WHAT THE PENDLETON PICTURE THEATRES HAVE TO TELL YOU ABOUT PRESENT AND COMING PHOTO PLAYS

SPLENDID ACTOR AT HIS BEST

"One Million Dollars" is a Great Production.

William Faversham, the famous stage star, who is now touring the country in "The Hawk," a play that ran all last season on Broadway, will be seen on the screen here in "One Million Dollars," a five-part feature picture produced by Rolfe Photo Plays Inc. for release on the Metro program. It will be shown here at the Alta theater for the last time today.

Mr. Faversham is supported by a cast of exceptional merit in this production, including Henry Bergman, George Le Guere, Carlotta De Felice, Mayme Kelso, Arthur Morrison and others. In "One Million Dollars" he has a role admirably suited to his talents, that of an expert criminologist who unravels a perplexing mystery through the agency of a mystical crystal globe, which gives him occult powers.

This will be offered for the last time today.

WHITTIER'S "BASEFOOT BOY" PARADOX TO HER

Dorothy Green Thinks Celebrated Poet Drew Literature's Moss Pathetic Character.

John Greenleaf Whittier's "basefoot boy with rhinos of tan" is the most pathetic figure in all literature, in the opinion of Miss Dorothy Green who is supporting Ralph Kellard in the William Fox production, "Her Mothers Secret." Miss Green is also of the belief that Mr. Whittier's feet must have been encased in nice downy slippers when he penned the poem in which, if you recall, "the basefoot boy," exhilarated by life in the open, is an effervescent, joyous, happy, care-free creature. But any human being with barefoot or slippers is what comforts Miss Green, who, minus shoes and stockings, was called upon to climb over rock after rock when her "Mother's Secret" was being made on the Maine coast.

"It was terrible," complained Miss Green with a shudder "if my life depended on it, I couldn't repeat the scene. Why the rocks were slippery in some places and then in others there were little jagged slivers that worked themselves into my poor feet. But worst of all were the horrid slimy snails. I stepped on two 'em!"

MISS BARRISCALE IN "THE GOLDEN CLAW"

Plays a Young Girl Who Marries for Money—Absorbing Story of New Triangle Feature.

Bessie Barriscale plays the part of a girl who marries for money in the Triangle play, "The Golden Claw," which is to come to the Temple theater Thursday. Miss Barriscale is shown as living with her mother (Trudy Shattuck). They are in straitened circumstances, though living in an extravagant way. As a result, the girl makes up her mind to marry a man of wealth. Her choice falls upon a rich youth, who is represented by Frank Mills. She frankly tells him that she is marrying him for money alone, but he does not believe it.

Mills loses his wealth through the bursting out of the vein in the silver mine in which he is interested. His wife reproaches him for the loss of his wealth, and he is goaded to do his utmost to recoup his fortune by his lucky deal on change he restores himself to his former position as a man of means, but the strain of constant effort and concentration in money making make him into a sort of machine.

Then Miss Barriscale, as the heroine, begins to notice that she has lost the love that so ardently wooed her, and she realizes the hollowness of luxury and wealth without affection. On the anniversary of her marriage she goes to see her husband in his office and when she reminds him of what the day means, thinking he would give her some flowers or other token of his love, she is bitterly disappointed by his coldly handing her a check for $50,000.

Wedding Blues Soared.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—The Daily Mail says there is a wedding ring "famine" in Great Britain, although gold is abundant. The paper gives three main causes for this shortage in wedding times: The great number of war weddings unprecedented investment in war rings by workers since the rise in wages, and the absorption of the jeweler's workmen by aircraft and munitions factories.

The manager of a leading wholesale firm in London is quoted by the Daily Mail as saying his concern has orders in the value of 20,000 pounds ($125,000) which cannot be filled for the reasons mentioned. These orders have been accumulating since last May.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The meeting of the Girls' Forum held last night in the dining parlors of the high school was the best since the organization of the club. About ninety-five girls of the high school were present. A large dinner was prepared and served by several of the mothers of the girls. The speakers of the evening were Dr. McNary of the State Hospital and Rev. Snyder of the Presbyterian church. Their topic for the evening was "Social Hygiene." The next meeting of the Forum will be held one month from last Thursday evening. They adjourned with nine rans for the speakers of the evening.

