NEWS OF PENDLETON

Funeral of S. Taylor.
The funeral of S. Taylor, who died Wednesday night, was held this afternoon at the Brown Chapel. Rev. C. A. Hodshire of the Methodist church conducted the service.

Sues to Eject Tenant.
Al Richardson has brought suit in the justice court to eject A. A. West, a tenant in one of his houses with whom he has had a dispute over occupancy.

To Drive From The Dalles.
Spence Bentley of the firm of McCook & Bentley, agents for the Mitchell car, left this morning for The Dalles and will drive from there in a new Mitchell. Hans Pahl accompanied him for the trip.

Moving to Spokane.
E. P. Pyle, who has made Pendleton his home for several years, left yesterday by auto with his wife for Bickleton, Wash., for a visit with relatives before going on to Spokane, where they intend making their home.

Buys Commercial Barn.
Metz & Sons, well known importers of stallions, have purchased from Marion Deardoff the Commercial Livery Barn, on Adams street and will conduct it as a sales stable. Mr. Deardoff has run the barn for the past six or seven years and is undecided now as to what he will do in the immediate future.

Charged With Killing Duck.
Carl Fahrenwald was arrested yesterday near Pilot Rock by Game Warden George Tonkin on a charge of shooting a duck out of season. His hearing has been set for tomorrow in the Pilot Rock justice court. He is alleged to have shot a duck at the breeding ponds above Pilot Rock during April.

Jim Kyle in Auto Accident.
James M. Kyle, of Stanfield, candidate for the republican nomination for public service commissioner, was the victim of a rather serious automobile accident yesterday morning while en route from Bend to Tumalo. The machine in which he was riding turned over completely, due to defective gear, and he was caught under the car. He is not seriously injured but will be compelled to remain in the hospital for a few days.

Moorhouse Arrested Gypsy.
As an officer of the city and a good citizen, Major Lee Moorhouse, yesterday arrested Mary, a gypsy fortune teller when she attempted to extract a little cash from him by foretelling the future. She pleaded guilty to telling fortunes without a license and paid a $10 fine. She claimed to Judge Fitz Gerald to be the mother of 15 children.

Tennis and Oratory, Too.
In addition to the track team going to Baker today the Pendleton high school is sending a girls' tennis team and a contestant for the oratorical contest to be held this evening. The tennis players are Jesse Chesnut and Lucile Baer. In a tournament to be held tomorrow morning they will uphold the honor of the Pendleton school and the local students are hoping for a victory. Marcus May will be the P. H. S. representative in the oratorical contest to be held at Baker this evening.

WIDOW OF TITANIC VICTIM
BRIDE OF THEATER MGR.
.....

MRS. LESLIE CONSOLLY.
NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Henry B. Harris, widow of Henry B. Harris, and who survived the Titanic disaster, in which her husband lost his life, is a bride again having married in Greenwich, Conn., to Lester L. Consolly, a young theatrical manager. The marriage was celebrated just four years after the Titanic sank off Cape Race.
According to a friend of Mrs. Harris, after the ceremony in Greenwich, the couple motored to the Port of Missing Men, in North Salem, N. Y., for dinner. From there they started for Mrs. Consolly's summer camp in New England.

Robbins & West Auto Co.

A FRANKLIN SNAP!

The Body of this Car is Gone!

It was run over by a switch engine. The fenders are badly damaged and it does not look good for a pleasure car.

That's Why You Can Buy It Cheap

The motor, frame, axles and wheels are in good condition. It will make an ideal light truck and because all its parts are of the best material and workmanship it will give many years of useful service for light trucking or for farm roust-about service.

coyote pups at play near Irrigon, according to E. F. Averill of the federal biological survey. It was one of the trappers under Mr. Averill who located the den. The old coyote did not appear and Mr. Finley was handicapped by lack of time. He also secured some moving pictures of rabbits, a prairie chicken, kangaroo rats and other animals and birds. He expects to return in two weeks to try for some better pictures.

Return from Baptist Convention.
Pendleton Baptists who attended the annual county convention of that church at Helix Wednesday and Thursday, returned home last night and this morning. There were about 15 from Pendleton present at the different sessions and the churches of Hermiston, Helix, Ione, Athens, Milton and Weston were also well represented. The principal speakers were State Secretary Wright of Portland and Drs. Woody and Petty of Portland. A very successful meeting is reported.

Resinol Soap

makes clear skins and good hair

The regular use of Resinol Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, can usually be relied on to keep the complexion clear, the hands white and soft, and the hair healthy, glossy and free from dandruff. If the skin or scalp is already in bad condition, a short treatment with Resinol Soap is necessary to restore its normal health. Resinol Soap and Cream are sold by all druggists. For samples free, write to Dept. 122, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
