THE BEST OF LIFE.

Not till life's heat is cooled, The head long rush slowed to a quiet pace, every purblind passion that has ruled Our noisier years at least Spurs us in vain, and, weary of the race. We care no more who loses Ah not till all the best of life seems past The best of life begins.

But the world widens when Such hope of trivial gain that ruled us lies Broken amid our childish toys. for then

We win to self control. mail ourselves to manhood, . and there rise Upon us from the vast and windless heights Those cleaner thoughts that . are unto the soul
