

Saved Her Life

The unqualified endorsement of Fruitoia and Traxo in a recent letter from Mrs. S. Grindie, 5918 Mignonette St., Pittsburg, Pa., will be of interest to other sufferers from stomach and intestinal troubles. Mrs. Grindie says:

"The doctors had given me up, saying the only hope left was an operation. I tried Fruitoia and passed hundreds of gallstones with the first two bottles. Am now feeling better than I have for years past. I will be glad to tell any sufferer how it has helped me, for I owe my life to it."

Fruitoia possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts, softening the congested waste and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and expels the accumulation to the great relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It serves to build up the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitoia and Traxo through representative druggists. In Pendleton they can be obtained at Tallman & Company, 623 Main St.

EDITOR SCORES SUNDAY

Thousand Dollars Offered for Debate With Evangelist.

BALTIMORE, March 9.—"I will give $1,000 to any charity organization in Baltimore for the privilege of entering a public debate with Billy Sunday on the prohibition issue," said C. A. Windle, editor of the Ironclad, in New York, who spoke in the Maryland theater at an anti-prohibition rally.

"The only difference between Billy Sunday and Judas is that Sunday takes in more money," he said. "Billy Sunday steals his sermons, and I have the satisfaction of proving that in connection with some of them. The one he stole from Robert Ingersoll almost everybody has heard about."

Mr. Windle expects to see Baltimore go in strong for Sunday, but he said that Pittsburg and other places where he has been have forgotten all about him except some of his jokes, which have lingered in the memory of men and women of the city. Mr. Windle said that his is not an infidel paper and that he always tried to be fair to Mr. Sunday. His only regret, he said, is that Mr. Sunday does so much harm to the cause of religion and that the men he converts to a better life do not stick to it.

SAN MARINO HAS DENIAL.

They Republic Will Issue Book to Placate Italy.

ROME, March 9.—San Marino, the smallest republic in the world, is about to follow the example of its bigger neighbors in Europe by issuing a book of diplomatic correspondence on the present war.

San Marino's main object in laying certain facts before the world is to square itself with Italy. San Marino will deny that its wireless station has been used by the Germans and will offer to put it under the supervision of Italian authorities. If luminous signals have been sent from its heights to Austrian navigators, San Marino will argue that these acts have been committed in defiance of government orders. It will admit that it refused to surrender Italian reservists who took refuge within its borders to escape military service, but will explain that political criminals are not extraditable from San Marino. It will point out that at least 19 of its 900 soldiers volunteered for service in the Italian armies.

To clinch the whole argument, San Marino will tell Italy and the world it has been at war with Austria for 45 years. This is because Austria forgot that it had been at war with San Marino and had failed to sign a peace pact with it after Italy's war of liberation of 1870.

WIFE'S MRS. ARCHBOLD.

Daughter-in-Law of Oil Magnate Then Shoots Itself.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 9.—Mrs. John F. Archbold, daughter-in-law of John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, was bitten by a rattlesnake while hunting on the Archbold estate near here.

Physicians said her wound would not prove fatal. Mrs. Archbold shot the snake after she had been bitten.

A Rare Poem of the War of 1812

(By Request.)

The words were composed by the late Hon. Charles Miner, an editor and member of congress of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and who wrote the first History of Wyoming.

James Bird was a volunteer, going with the Kingston Volunteers to join Perry at Lake Erie. He was wounded in battle, and ordered by Perry to leave the deck, but he would not go. For his bravery he was honored, and excited the envy of a young lieutenant. Bird was condemned to be shot for desertion. The war was over, Perry was away and Bird and a young man named Rankin left. It was supposed, to join Jackson at New Orleans. They were brought back, and condemned to be shot. A reprieve was sent, two men riding on horseback were seen in the distance, waving it, but they were too late. That night the lieutenant ordered a guard put in his tent to keep away Bird's ghost. The second night he committed suicide. I have the story from the late James A. Gordon, who was at Lake Erie at the time and saw the three graves, those of Bird, Rankin and the lieutenant.

James Bird.
Ye sons of freedom listen to me
And ye daughters, too, give ear;
You a sad and mournful story
As ever was told shall bear.
Hail, you know, his troops surrendered.
We our forces quick assembled
The invaders to resist.

Among the troops that marched to Erie
Were the Kingston Volunteers;
Captain Thomas there commanded
To protect our west frontiers.
Tender were the scenes of parting,
Mothers wrung their hands and cried;
Maidens wept their swains in secret,
Fathers strove their tears to hide.

There was one among our number
Tall and gallant was his mien;
Firm his step his look undaunted
Scarce a nobler youth was seen.
One sweet kiss he snatched from Mary,
Craved his mother's prayers once more;
Pressed his father's hand and left him,
For Lake Erie's distant shore.

