"Kiddie" is King,—and Queen

—long live the "Kiddie"

HOW nice is the heirloom that was given to you by mother. Have you ever made your baby a similar present. Not merely a little plaything suitable for the present moment, but one that baby can keep and treasure as coming from you and in turn hand down to your grand children in the days to come—as an heirloom.

We know you think this much of baby, why not carry out this beautiful sentiment.

We have many suggestions to show you.

Livery Barn Is Repaired.
The old City Livery barn on Thompson street, which was recently declared unsafe and a menace by the city council at the suggestion of Fire Chief Ringold, has been repaired, the sagging wall having been fixed to render it safe.

At St. Mary's Church.
Easter services will take place at St. Mary's church at 6, 8 and 10 a. m. At 10 o'clock the choir will render Concone's Mass in F under the direction of Miss Sarah Cunningham. The Credo is taken from Mercadante. The Regina Coeli will be sung at the offertory.

To Play Colored Team.
There will be baseball in Pendleton tomorrow afternoon despite the fact that the Blue Mountain team will be out of the city. The Colored Tigers and the "Pendleton Pickups" will play at 3 o'clock. Both teams have had considerable practice this season and a close contest is expected.

Milton Team in Semi-finals.
Having won all of its debates up to the present time, the Milton high school debating team is now qualified to enter the semi-finals for the championship of eastern Oregon. The team will meet the Prineville team in the near future and the winner will compete in the finals for the state championship.

Stoers Shot on Range.
Col. J. H. Raley this morning released word that six big stoers, belonging to Ben Colvin, prominent John Day stockman, were the other day found dead within a few yards of each other with a bullet wound to explain the cause of death. It is presumed that some enemy of Colvin shot the animals.

Criminal Cases Next Week.
Next week will see a number of criminal cases up for trial in the circuit court. The cases of the State vs. John Miller, charged with forgery, is set for Monday and the case of the State vs. Weaver, charged with non-support, is set for the same day. The case against Basil Parr, charged with horse stealing, will probably go over to the next term. Forest Rhinehart, charged with pointing a gun at another person, is set for Tuesday. It is not certain yet just when the case of W. O. Marren, charged with second degree murder, will come up for trial.

Buys Into Kern Company.
Having disposed of his commercial sign painting business in La Grande, Samuel Wright is moving to Pendleton to take an interest in the Kern Sign Company. With Mr. Kern he plans to enlarge upon the novelty sign business and cover the northwest besides doing commercial sign business. Mr. Wright has been prominent in La Grande lodge circles and also a live worker for all civic undertakings there, having taken an interest in the motorcycle races and in the Y. M. C. A. He has been prelate of the La Grande Knights of Pythias for the past year. Mr. Wright has also been prominent in La Grande fraternal circles.

Send Presents to Motanic.
Having seen the story of the life of Parsons Motanic, well known local Indian, in the February number of the Sunset magazine, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hute of Lebanon, Ohio, wrote a splendid letter of tribute to Motanic and sent him a beaded watchfob and to his wife a beaded neck chain. In the letter they explain that the beaded work was done by an English woman. They profess an interest in this country and ask that Motanic write them relative to the climate, prospects for game hunting, etc., and as to whether or not easterners are given a welcome by Indians and whites. Motanic is very proud of the letter and of the gifts.

Built House for Reiths.
Col. J. M. Bentley, veteran local insurance man, has the distinction of having built the first lumber house on the Umatilla river between McKay creek and Echo. It was a house at the mouth of Birch creek built for the Reith brothers after whom the station at the terminal has been named. That was in 1872 and Mr. Bentley says the job occupied an entire year. He was forced to do all his own planning by hand. Louis Reith was afterwards a member of the city council in Pendleton and ran against W. Farnish for sheriff. Mr. Farnish being the democratic candidate and Reith an independent-republican candidate.
