Among the members of the association are David Tod, H. H. Stambaugh and David Arrel, millionaire sportsman. The plant was completed last year at a cost of more than $50,000.

At The MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

William Farnum, Dorothy Bernard, Anita Stewart and Earle Williams, Showing at the Pastime Today. William Farnum, one of the foremost stars of the screen, will appear at the Pastime theater commencing today in "A Man of Sorrow," a strong photodrama based on the famous stage success, "Hoodman Blind." With Farnum in the Fox production is Dorothy Bernard, the ex-Portland stock actress, who is cast in a dual role.

"A Man of Sorrow" deals with a man who marries one of two sisters, who look exactly alike. He sees his sister-in-law in the arms of a stranger, assumes that it is his wife, and leaves home. He roves about the world, seeking solace, until he meets his sister-in-law, who informs him of the true condition of affairs. Anita Stewart and Earle Williams will also be shown in their usual weekly picture. Four big screen stars in one show. Come early.

Kitty Gordon at Alta Today. "As in a Looking Glass" the new World Film feature in which Miss Kitty Gordon will make her first screen appearance at the Alta today only, affords the star an opportunity to display to best possible advantage the beauty that has made her famous on the stage. She has a role of tremendous dramatic power and throughout the picture appears in a rapid-fire succession of the most marvelous gowns and hats ever seen on the screen of a motion picture theater.

Mae Murray at Alta Tomorrow. Mae Murray, the beautiful star, who is to make her photodramatic debut in the Jesse L. Lasky production of Mary Johnson's famous novel, "To Have and to Hold" at the Alta tomorrow and Saturday, had a most strenuous time during the filming of the picture. For eight days she and her company were cut off from communication with the outside world while in a little town on the Pacific coast. Immediately after leaving there, the company went over to Catalina Island to film some exterior scenes and she was left alone the entire night on a barren island during the height of a rainstorm and on account of the high seas it was with great difficulty that she was rescued. It is a Paramount Picture.

There is a great photodrama scheduled for presentation at the Temple Theatre tomorrow. It is called "The Woman in 47" and has Alice Brady, the celebrated screen star, in the principal part. Coming as the next release on the Equitable program, it is a striking feature in a long list of striking features, and suffers nothing by comparison with the other successes which have been shown as Equitable releases. The story is, full of striking and tense situations, with thrilling climaxes, and gives the star full opportunity for the display of her well known dramatic talents. There is not a dull inch in the full five reels of film, and there is no slackening of attention permitted as the development of the story unfolds itself.

"Birth of the Nation" Today. D. W. Griffith's mighty spectacle "The Birth of a Nation," begins its three days' engagement at the Oregon theater today. There will be two performances daily at 2:15 and 8:15.

Nothing like this wonderful attraction has ever been seen upon the local boards. It is given here exactly as it is being presented in New York City where the big drama has broken every record in the stage history of the first city in the country. In addition the piece has piled up record engagements in Chicago, Boston, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

It covers a wide range of American history and touches only the highest points of interest in the great events that led up to and terminated the Civil War. The force that slavery played in producing this crisis is traced from its inception to its annihilation. While the basic theme is historical in its foundation its intent is the fundamental one of true drama. The forces which make for these results have been marshalled upon a larger scale than was ever dreamed of before. Where directors of vast spectacles have dealt with hundreds in the past Griffith employs thousands. Eighteen thousand people fill his stage, which has vast territory for its background. Three thousand horses pass before your view in wild dashes over miles of country roadway. The decisive battles of the Civil War are reproduced in faithful detail and you see these conflicts fought again just as they were waged 50 years ago. Cities were built up only to be destroyed to lend force and verity to the dramatic narrative.

Rulers Send Greetings. LONDON, April 27.—King George sent the following telegram on Easter day to Emperor Nicholas:

"Today, when by happy coincidence our two nations are celebrating Easter and we are commemorating St. George I cannot refrain from sending you congratulations, in renewed confidence in the victory of the allied armies. I followed with delight the recent victorious achievements of your gallant army."

Emperor Nicholas replied thus: "Warmest thanks for your Easter greetings and good wishes. I entirely share your confidence in the ultimate success of our combined efforts."
