THE PLAYS MESSAGE OF PEACE

IF THIS GRAPHIC PRESENTMENT serves no other purpose, its message for universal peace marks it of great importance. Morally and educationally it establishes the futility of armed conflict. A member of the senate of the United States expressed the foregoing sentiment. "Anyone contemplating war should see this picture," added the Senator. "I sincerely believe it will do more to deter people from engaging in war than anything written or spoken on the subject in years." Great care has been taken not to glorify battle. Even the music stops in its motif of glorification to sound the note of terror and desolation which is the real truth of war. Armies seldom settle disputed questions of state. But where they accomplish this much, in the wake of conflict arise newer and more terrible questions. But for the hatreds engendered in the civil war the suffering of the reconstruction period would never have been known.

Militia is Called to Pacify Strikers

HASTINGS, N. Y., April 19.—Militia was called and martial law declared as a result of rioting following a strike of 3000 employees of the Conduitt Cable company. The strikers clashed several times with the guards. None was reported injured seriously. The company erected a stockade around the plant. Troops are encamped nearby. No demonstrations were attempted after their arrival.

West Point Bill Passed.
WASHINGTON, April 19.—A bill doubling the number of cadets at the West Point Military Academy, the second of the preparedness measures to go through both branches of the congress, was passed by the house after it had been amended to eliminate a section which would have authorized the president to fill vacancies at the beginning of a scholastic year from the alternates whose principals had entered. A similar bill, doubling the personnel at the naval academy, was signed by the president several weeks ago.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Lee's Surrender One of Striking Scenes

Four of the greatest characters in the American history, Abraham Lincoln, General Grant, General Sherman, and General Lee, as seen in "The Birth of a Nation," Oregon Theater, 3 days, starting Thursday, April 27th.

One of the most striking scenes of "The Birth of a Nation," coming to the Oregon, is the surrender of Lee at the historic McLean home in the vicinity of Appomattox courthouse.

Donald Crisp is cast for the role of Gen. U. S. Grant, while Lee is enacted by Howard Gaye. The members of the staffs of the northern and southern and southern commanders are shown, and the tableaux presented when the scene opens in a reproduction of the familiar painting of this occasion. It occurred April 9, 1865. Lee had dressed for his last public occasion, with great care. Grant on the contrary lacked his full dress and appeared in the "fatigue" and dusty jackboots of the hard campaign.

It is well known that many supporters of the defeated confederacy wished to prolong the struggle by means of a guerilla warfare similar to that used by the Boers towards the close of the Anglo-boer war. In fact John Wilkes Booth supposed that in killing President Lincoln he would have the support of the south in a new struggle. But Lee was of a different temper. He realized that the south had been beaten in a fair struggle on the fields of battle and that prolonging the fighting would merely add to the horrors and miseries endured by his people. Therefore, after the battle of Five Forks, he opened negotiations with Grant and on the morning of April 9th, under the budding apple trees of an Appomattox orchard were determined the terms of peace which were formally written down at the Wilmer-McLean house in the afternoon.

When General Robert Lee wished to make some marginal notes on the papers of the final surrender, he asked the bystanders for a pencil. Strange to say, not one of the numerous officers and aides-de-camp was able to offer him one. At last, an officer of Lee's staff extracted a pocket inkstand and feather quill from his kit, and with the aid of these the historic document was written and the names of Grant and Lee affixed at the bottom.

Afterwards an effort was made to arrest and indict Lee for treason, but Grant, who knew Lee's nobility of character and how he had fulfilled to the letter all the surrender obligations, prevented any such disgraceful sequel to the great event.

Citizenship is Denied.
SEATTLE, Wash., April 19.—Citizenship was denied to Fred Langer, an Austrian, who took out his first papers in November, 1910, and reported to the Austrian consulate last August as a reservist.

Langer explained that he registered merely to save an inheritance in Austria, but Superior Judge Smith ruled that "a man false to his own government might be expected to be false to his new government if tempted."

Sugar Up 10 Cents.
PORTLAND, April 19.—Sugar jumped ten cents, reaching 35, the highest since 1914 when 28.05 was recorded.
