SOCIAL PERSONAL

Wednesday of this week is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season of which Easter is the close. Lent in Pendleton is always marked by a check in the social activity though by no means does it bring a complete suspension of festivities. During this period of denial a number of dancing and card clubs will remain inactive and there will be but few formal affairs.

The annual business meeting of the Current Literature Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. A. C. Hampton, on High street. Officers for the next year will be chosen and the work for the next season discussed.

Complimenting Mrs. Frank Fairbanks, who is soon to leave for Ithaca, New York, to join her husband, who has been there for several weeks, Mrs. Charles E. Heard entertained a few friends Saturday afternoon at her home. The affair was in the nature of a traveling shower for the honor guest. Decorations and appointments were suggestive of St. Patrick's Day. The Fairbanks are to make their future home in Ithaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Manning are receiving congratulations upon the birth of an eight and three quarters pound baby girl last Friday evening at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mrs. James A. Fee is entertaining the South Hill Bridge Club this afternoon at her home on Post street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph Deebach charmingly entertained the neighborhood club, "our crowd," at their home Saturday evening. Five hundred was the principal diversion. Dainty refreshments were served the guests.

"A host of golden daffodils" played a part in the appointments of the dainty bridge luncheon presided over Saturday afternoon at one-thirty by Mrs. NeSmith Ankeny at her home on North Main street. Covers were laid for fourteen. Following the luncheon bridge was played, honors being won by Mrs. Frank E. Hayden. The guests included Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. John Vert, Mrs. Frank Frazier, Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. Rena Adams, Mrs. Wilson D. McNary, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. G. M. Rice, Mrs. J. E. Mullinix, Mrs. Willard Bond, Mrs. Frederick E. Judd, Mrs. William E. Lowell and Mrs. Hayden. This was the first of a series of such luncheons to be given by Mrs. Ankeny.

Mrs. Lyman G. Utter left last week for Hood River to visit her parents.

Abundant health is assured when there is good blood in the veins. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine to make good blood. Begin taking it now. It is just what the system needs at this time and will do you great good. Sharpens the appetite, steadies the nerves.—Adv.

The directors of hygiene of New York's child board of health has declared that since the organization began work eight years ago the death rate among babies has been reduced to 95 in 1000 in New York, while 29,000 infants have been saved from the grave.

Bangkok, Siam, is a pioneer in the Orient in electrical progress, having now two large light and power plants.

EVERY THREE MINUTES ONE DIES IN THE U. S.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Society illustrates the frightful toll of consumption by extinguishing a light every three minutes, and shows that it is the man or woman, girl or boy, who neglects colds, whose blood is impure, who feels weak and languid, who is the very one to contract tuberculosis—and none are immune.

During changing seasons, or after sickness, blood-quality is most important, and if you and your family will take Scott's Emulsion after meals it will charge your blood with health-sustaining richness, quicken circulation, and strengthen both lungs and throat. Scott's is free from alcohol—easy to take—it cannot harm. Get a bottle to-day. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-23

FIRE IN MARSHFIELD PLANT DOES DAMAGE

MARSHFIELD, Ore., March 6.—Fire in the electric plant of the Oregon Power company in North Bend did considerable damage, the extent of which cannot yet be ascertained. The cause of the fire is not known. For an hour the Coos Bay cities were without lights.

Armor-Plate Arrogance

There was no reason to anticipate quiet acquiescence in the proposition to establish a government armor-plate plant in the minds of the great manufacturers such a suggestion was nothing less than revolutionary. Private interests had always had the government by the throat; had always charged the United States close to twice as much as they were willing to accept from foreign purchasers of their product; had always had full control at Washington, and they could not understand why they should be expected to let go their stranglehold. But the boldness of their threat to raise the price $200 a ton if the government attempted to build a plant of its own was an eye-opener to those who had paid no attention to the development of the enormous combinations in this and kindred lines, and who have treated all exposures of their methods as merely sensational "muckraking." The present attempt to keep Brandeis off the supreme bench is in large measure due to the publication of his enlightening book on "Other People's Money," which details the operations and system of the money trust.

The prompt acceptance of the challenge of the armor plate trust by Senator Tillman, chairman of the naval affairs committee, and his introduction of a bill for the government purchase and operation of the private armor plate establishments until the government plant is built, was a vigorous and proper method of dealing with the situation.

Senator Tillman does not agree with the reported statement of the president that we should have the "greatest navy in the world," but he believes we should have the second greatest in point of efficiency—he admits that it would be futile to attempt to rival England in naval development, because her very existence depends upon her control of the seas.

Referring to the armor-plate's defiance, The New York Times makes these incisive comments: "Monopolistic arrogance has never gone further than in this instance. Our armor-plate makers are the chief beneficiaries of the traffic in munitions of war. At the expense of many friendships the government has supported them in their legal rights.

Keep Your Bowels Regular. As everyone knows, the bowels are the sewerage system of the body and it is of the greatest importance that they move once each day. If your bowels become constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets just after supper and they will correct the disorder. Obtainable everywhere—Adv.

CATTLE ON WAY TO RANGE TURNED BACK BECAUSE OF STORM

ED WELCH OF MEACHAM LOSES NO TIME IN CHANGING HIS PLANS.

Six Inches of Snow covers Grazing Lands in Meacham District; Indications Are for More Snow; Meacham Man Exchanges California Property for Oregon Land.

(East Oregonian Special.) MEACHAM, Ore., March 6.—Ed Welch had his cattle started from Nolin to this place to turn on the range. But, to his surprise, he awoke on Tuesday morning to see his ranges covered with six inches of snow and still snowing. He was alarmed as to what to do, then made a trail as fast as he could to Meacham, ran to the telephone, did not stop to say a word or ask if the line was busy, only said to Pendleton: "Head the herd off, tell them not to come this way." He is now pulling as to what to do, to hold his cattle in Pendleton until winter is over or to call up the high man and dispose of them, as he thinks winter is just started.

Mrs. Willis Burchett and Mrs. Bert Chilcoat went to La Grande on Wednesday. Mrs. Burchett had suffered much with a toothache and went to have it extracted.

Herbert O'Farrell and Louis Clark went to Wallawa on Tuesday to work in the logging camps there.

Mrs. Joe Bernie from North Fork stopped off here on Tuesday on her way to Emersprize, where she will visit a few days with her mother.

Mrs. Clint Davis was on the sick list but has recovered.

Snow has fallen to the depth of 10 inches here during the past week, but Saturday it thinned out. It is still cloudy with indications of more snow.

Jack Deekweller went to La Grande on Wednesday to attend to business.

Walter Martin arrived back from Pendleton on Thursday but did not stop off as he had business in La Grande.

J. D. Casey went to Pendleton

Thursday on business. On Friday he was called to La Grande as a witness on a lawsuit trial.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilkinson went to La Grande on Friday night to visit Saturday and Sunday.

R. Fagan went to Portland on Friday night and from there to Woodburn, Ore., where he is exchanging California property for Woodburn property. He expects to return Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Davis and friend, Miss Antine Davis from Duncan, stopped off here Saturday until No. 18 when they left for La Grande for a few days.
