SOCIAL PERSONAL

A record-breaking crowd promises to be present Thursday evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall for the second and last benefit dance for Pendleton's campaign to elect Miss Murie Saling queen of the Rose Festival. Tickets are being sold all over the county for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. De Witte C. Whitney of Portland have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nellie Dee, to Mr. Bert Allan McDonald of Pendleton. The wedding is planned for the late summer. Miss Whitney is a talented vocalist of Walla Walla and has had classes here for several years.

William McBride, Adams farmer, was in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hill of Helix were in the city Saturday.

Lloyd Riches, editor of the Stanfield Standard, spent the week-end in the city. He was accompanied by his brother, Harold, who is visiting him.

Supt. I. E. Young returned Saturday from Arlington where he was a judge at a field meet. He also stopped at Hermiston to appear before the parent-teachers' association.

Strength comes from well digested and thoroughly assimilated food. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the digestive organs, and thus builds up the strength. If you are getting "run down," begin taking Hood's at once. It gives nerve, mental and digestive strength.—Adv.

PASTIME SHOWING CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN CARMEN TODAY

Crane Wilbur in "The Love Liar," Tomorrow.

"The Love Liar," a five act Mutual Masterpicture, DeLuxe Edition, at the Pastime tomorrow, is the biggest production coming to date from the David Horsley studios. An idea of its sumptuousness may readily be gleaned from the information that the settings used in this picture required ten weeks' time to build. Representations are made of the richly furnished homes of the ultra-wealthy and of the fashionable resorts they frequent, lending a fine background to the narration of the drama.

"THE NE'ER-DO-WELL"

A 5-Act Screen Version of Rex Beach's Most Famous Story.

This great photodrama is considered the worthy successor of "The Spoilers." Both stories were written by Rex Beach, and both have the same filmed by the Selig Company. "The Ne'er-Do-Well," written by the same author, produced by the same director, and enacted by the same stars that appeared in "The Spoilers," makes the production extraordinary in every detail. "The Ne'er-Do-Well" does not contain a dull moment. There are hand-to-hand conflicts, a great fire, beautiful tropical scenery, and the odd nooks and corners of old Panama are depicted. An all-star cast, including Kathlyn Williams and Wheeler Oakman, together with genuine Panama atmosphere, combine to make "The Ne'er-Do-Well" one of the greatest film dramas ever presented.

Wednesday and Thursday at the Temple.

PILLS BEST FOR LIVER.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS IN

"The Habit of Happiness"

Will Show You How.

This is positively the most unique, worth-while comedy drama ever filmed. Hundreds got it last night watching the clever inimitable Douglas Fairbanks put life, energy, enthusiasm into the "down and outers" of New York. It's a wonderful system, told in a wonderful way—you'll feel better for seeing it.
