Longshoremen on Strike.
NEW YORK, April 29.—Longshoremen employed by the American Dock Company are striking. The labor department is trying its utmost to effect an agreement and prevent a strike of the master stevedores. It is feared a general strike may result in an industrial conflagration involving 100,000 men. The longshoremen demand increased wages, a share in the profits of war traffic, an eight hour day and recognition of the union.

MONDAY, MAY 1, 1916.

And He's Not a Kentucky Colonel Either.

Col. John Bentley may be past his three score years and ten but his eye and his faculty of appreciation are undimmed by age. Witness the following remark made to several men the other day when they detected him watching intently a classily clad young lady crossing the street. "Some men," said the veteran, "take a great pride in fast horses, some take pride in prize dogs, others take pride in fancy chickens, but the joy of my heart has ever been a pretty woman."

Safety First.

The Delta is serving an ice cream dish which is called the "Tango Sundae." However, during the past week there have been very few calls for it and Proprietor George Hill believes his patrons are fearful that they will violate the dance ordinance if they eat it.

All in Favor Say "Aye."

Lou Steelhammer, who impersonated the leader of the woman's suffrage band at the Elks show last week, was dressed in a kid-glove effect that displayed his form to advantage. One of his friends was talking with him the other day and the question of clothes came up. "Say Lou," exclaimed the friend as if struck by a happy thought, "You ought to wear that make-up you used on the stage for every day wear. You know, I think you looked better in it than you do in your regular clothes."

George Lets No Opportunities Pass.

George Peringer says that as soon as he read Jack Robinson's good roads article in which was frequent mention of millionaire farmers and their baronial estates, he took a copy of the paper to his banker and tried to borrow a few thousand dollars on the strength of Jack's screed. However, the banker asked for proof that Jack was thinking of him, George says.

Misses a Real for a Real Spectacle.

"Did you see the aurora borealis last night?" we asked a lady last Friday morning. "No," she said (we won't mention her name). "I went to see 'The Birth of a Nation.'"

A Good Alibi.

Mayor Best, doubtless with no such intention, did the firemen a grave injustice when he had a man arrested a week ago for overstepping in the dance. The firemen gave their annual ball last week and were around selling tickets. They found many men quick to seize upon the recent arrest as an alibi. "I'd like to go," they'd say, "but I'm afraid of being arrested."

(Note: Mayor Best has ruled that the one-step or walk dance is perfectly proper as long as the dancers turn at the end of eight steps, but is indecent when more than eight are taken without turning. We therefore, moved to preserve his dignity in song and hope that these verses will be kept carefully by the library so that posterity may know something of the dark ages of the dance.—Ed.)

FIRST VERSE.

One, two, three, four,
Stepping with your girl,
Five, six, seven, eight,
Be sure right here to whirl,
For if you should go further,
You sure will lose your rep,
For Mayor Best'll get you
If you take another step.

SECOND VERSE.

One, two, three, four,
Stepping down the hall,
Five, six, seven, eight,
Now turn and pivot all,
For the ninth step is indecent,
Do you get me? Are you hep?
And Mayor Best'll get you
If you take another step.

Spring Poem.

We like to wake up these spring morns,
When day begins to creep
Across the sky, then turn about
And promptly go to sleep.
When our alarm, at half past four
Calls us with tones of cheer,
We flop upon the other side
With joy to pound our ear.
—I. M. U.

Fit for a Dog.

The doll buggy division of the recent baby parade was designated as division K. There were eight entries and they were tagged K-1, K-2, K-3, etc. We therefore, think it fortunate that the committee was not called upon to tag any child K-9.

Well, the Eagle is the National Bird. The East Oregonian gave out complimentary tickets to "The Birth of a Nation" to all G. A. R. veterans and their wives. An elderly lady came in to the office upon business. When through she started to leave. "By the way," said Mr. Fletcher, "does your husband belong to the G. A. R.?" "No-o," she replied, "he never joined the G. A. R. He only belongs to the Eagles."

Listen.

Will somebody ask Lawrence Frazier John Lambirth and Nez Ankeny how much they paid to be guests of the Walla Walla golf club?

