Thomson On Committee.

Aaa R. Thomson of this county, former president of the Oregon Irrigation Congress, has been named as one of the committee of four from the association to call a state irrigation, drainage and rural credits conference which will draft legislation to place this state back of reclamation and rural credits. J. W. Brewer of Portland and Fred N. Wallace, president and secretary of the congress and H. G. Callvert of Portland are the other members of the committee.

Local Teams Defeated.

The Walsburg High school basketball team which met defeat on the local floor last week at the hands of the Pendleton High school team, last evening defeated the quintet from here in a fast and exciting game on their own floor. The score at the end of the game, 34 to 18 in favor of Walsburg, according to a message received here. The girls' team which also made the trip from here to play the Walsburg lasses were defeated 26 to 9. This was the first game for the local girls away from home this season but they expected to win because of the great improvement they have made in the last two weeks, and the showing made against the Weston High school team at the first of the season. Tonight the girls on their return trip will play Weston on their own floor returning home Sunday.

an hour locating the smoking car, buried at the bottom of a gulch. It was known to have contained 11 persons. The dining car also was buried over the embankment. A sleeping car was blown off the tracks but did not tumble into the gulch. The train was standing still when the avalanche struck.

A rescue train left Leavenworth at noon, carrying 100 workmen to help rescue those buried in the two cars. Further slides are feared.

Telegraph connection was severed shortly after the first details of the accident reached here. The operator at Aloine declared a second slide was starting. Cashmere reported three were removed from the wreck alive this afternoon.

CASHMERE, Jan. 22.—A report said a small boy was removed from the wreck, not yet dead. Two others also were rescued it was stated. Four Cashmere people were aboard the wrecked train. Fern Murdoch, 19; O. A. Miller, a contractor; Matt Luken, a merchant, and George Brandenburg, a carpenter. The train was known as the Spokane owl and left Spokane at 8:15 last night and was due at Seattle at 8:15 this morning. The avalanche struck at 6:45 this morning.

100,000 BUSHELS SOLD.

Mr. Rinehart refrains from disclosing the amount purchased.

According to the Walla Walla Union this morning 250,000 bushels sold in that place yesterday at $1 per bushel.

There is still much wheat in the hands of the growers here though the $1 price will materially lower the supply if the price holds.

Among the heavy holders here is E. L. Smith who has 80,000 bushels. Of this amount he purchased 65,000 at $1 per bushel a year ago. While the

JAMES STURGIS AND MISS CEGIL BOYD ARE MARRIED

WEDDING IN PORTLAND COMES AS SURPRISE TO FRIENDS IN THIS CITY.

Coming as a surprise to their many friends here is the announcement of the marriage of James H. Sturgis and Miss Cecil Anne Boyd in Portland today. The announcement came through a message received from the bridegroom by his cousin, Judge C. H. Marsh. The wedding was held at the Benson hotel and was a quiet affair.

The bridegroom is the elder son of Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis of this city and has lived here most of his life. After finishing his studies at the University of Washington, he embarked in the combined harvester business with E. L. Smith and for the past few years has been managing the Walla Walla branch of that business.

His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyd of Athena and for the past year and a half has been director of girls' athletics in the Pendleton schools. As a playground director and instructor in folk dancing she has won a wide reputation for herself and when she resigned from her position here recently, she announced her intention of entering Columbia university, New York, to take advanced work.

WHY BUICK

DOMINATES THE MEDIUM PRICE CAR FIELD

1916 Buick has about it an air of refinement possessed by no other car at its price.

Its appearance is one of style and beauty such as is generally had only in high priced cars, while Buick power, due to valve-in-head motor, and light weight has been proven too often to allow of any doubts.

Its great mileage per gallon of gasoline means economy, and 1916 Buick Sixes range in price from $1150 for the Light Six to $1650 for the big, luxurious, easy riding Big Six.
