My Lady's Slipper

A 5-Part Story of Romance and Adventure.

Author: Cyrus Townsend Brady.
Produced by Ralph W. Ince.

FEATURING

Anita Stewart and Earle Williams

Cyrus Townsend Brady never wrote a more interesting story than "My Lady's Slipper" and the Vitagraph Co. has spared no expense in making it a veritable screen masterpiece. Supporting Miss Stewart and Mr. Williams are such well known players as Joseph Kilgour, Harry Northrup, Julia Swayne Gordon, William Shea, George Stevens and a host of others.

IN ADDITION—Moving pictures of Charlie Chaplin signing his $670,000 contract with the Mutual Film Corporation. In this picture Chaplin is seen in his street clothes and you see him as he is in every day life.
NO ADVANCE IN ADMISSION. ADULTS 15c, CHILDREN 5c

DAMBOSCH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA AT WALLA WALLA
The New York Symphony Orchestra is one of America's three best orchestras, the other two being Boston Symphony Orchestra, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, formerly known as Thomas' Orchestra. Walter Damrosch, the conductor, has been conductor of this orchestra more than 20 years and they have visited nearly every city of any size in the United States.
Joseph Hoffman, pianist traveling with them, is without doubt the greatest living pianist. As a boy prodigy of ten he toured this country and made a lasting impression. As a man he has developed into a wonderful artist. His face, through his association with the Ladies' Home Journal, is familiar to almost every one.
The combination of the New York Symphony Orchestra and Joseph Hoffman at the Keylor Grand Theater, Walla Walla, April 5, will be a rare treat.—Adv.

"MY LADY'S SLIPPER"

Pastime, Sunday and Monday. Elaborate costumes and settings of unusual beauty are to be seen in the latest Vitagraph Blue Ribbon release, "My Lady's Slipper," in which Anita Stewart and Earle Williams portray the principal roles under the direction of Ralph Ince. It is the story of the Louis XVI period and the Vitagraph Company went to considerable expense to create the atmosphere of those times. The costumes and characters are authentic of that period.

"My Lady's Slipper" was written by Cyrus Townsend Brady and is one of the most interesting of the many successful novels from his pen. The Vitagraph Company has spared no expense in making it a veritable screen masterpiece and supporting Miss Stewart and Mr. Williams in the cast are such well known players as Joseph Kilgour, Harry Northrup, William Shea, Julia Swayne Gordon, George O'Donnell, George Stevens and others.

The scenes of "My Lady's Slipper" are laid in and near Paris during the time of Marie Antoinette. The story tells of Francis Burnham, an American naval officer who escapes from a British convict ship to make his way to Paris to see Benjamin Franklin, the United States minister. While walking outside the city's limits he rescues a beautiful girl from highwaymen, and falls in love with her. Playing cards at a gambling resort, Burnham becomes indebted to the Marquis de Tremignon, who covers the Countess de Villars and forces the American to steal from her boudoir some article of wearing apparel. Burnham discovers that the countess is the beautiful girl he rescued from the highwayman and though he takes her slipper he refuses to give up to the marquis and is thrown into prison. Word is carried to the countess of his plight and through her influence Burnham is released and the marquis humiliated. Later the American and the countess are happily married.

"My Lady's Slipper" is the first costume play in which Anita Stewart has ever appeared. Both she and Mr. Williams wear their silks, satins and laces in graceful manner and their appearance in this production will further endear them to the motion picture public.

In addition to the above will be shown moving pictures of Charlie Chaplin signing his famous $670,000 contract with the Mutual Film Corporation.

"Golden Chance" at Alta.

To Wallace Reid who is co-starred with Cleo Ridgley in "The Golden Chance," life is just one fight after another. Practically every picture Reid has been in for the past year, he has had to appear in fight scenes in the Geraldine Farrar production of "Carmen," he had to fight with sabers with Wm. Elmer and was badly cut on the arm by a glancing blow. In the thrilling fight scene in "The Golden Chance" he is attacked by two men and during the taking of the scene, was struck over the head by a bottle. The bottle did not break as expected and Reid suffered a severe scalp wound. It is now announced that in the next fight in which he will appear he will wear a full suit of armor as his friends object to the continual odor of liniment. This will be shown at the Alta theater tomorrow and Monday.

Douglas Fairbanks.

Douglas Fairbanks, in his fourteenth year on the stage, has reached motion pictures with such success that for three years he will do no work in legitimate drama, but will confine himself to film work in Triangle plays under the supervision of David W. Griffith.

In 1901 Fairbanks made his theatrical debut. Since then, with the single exception of a brief flurry in Wall street, he has supported the most prominent stars and has been a star in his own right. For several years, under the direction of William A. Brady, he played in such successful pieces as "The Pit," "The Man of the Hour" and "The Gentleman from Mississippi." More recently he has appeared in "Officer 666," "Hawthorne of the U. S. A.," "The New Henrietta" and "The Show Shop." He has also appeared occasionally in vaudeville with his well known sketch, "A Regular Business Man." Temple Sunday and Monday.
