It may seem that $50,000 is a ridiculous price to ask for one vase, but when that particular piece of bric-a-brac is the big brother of a seven-inch specimen for which J. P. Morgan paid $28,000, it must be admitted that the price is likely to be realized. The vase is the property of a Chinese merchant in California, and is to be sent to New York for sale.

An idea of the size of this wonderful example of Chinese art may be obtained by comparing it with another product of China, little Miss Ah Oy Chau.
