Took First Train Out.
J. W. Shafer and family of Fulton arrived home Friday from a winter stay in California. They took the first train out of San Diego which was cut off from the outside world for thirty-one days by the floods.

Will Carry no More Passengers.
Agent T. F. O'Brien of the O.-W. R. & N. was this morning notified by Supt. A. G. Kamm that hereafter trains No. 51 and 52, being the mixed trains between Pendleton and Walla Walla, will not handle passengers.

Married Happiness Short.
Married on August 7, 1915, Stanley Neeland today brought suit against his wife, Ivy, for a divorce, alleging that since the first of December she has made life miserable for him. He alleges she mistreated a child of his by a former marriage, even after he had found the child another home. Raley & Raley are plaintiffs' attorneys.

Astoria Boat Line.
That Astoria will proceed with the proposition of establishing a boat line on the Columbia is the belief of Edgar W. Smith who is here today. Astoria's need of a boat line has been lessened by the common point rate decision, yet there is still sentiment for establishing the line, says Smith. The type of boat proposed is one fit for deep water as well as for use on the river.

Funeral of G. M. McGee.
G. A. Kreaker of Spokane, son-in-law of G. M. McGee who was found dead in bed yesterday morning, arrived this morning and took charge of the body. The funeral will be held this afternoon and interment will be made in the local cemetery. Deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Kresger, and Mrs. Rea of Kansas City and two sisters. He had been in Pendleton about two years and formerly lived in McMinnville.

Indian Women Plead Guilty.
Irene Bushman and Ida Snyder, mixed blood Indian women arrested Tuesday night in a lodging house with J. A. Dupuy, a white man, were yesterday afternoon taken into police court. The former pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or go to jail for 30 days. The Snyder woman pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and her sentence was $20 or 15 days. Neither have yet paid their fine. Dupuy forfeited bail of $25 by non-appearance. The Bushman woman was recently held to the grand jury on a seduction charge.

Wife Unfaithful; Asks Divorce.
Alleging that his wife, Grace Berry Nell, has been unfaithful, Samuel L. Nell today filed suit for divorce through his attorney, W. M. Peterson. The couple were married in Walla Walla in 1907 and have two children, a girl 8 and a boy 3 1/2. The wife is a railroad man and frequently absent from home. While living in Nyssa five years ago, he alleged his wife entertained other men at their home during his absence and in other ways humiliated him. He asks for the custody of the children, stating that he has made arrangements for their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Perry of Milton, to keep them.

Protests Against Roller Skates.
War on the children who play on the paved sidewalks with roller skates was declared in council last evening by Councilman H. J. Taylor and the children found a defender in Councilman E. J. Murphy. Councilman Taylor declared the children are in the habit of skating every evening on the walks on Jackson street and in other parts of the city, and stated that to check themselves suddenly, they run into the parkings. His own parking has been damaged by this practice, he stated. He asked for the enforcement of the ordinance governing roller skating. If there is one, and for the passage of one if not, Councilman Murphy declared himself a friend of the children and would not be for depriving them of innocent pleasures, even if a few parkings were damaged. No action was taken last evening.

Winners in Piano Contest.
Mrs. I. Doherty of Walla Walla was this morning declared by the judges the winner in the "15" guessing contest put on recently by the Warren Music House of this city and a music house of Walla Walla, and she was awarded the piano put up as first prize. Mrs. E. Urquhart of Athena was adjudged second prize winner and secured the 100 phonograph. F. J. Mc-

Sustains Broken Arm.
Word has been received by friends in the city that Mrs. James Cooper, formerly of this city, sustained a broken forearm several days ago in alighting from a train at The Dalles, her home. She had gone aboard the train while it stopped to see Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner of this city, who were aboard, and the train started before she could get off. The train was stopped but in descending hurriedly she slipped and fell.

Boundary Dispute Up.
The county boundary board is today considering two petitions for the creation of new school districts both of which are being contested. One petition asks for a new district southeast of Pilot Rock, taking parts of 1, 27, 77 and 87. Porter Royce and W. W. Wegner are appearing for the petitioners while Fred Watt and C. G. Horn are representing the reorganizers. The other petition asks for a new district about 15 miles southwest of Pendleton to be created out of parts of 12, 48, 81, 116 and 119.

Osmer E. Smith is Out For District Attorney

Osmer E. Smith, well known young attorney of this city, is the first to declare himself an active candidate for the office of district attorney. Frederick Stelwer, the present incumbent, having announced that he will not seek re-election, Mr. Smith this morning decided to enter the primary campaign for the republican nomination. Mr. Smith has been a resident of Pendleton for the past two and a half years, he and his wife having come here from Colorado. He was graduated from the University of Colorado where he took his first training in law and, after coming to Pendleton, was in the offices of Raley & Raley for a year and a half. During the past year he has been practicing by himself. Mr. Smith announces that he will make an active campaign upon a platform of strict law enforcement.