OFFICIALS IN RAIDS SEIZE LARGE SUPPLIES OF LIQUOR

HOTEL IN TACOMA AND HOME AT SEATTLE YIELD UP MUCH BOOZE

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 19.—Raiding the Hotel Oldtown, detectives confiscated five cases of beer, 25 gallons of wine and three gallons of whiskey. A woman leaped from a window, her arms filled with bottles of liquor. She buried two bottles at the officers before submitting to arrest.

SEATTLE, Jan. 19.—Five deputy sheriffs raided the palatial home of W. E. Boeing, a millionaire lumberman, to search for a huge stock of liquor reported secreted there. A quantity of liquor was found, including much champagne. This was seized and the search continued. Boeing is the president of the Greenwood Timber company.

MRS. PANKHURST IS ORDERED ADMITTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Upon the recommendation of Immigration Commissioner Cammagnet, Secretary of Labor Wilson, ordered New York immigration authorities to admit Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, English militant suffragette. She had been temporarily detained as an "undesirable alien," and then released from custody on Ellis Island upon a temporary order.

Rabbits Scorn Poison

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 19.—That Baker County rabbits are averse to partaking of arsenic-flavored grain was demonstrated when Walter E. Moscham and Dr. F. T. Notz went over the country northwest of Baker, where poison was scattered in the cooperative fight against the pest. The arsenic was used as a substitute for the higher priced strychnine, but no dead rabbits were found. Mr. Moscham is contemplating an experimental use of cyanide of potassium in the government formula.

EXPECTS CANAL TO BE OPENED IN FEBRUARY

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Government officials at Panama are confident all descriptions by the middle of next month is a story just received. Colonel E. F. Dean, returning from a six week's visit to the canal zone brought this report, adding that a channel 26 feet deep has been restored at all points.

OBJECTIONS MADE TO CLAIM AGAINST THE BELL ESTATE

MAUD M. HOWE SAYS PROPERTY NOT SUFFICIENT TO MEET $10,000 FUND.

Contesting the claims on the estate of the late Charlotte Bell put in by her daughter, Edith May Ward who was appointed administratrix in this county, Maud M. Howe, who was named executrix and trustee by the last will, has filed with the county court objections and exceptions, charging that the claim of Mrs. Ward is fictitious and fraudulent.

By the terms of the will, it is alleged, the deceased left $10,000 in a trust fund for certain heirs and named Maud M. Howe as trustee of this fund. The major part of the estate was in North Dakota, but property said to be valued at $5000 was in this county and Mrs. Ward was appointed to administer it. Claim is made by Mrs. Howe that the property in North Dakota is not sufficient to fill this $10,000 fund. Mrs. Ward has filed a claim of $23,384.11 against the estate here as her part of the residue. The contestant of this claim is represented by Fee and Poe and asks that a hearing be had on February 23.

ANOTHER BANDIT OF VILLA BAND NEXT TO BE EXECUTED

EL PASO, Jan. 19.—Enrique Torres, captured with values, is slated as the next victim of the Carranzista executioners. He will probably be executed today. A great hunt is proceeding in the mountains of Chihuahua and Durango with the object of capturing Villa himself. With Villa eliminated the Carranzistas believe the last vestige of outlaws will crumble immediately. They say they will not cease pursuit until Villa's body is displayed beside those of his officers.

WOMEN CAN PROPOSE SWEETLY—AND OUGHT TO

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19.—A 1916 Leap Year Club has been formed by eight pretty girls here, headed by Miss Blanche Taylor of Lakewood, a fashionable suburb. The avowed purpose of the club is for each member to propose to the man of her choice during the year, and not to accept any similar proposal when offered by a suitor. "I do not see anything unusual about a girl choosing her husband," Miss Taylor said. Miss Helen Mally, another member, said "A woman could propose just as gracefully and sweetly as she could accept. I think she ought to if she really loves a man."
