
Geraldine Farrar, the world famous prima donna, scored a big hit to a large audience at the Alta theater last night in "Carmen."

Recognized as one of the great actresses of her generation Miss Farrar "Carmen" as revealed last winter in sonnettes of Secretary Daniels. Ad-York, established the prima donna still higher in the esteem of opera lovers. Her characterization has an absolute revelation of power, skill and subtle delineation.

Thrilling action, magnificent landscapes, beautiful portraits, well constructed drama, mark the extraordinary production. The bill fight is probably the greatest ever filmed. The picture will be shown for the last time today.

In addition, two big vaudeville acts are offered. Wilson & Snyder, comedy acrobats, performing remarkable and unusual acts and the Lloyd sisters in their clever musical act.

FORD, HOME, THINKS PEOPLE ARE FULLY TO BLAME FOR WAR

CHANGES HIS ATTITUDE AFTER HAVING BEEN IN BATTLE. TOURS EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Henry Ford, who led the peace expedition which left here December 4 on the steamship Oscar II for Copenhagen, in the hope of bringing about a conference of neutral nations that would end the war, arrived on the steamer Georgian Ford. He confirmed cable reports that his return had been hastened by illness, but said it made a difference of only a few days, as he intended when he left to come back this month.

Mr. Ford declared that his views regarding the cause of the war had undergone a marked change. When he left, he said, he was of the opinion that bankers and manufacturers of munitions and armament were responsible, but he returns with the belief that it is the people themselves, those now being slaughtered, who are responsible.

"The men doing the fighting have been too content to let those who rule them do their thinking and they have not taken advantage of their divine right to say for themselves what they shall do and think, the pacifist asserted.

"Republicans are no better than monarchs in this respect," he said. "Even in the United States we let those whom we have elected be served from their duty. We don't assert ourselves. Personally I have been a voter 21 years and in all that time I have voted only six times and then because my wife made me."

Eventual Success Assured.
Of the eventual success of the peace mission, Mr. Ford declared he had no doubt.

Dr. J. D. Plamondon of Athena is a Pendleton visitor this afternoon. Chris Nelson, who lives near Walla Walla, is here today to pay taxes.

Cutter is Ashore.
SEATTLE, Jan. 3.—The lifesaving cutter Snohomish sent a wireless she was ashore in a blinding snowstorm ten miles from Seattle. Later efforts to reach here were unavailing.

Russians Take Heights.
PETROGRAD, Jan. 3.—The heights around Chernowitz and Bukovnik have fallen into Russian hands, 500 me. 15 officers and some armament being captured. It was officially claimed. The engagement was reported particularly fierce. Enemy attacks were repulsed with serious losses in the Chernovsk region.