Mary tried to say, "Farewell, James,"
Waved her hand but nothing spoke,
"Good bye Bird, may nothing prevent you,
From the rest, at parting broke.

Soon they came where noble Perry
Had assembled all his fleet,
There the gallant Bird enlisted,
Hoping soon the foe to meet.

Where is Bird? The battle rages,
Is he in the strife or not?
Now the cannon roars tremendous—
Dare he meet his hostile foe?
See! Behold him there with Perry,
In the self-same ship they fight;
Though his messmates fall all round him
Nothing can his soul affright.

But, behold, a ball has struck him,
See the crimson current flow;
"Leave the deck!" exclaimed brave Perry,
"No!" cried Bird "I will not go.
Here on deck I took my station,
Ne'er will Bird his colors fly;
I'll stand by you gallant captain,
Till we conquer or I die."

Still he fought both faint and bleeding,
Till the Stars and Stripes arose;
Victory having crowned our efforts,
All triumphant o'er our foes,
And did Bird receive a pension?
Was he to his friends restored?
No, he never to his bosom
Clasped the maid his heart adored.

But there came most dismal tidings
From Lake Erie's distant shore,
Better far if Bird had perished
Midst the battle's awful roar.
"Dearest parents," said the letter,
"This will bring sad news to you;
Do not mourn your first beloved,
Though this brings his last adieu."

"I must suffer, for deserting
From the Brig Niagara;
Read this letter brothers, sisters
It's the last you'll have from me."
Sad and gloomy was the morning
Bird was ordered out to die,
Where's the breast not dead to pity?
But for him would breathe a sigh.

Let he thought so brave at Erie,
Freely bled and nobly dared,
Let his courage plead for mercy,
Let his precious life be spared.
See him march! and hear his fetters
Harsh they clank upon the ear;
But his step is firm and manly,
For his breast ne'er harbored fear.

See! he kneels upon his coffin,
Sure his death can do no good,
Spare him! O God they've shot him
Farewell Bird! Farewell forever
Home and friends you'll see no more;
For your mangled corpse lies buried,
On Lake Erie's distant shore.

STOMACH ACTS FINE! NO INDIGESTION, GAS HEARTBURN, ACIDITY

"PAPE'S DIAPERSIN" FIXES SICK SOUL, UPSET STOMACHS IN FIVE MINUTES.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you must figure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapersin is noted for its speed in giving relief. Its harmless, non-toxic, unbinding action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs, its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas, causes headache, dizziness and nausea, eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapersin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness certainly and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

VICTIM ASKS FOR $3000.

Man in Auto Crash at Vancouver Sues Power Company.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 9.—James Day, injured in an accident at Sixteenth and Main streets February 19, when a freighter struck his automobile has sued the North Coast Power company for $2500 damages for injuries $200 lost time, $150 damages to the machine, and $25 medical attention.

He alleges that the company maintains its tracks a title point in a careless and negligent manner, and that the brick laid between and outside of the rails is so far from the rail that a small automobile drops between the rail and brick. He was compelled to turn out to pass a farmers rig and one wheel dropped between the rail and brick, and a freighter struck him when he stopped.

Maternity! The Word of Words

It is written into life's expectations that motherhood is the one sublime accomplishment. And if there is anything, no matter how simple, how apparently trivial it may seem, if it can help, assist or in any way comfort the expectant mother, it is a blessing. And such is a remedy called "Mother's Friend."

You apply it over the stomach muscles. It is gently rubbed on the surface, and makes the muscular pliant; this relieves the strain on ligaments, natural expansion takes place without undue effect upon the nerves. And as the time approaches, the mind has gone through a period of repose, of gentle expectancy, and this has an unquestioned influence upon the future child. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that three generations of mothers have used and recommended "Mother's Friend." Ask your nearest druggist for a bottle of this splendid remedy. He will get it for you. And then write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 407 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most interesting book of information to prospective mothers. It is mailed free. Write today. It is a book you will enjoy.

A Leading Food Expert

stood before the big battery of milling machines in the Grape-Nuts factories at Battle Creek, Mich., and after inspecting both the wheat and flour said to the miller:

"That's selected wheat, and no 'patent flour' stunt, either. That wheat comes out of the rolls as honest and unrefined as it went in. Where did you ever make flour before that retained the true mineral content of the grain?"

And the wise miller replied: "I have worked in a good many mills, and I am no youngster, but let me tell you, I never made whole wheat flour like that until I came with this company."

The truth is, white flour is woefully lacking in certain essential mineral elements which are thrown out in the milling to make flour white and pretty, and its use frequently results in impaired health and activity.
