NEWS OF PENDLETON

Pierce to Sumpter.
George Pierce of this city has left for Sumpter, Ore., where he will take a position in the Buck Gulch store.

Shaves His Moustache.
Assessor C. P. Strain appeared on the streets yesterday minus his moustache, and this was taken as a sign that he will look to the ladies of the county to keep him in office.

Urge Murphy for Representative.
Though the democrats did not succeed in getting any member of their party to file for the nomination for representative, a number of them are trying to urge Joe P. Murphy of this city to permit his name to be written in at the primaries.

Church of the Redeemer.
The extra Lenten services this week will be Tuesday at 4 p. m., Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., Good Friday from 12 m. till 3 p. m. Choir practice for Easter services this evening at 7:20 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Pardon Refused Sparling.
A. R. Sparling, sometimes known as Charles Paul, who spent the winter in Pendleton two years ago while posing as an expert authority on sheep raising, has been denied a pardon from the Idaho penitentiary to which he was sentenced from one to fourteen years on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

"Made in Oregon" Sale.
The women of the Christian church are busy preparing for their "Made in Oregon" sale to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week in the Main street room of the Falling building. The sale will be conducted during the evenings as well as the day and made from manufactured articles for sale the women will conduct a bazaar of their own.

Dr. Smith Buys Property.
T. A. Sutherland has disposed of the Glenn apartments, at Glenn and Hawthorne avenues to Dr. C. J. Smith the consideration named being $49,000. As part payment Dr. Smith gives a half section of alfalfa land near Stanfield in Umatilla county on a basis of $32,000 valuation, or $100 an acre. The Glenn apartment building was erected last year by Mr. Sutherland, it contains 23 apartments fitted up with modern conveniences. The lot on which it stands is assessed at $2650 and the improvement at $5000 making the assessor's basis of valuation $3650 for the land and $17,000 for the improvement, or a total of approximately $22,000. The sale negotiations were conducted by C. D. Straw.—Portland Journal.

Winter Death to Rabbits.
That the severe winter proved a big benefit to the homesteaders in Malheur county in exterminating the rabbits is the statement made in a letter by L. D. Layde, one of the Pendleton men who took up land near Brogan. "We had a very severe winter," he writes, "but got through with the stock all O. K. The grass is fine now and everything is picking up. I have some land cleared off and in grain which is up, and I am now working on my garden land. I like the country and think it has a future for farming."

Would Be Constable.
Another candidate for constable of the Freewater-Milton district has declared himself at the last hour. Joe (Tex) Lawson has formally filed his declaration upon a platform of "strict law enforcement, faithful service and high efficiency." He seeks the republican nomination and will be opposed by J. H. West and J. W. Dykes.

Must Sell Her Store.
Miss Daisy Mason, who has been conducting a local millinery for some time past, finds it necessary to sacrifice her stock and fixtures in order to return to Baker to attend her father who is not expected to live. She and her sister, Miss Gladys Mason, went to Baker several days ago and she has just returned to sell out her business.

Candidates to East End.
A good many of the local candidates left this morning for the east end of the county where an auction sale is to be held, the gathering affording them a good opportunity to meet the voters. Among those leaving by auto to this morning were Ralph Folsom, Osmer E. Smith, Frank Saling and Dr. J. A. Best.

Chamberlain Will Help.
In reply to a telegram from the Pendleton Commercial association urging the Oregon delegation in congress to boost for a naval base at the mouth of the Columbia river, Senator Chamberlain in a letter received here today says he will use his influence toward securing such base. He says that the local telegram has been referred by him to Senator Lane from whom a reply is expected later.

Mrs. Hopkins, a returned missionary from India, will speak at the Baptist church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock on the church work in that country.

Appendicitis Operation.
Lowell Sturdivant of Pilot Rock underwent an operation Sunday for a ruptured appendix and is reported to be recovering nicely.

McKinnon Funeral Postponed.
The funeral of the late Archie McKinnon, Helix farmer, set for this afternoon has been postponed until 2 p. m. tomorrow because of delay in the arrival of a brother from Bridgeport, Wash. The services will be held at the above named hour from the Folsom undertaking chapel.

Last Day of Registration.
Today is the last day for voters to register and for candidates for office to file their declarations. There has been no great rush of delinquent voters today, despite the fact that there are many unregistered. Up until noon only 11 registered at the court house though more registered at the Kopper Kettle.

Trip May Be Postponed.
On account of the inclement weather, the proposed trip to the Morrow county line tomorrow may again be postponed. Local citizens who had planned on driving out do not care to go if the day is as blustery as today and it is probable that the people of Pilot Rock and Heppner have the same notion. A decision will be reached this evening.

Umatilla Girl Ill.
Miss Snowey McCoy of Umatilla was brought to St. Anthony's hospital yesterday very ill. The physicians are not quite certain of her trouble yet but think it probable that she is threatened with typhoid.

Patients Are Recovering.
Mrs. Mary Jones of McKay creek and Mrs. G. T. Williamson of Kellogg, Idaho, who underwent operations at St. Anthony's hospital recently, are reported to be improving satisfactorily.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express to our friends our most heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness and assistance shown us in the recent bereavement of our mother, Mrs. Susan E. Kirby.

BY THE CHILDREN.
Elmer E. Hales, J. O. Hales, A. N. Hales, P. T. Hales, A. H. Kirby.—Adv.

ing but of course it will take some time. The winter did us a good turn in killing all of the jack rabbits. You can ride all day and not see one. This community bought 215 ounces of strychnine to use on the rabbits but the major part is left over, but will come in handy for squirrels which are quite numerous."

Baby Girl Born.
A daughter was born yesterday to Mrs. Della Scott at her home on Anne street.

Mrs. Oliver Ill.
