

Pastime

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Nelson, the hostesses being Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. Elvin Craig. During the afternoon a talk was given by Mrs. Dr. Ross on the subject of the Eleanor club of Chicago. Mrs. Walter Rose gave two readings, "The Legend of the organ builder" and "Oh for Tat." Mrs. Dewitt sang two selections, "My Little Grey Home in the West" and "Mighty Lak a Rose." An instrumental selection was rendered by Miss Herboth and Miss Snyder sang "Mother Machree" and "A Parted Day." Forty ladies were present for the program and refreshments were served.

The third number of the local lyceum course will be on Saturday night of this week, Jan. 15. Bishop Hughes of the Methodist church will be the speaker. This man is considered one of the best of the lyceum course of today. He will deliver his usual lecture, "The Biography of a Boy."

WHAT THE PENDLETON PICTURE THEATRES HAVE TO TELL YOU ABOUT PRESENT AND COMING PHOTO PLAYS

WILLIAM FOX SPENDS MILLIONS ON HIS HOBBY

It is a common saying among film men that William Fox spends millions while others only spend thousands in photoplay making. The proof of this is shown in the lavish stage settings and costly costumes which is characteristic of all his plays. No expense has been spared to make "The Unfaithful Wife" an adaptation of the famous play "The Vendetta," and featuring Robert Mantell, and Genevieve Hamper, said to possess the most beautiful face in the world, Stuart Holmes, the most villainous of villains, and a host of other well known actors, an equal if not superior to other Fox Masterpieces.

Shadow Lawn, President Wilson's summer home, is used in many of the scenes of this production. Special permit was given Mr. Fox to use these costly grounds. The Pastime management is to be congratulated in obtaining a feature of the magnitude of "The Unfaithful Wife." This picture will be shown today and tomorrow.

MABEL NORMAND'S NEW ROLE

Appears in "Stolen Magic" as Hostess of a Traveler From India. Miss Mabel Normand, the clever, pliant comedienne of the Triangle-Keystone forces, appears in a new Triangle comedy, "Stolen Magic," as the lady of the house where Raymond Hitchcock, a visitor from India, is entertained. She rapidly becomes involved in the whirlwind action till a Hindu who has been pursuing Hitchcock throws a sleeping powder in front of her. She collapses stupefied into Hitchcock's arms. Then Mack Sennett, who plays the husband, comes on the scene. He thinks Hitchcock is trying to break up his home. One of the last scenes shows Miss Normand clinging frantically to a chandelier of her bedroom while Sennett again finds Hitchcock an intruder near by. In the end all is explained. The wrecked magic scroll has done the mischief, and on its return to the Hindu peace again reigns in the upset household.

MEMBERS OF STATE BOARD WILL PASS ON HOSPITAL

ARCHITECT KNIGHTON AND OTHERS WILL ARRIVE IN CITY TOMORROW.

Coming for the purpose of passing on the work on the new state hospital wing members of the state board and Architect Knighton will arrive tomorrow, it is believed. Just what members of the board will come is not known but the presumption is that at least two of the officials, besides the architect, will make the trip.

The new wing is practically completed, says Superintendent McNary, and some little finishing work is all that remains. The work will be accepted and the final work insured by the retention of a small sum.

While the new wing is completed it will not be placed in use for 45 days or longer. This because it would be unwise to use the building while so new. The wing has been heated for several weeks past and heat will be kept up so as to dry out the building as thoroughly as possible. About March 1 the new wing will be occupied.

What the Critics Say:
"The Play will sell the Book and vice versa."—Chicago Journal.

"The production is acted, staged and mounted fittingly and the atmosphere of the story is well preserved."—Indianapolis News.

"From the rise of the curtain to its fall the piece was given the closest attention. This regard arose not only from the artistic developments of events, but also from the earnestness of the actors, all of whom were excellently fitted for their respective parts."—Philadelphia North American.

"The play should attract large and appreciative audiences for it is one of exceptional charm and appeal."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"A simple pastoral of the Ozarks, really genuine sentiment."—Columbus, O., Dispatch.
