SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A very enjoyable dancing party was given last evening by Pendleton council, Knights of Columbus in the Eagle-Woodman hall, which had been decorated in flags and bunting for the occasion. A large attendance marked the party, a number of people coming in from out of town. Music was furnished by a six piece orchestra and the dancing was continued until midnight.

The girls of the Walla Walla high basketball team will be the honor guests at an informal dancing party this evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall to be given by the high school students.

An illustrated lecture on "Immigration" by Mrs. Jessie Honeyman of Portland, will be given at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening and all are invited to attend. Mrs. Honeyman, who is a very interesting speaker, has about sixty slides illustrating this subject.

Mrs. Thomas Thompson left last evening for Seattle to visit her daughter, Miss Zella Thompson, who is a student at the University of Washington.

Miss Genevieve Phelps, daughter of Judge and Mrs. G. W. Phelps, is confined to her home with illness. It was feared for a time that she would have pneumonia, but she is improving now.

Mrs. Ben Marlin of Meacham was visiting in Pendleton yesterday.

Library News

Miss Lois Criswell, assistant librarian, who went home last week on account of illness, is reported slightly improved. The very great increase in the work of the county library this year with but the same number on the library staff, has resulted in overwork for each one. Miss Criswell's enforced rest of two weeks is very much regretted by her many friends.

The librarian's report for December shows that 5008 books were borrowed for home reading, this being a gain in book circulation of 64 per cent over December of last year. This is the second month in the history of the library to pass the 5000 mark. November being the first.

Following is the librarian's statistical report for December as presented to the library board.
