J. N. Scott, prominent young Athena farmer, is in the city today. He just recently disposed of his mules and purchased a 75 horsepower Holt Caterpillar engine which he will use on his farm.

No Soring About This.
Following a violent wind storm during the night a sleet began falling over the county this morning and has continued intermittently all day. In the foothills snow is reported to be falling.

Sloan Estate Appraised.
W. L. Thompson, F. E. Judd and J. B. McCook, appraisers of the estate of the late Adin D. Sloan, have filed their report fixing the value of the estate at $19,724.99. All of the property is personal, the largest item being sixty shares of stock in the American National Bank.

Alleged burglars Get Hearing.
James Frank Clark, Harry Ford and William Murphy, arrested here recently by Sheriff Taylor upon suspicion that they were connected with the burglary of the Cove postoffice are being given a hearing this afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Newberry. Deputy U. S. Marshal Swanson has them in charge.

Urges County League.
C. J. Miller, secretary of the Pilot Rock Commercial Club, writes to the Pendleton Commercial association urging the formation of a county baseball league with clubs in Pendleton, Pilot Rock, Athena and Weston, and asks that Pendleton take the matter up with Athena and Weston. The matter will be submitted to the association at the regular meeting next week.

Elks Elect Officers.
John Mumm, well known young farmer, was last night elected exalted ruler of Pendleton lodge No. 253, B. P. O. E., at the annual election. C. C. Vinler was elected esteemed leading knight, Volney B. Rybes, esteemed local knight and James R. Bowler, esteemed touring knight. Thomas Fitz Gerald and R. M. Mayberry were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively. J. V. Tallman was chosen trustee. Jack A. Gibson was selected as representative at the grand lodge and D. B. Bailey as alternate.

Republicans Meet Tonight.
The final preliminary meeting of the young republicans preparatory to the permanent organization of the local club will be held this evening in the office of W. C. E. Pruitt. The nominating committee will report the officers proposed for election at the meeting next week and the committee on constitution and by-laws will have those instruments drafted and ready for consideration. Also preparations will be completed for the big meeting at which Hon. John McCourt, president of the Oregon Republican Club, will be the principal speaker. All republicans are urged to be present at this meeting.

Forest Supervisor Back.
W. W. Cryder, supervisor of the Cascade national forest, arrived home last evening from Portland where for the past three weeks he had charge of the office of Assistant Forester McKenzie who was called to Washington. He will return to Portland in about ten days as Mr. McKenzie is still absent. At the present time the local office is busy receiving proofs of applications for grazing permits. Supervisor Cryder anticipates that the weather forecasts being sent out by the weather bureau in Portland to the different forestry offices, as warnings to the stockmen, will prove of big value to the stockmen and his office will cooperate in every way possible.

T. P. W. Buyer Back.
Charles Blomberg, head of the la-folds department of the Peoples Warehouse, has returned from a trip to New York and other eastern cities where he made purchases for the spring trade.

HOMER I. WATTS OF ATHENA ENTERS RACE FOR OFFICE

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE WILL SEEK NOMINATION FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Homer I. Watts, well known Athena attorney and mayor of that town, yesterday afternoon announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for district attorney. He expects to file his formal declaration next week. Mr. Watts is a native son of Umatilla county and has spent most of his life about Athena. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and later of the Harvard law school. Admitted to the Oregon bar in 1907, he has since been practicing at Athena. With the announcement of Mr. Watts, there are now two avowed candidates for the republican nomination for this office, Osmer E. Smith of Pendleton having cast his hat into the ring yesterday. Deputy District Attorney R. I. Keator has not yet announced himself but stated this morning that he was strongly considering making the race and would come to a decision next week.

Alligators Rout Women.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 2.—Women attending the state Daughters of the American Revolution convention in a local hotel here were given a fright when a number of alligators which had been placed in one of the goldfish ponds in the convention hall brazenly poked their noses over the edge and started to crawl out on the floor. One of the speakers saw the reptiles and she almost fell in a swoon into a chair on the platform. The incident came near breaking up the meeting. Only the quick arrival of men to handle the alligators prevented further trouble. The reptiles had already eaten up all the goldfish in the pond.

Coos Bay Seeks Militia.
MARSHFIELD, Ore., March 2.—There is a movement on here to reorganize the naval militia, of which Coos Bay at one time had two companies. Bandon also had a company, and if the reorganization is successful the city by the sea will doubtless maintain a company. Port Orford and vicinity would furnish another company, making from four to six units in this district. When the militia flourished here several years ago there was much enthusiasm, and the members were faithful in their drilling work and other duties.

Fruitgrowers Get $5000.
HOOD RIVER, Ore., March 2.—The Fruitgrowers' Exchange made a distribution of 25 cents a box, aggregating approximately $5000, on Newton apples. Formerly a 15-cent distribution was made. Manager Kenneth McKay said that with the exception of a few boxes of Newtons, the Exchange's stock for the season is closed out. "We hope to be able to make final returns on everything but Newtons before our annual meeting, which will be held on March 27," he said.

For America First.
WASHINGTON, March 2.—Assurance that German-Americans are for America first was given President Wilson here by Paul F. Muller, editor of the Chicago Abendpost and head of an organization of 400 German-American publishers.

Loose Negro Hobb Bank.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 2.—A negro entered the Mechanics State Bank here and after forcing the cashier and two clerks into the vault obtained $1600 and escaped. A sheriff's posse in motor cars started in pursuit.

British Steamer is Sunk.
LONDON, March 2.—According to Lloyd's, the British steamer Southford, formerly the Hindoo, has been sunk. Eleven of the vessel's crew were saved. Two were killed. The Southford was a vessel of 87 tons.

Suicide Plan Too Cheap.
CHICAGO, March 2.—Morris Ginsberg, held at a local police station on a charge of attempting to kill his wife with an axe, attempted to take his own life, swallowing 35 cents in change. Ginsberg has recovered both his money and his health.

Ship Dashed to Pieces.
LEWIS, Del., March 2.—The British steamer Treacrell, bound for Philadelphia with a cargo of ore, which went aground on Blackfish Shoal, 80 miles south of the Delaware Capes, in a gale was dashed to pieces by the rough seas. The crew of 25 was taken off by a tug and transferred to a coast guard power boat, which later landed them at Ashbatague, Va.

JERRY TRAVERS WONT DEFEND OPEN GOLF TITLE

JERRY TRAVERS

NEW YORK, March 2.—Jerry Travers announces that he will not go to Minneapolis in June and defend the open golf title he won last year at Baltimore. The four times former amateur title holder says he is not retiring from all competitions, but that his cotton exchange business will prevent him this summer from taking long trips. Travers and Francis Oulmont, who defeated Vardon and Hay, the English champions, in the memorable play-off at Brookline in 1913, are the only amateurs who ever won the open championship in this country. Travers, after playing magnificent golf at Baltimore, finished with a total of 296, one stroke better than Tommy McNamara.