A Story of Afflicted Ones.

Some few weeks ago when District Attorney Fred Steiner was suffering from a lost voice, he was trying to converse with Henry Collins, who is a little deaf. The attempt appealed to the sense of humor of Ben Burroughs and Bill Wyrick and they laughed uproariously.

A short time later Steiner and Burroughs were in Portland at the same time and were members of a grille party. Ben got up to dance, bumped into a passing couple with such violence that his glasses were knocked off and broken. Now Ben is so nearsighted that he can't see the end of his nose without his specks. Therefore, his wife had to lead him from the grille. As he passed Steiner, the latter twitted him. "You will laugh at my lost voice, will you, you old owl," he said.

Steiner brought the story back to Pendleton and told it to Wyrick, who was muchly moved to mirth. Ben heard of Bill's hilarity. Said he, "Bill hasn't any room to laugh. He might see all right, talk all right and hear all right, but, damn, he can't think."

GIRL APPEARS TO MAN IN ALASKA AND SAVES HIS LIFE.

MISS ETHEL WILLIAMS

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 29.—A dream in which appeared to him, and saved him from death in the wilds of Alaska was the introduction Donald Mack of Juneau, Alaska, wealthy engineer, gave himself in a letter to Miss Ethel Williams, a prominent Syracuse University society girl.

Miss Williams, who resides with her father and sister received a picture of a dog team and the following words penned in a masculine hand:

"If you will write to this address I will tell you why I have sent this card."
She did. He did.
Miss Williams received the following story from the man in the north, after the ice had sufficiently broken up to permit the transportation of mail:

"I am a mining engineer, and my work has taken me far into the interior of the country. Ordinarily I finish my work and reach the settlements before the lakes and rivers close and am able to make the trip by boat and canoe. Last fall I delayed too long, and was obliged to come out by sled, a distance of 700 miles.
"Shortly before I reached Lake Tassah I fell in with three Indians and a Frenchman on the trail. We started to cross the lake, stopping midway on a small island, to rest and sleep. While I slept, I dreamed. I saw a young girl dressed in light summer clothing, standing in the deep snow around me.
"It was real to me and I asked her who she was and why she was there. She told me her name was Ethel Williams and her home in Syracuse, N. Y. She said she knew it was my intention to keep on the direct route over the lake, but that disaster lay in that direction, as there was open water covered by drifting snow. To be safe I should go about twenty-five miles up the river, where I would find safe crossing.

"At this point I was awakened by the howling of dogs and the shouts of the Indians. It was 3 o'clock in the morning. They were making ready to go. I told them of my dream, and they laughed at me. But I did not go on with them.

"I followed the instructions of the dream girl, and when I reached Juneau the Indians and Frenchman had not been seen. I headed a searching party down to lake to the point where they should have reached the mainland. We found the canoes and their sleeping bags and other camp outfit floating in the open water.
"So, Miss Williams, I consider that you have saved my life, and mailed the card to you from Juneau."

Milk Advances in Price.
WALLA WALLA, May 1.—Milk dealers announced an advance in the price of milk, six of the principal ones in the valley signing the agreement. Until September 1 a quart daily will cost $2.50 a month; a pint daily $1.49. It is expected that after September 1 the price will again advance.

The reason given is that the Walla Walla Valley Cow Testing Association through its records kept by experts from the state college, shows the dealers are producing milk and cream at a loss under the present prices. It is said that many associations of producers are being formed and that the dairymen are paying more.

Those who signed the agreement are Coyle Brothers, J. W. Toner, C. W. Smith, A. C. C. Elfert, O. L. Simmons and P. A. Jergenson.

Warships to Have Planes.
SEATTLE, Wash., April 28.—The Puget Sound navy yard has been informed that all large war vessels will carry aeroplanes and a place for launching them.

Orders have been received to build launching ways on the decks of the cruiser West Virginia, including a large crane for handling aeroplanes, and also storage room for five aeroplanes on the deck of the cruiser.

Best Thing for a Bilious Attack.
"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and to next day I felt like a new man," writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. I OWE MY HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies."
—Mrs. ROSE STORIEL, Moore Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.
