

DESPAIRING WOMAN NOW HAPPY MOTHER

Mrs. Stephens Did Not Need The Surgical Operation.

Patoka, Ill.—"I had been married five years and my greatest desire was to become a mother. The doctor said I never would have a child unless I was operated on for female troubles and I had given up all hopes when a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly for some time, and I am in better health than ever, and have a healthy baby girl. I praise your Vegetable Compound for my baby and my better health. I want all suffering women to know that it is the sure road to health and happiness."—Mrs. G. G. Stephens, R. F. D. No. 3, Patoka, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

R. C. Dunnington of Walla Walla, spent Friday and Saturday here. Mrs. John Ash of Wallula is at Clay's hospital.

Len D. Smith has been on the sick list for several days, is improving.

Mrs. Wm. Piper has a new Jeffrey. Jack Prendergast has a new Buick. The graduation exercises took place in the Christian church Friday evening in the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd. The church was decorated with purple and white lilacs, tulips, spiraea and other home grown flowers. Invocation was rendered by Rev. McCormack, a solo by Mrs. James Hill, graduating address by S. A. Lowell of Pendleton, piano duet by Letha Elbee and Edna Potts, presentation of diplomas by J. S. Norvell, presentation of year's certificates, Roy Davidson won the scholarship to Reed college, McMinnville, Albany or Pacific University at Forest Grove. Letha Elbee had decided to take the two years' course at Monmouth Normal. This is Helix's first high school graduation.

Francis Beebe, manual training instructor, left Sunday for his home at Eugene.

Miss Alta Spaulding left Monday to spend her vacation at her home in Drain, Ore. She will return to assist in the school work beginning September 4.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Norvell entertained the high school class and a few others at dinner Sunday. The table was decorated in the class colors, purple and gold. Those present were Misses Edna Potts, Clara King, Letha Elbee, Opal Rice, Lella Norvell, Messrs. Roy Davidson, Theodore Norvell, Clifford Kendall, Orville Potts, Edmund Potts and Roy Rice.

L. K. Harlan of Pilot Rock, C. P. Strain and John Vest of Pendleton, M. E. Miller of St. Helens and C. A. Barrett of Athena attended the road meeting held here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Montgomery of Pendleton attended the graduating exercises here Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davidson of Weston, were here for the graduation exercises. They are grandparents of Roy Davidson, one of the graduates.

Mrs. Wm. Rutherford and Mrs. E. L. Norvell spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Adams.

W. H. Dale has been nursing an injured arm caused from a slip in cranking his car.

J. G. Bryan has been under the doctor's care for several days from injuries received from a fall from his dray.

Charles Alspach of Wallula, was a Sunday visitor.

Ethel Brown returned to her home in Clatsop at the close of school. The Adams baseball boys played the locals here Sunday. The score stood 14 to 4 in favor of Helix.

COURT PERMITS GIRL TO SENTENCE SUITOR FOR ANNOYING HER.

MISS PAULA ULMER.

Few persons have ever been complainant, prosecutor and judge all at the same time, yet Miss Paula Ulmer, a young amateur musician, today has that distinction.

Miss Ulmer has a suitor, Paul Haven, who so persisted in his attentions he annoyed her. He was continually following her, she said, and finally threatened her life if she did not reciprocate his affection.

At length she had him arrested. When he came up before Magistrate Deuel in the night court, Miss Ulmer made her complaint. The prisoner seemed to have little or no defense.

"What shall I do with him?" asked the magistrate.

"Put him where he won't annoy me," replied Miss Ulmer.

"I'll hold you in $300 bail to keep the peace for six months," the magistrate addressed Haven.

"I can't furnish the bail just now," said the prisoner.

"Have him locked up," interjected Miss Ulmer. The magistrate so ordered.

Walter Cramer has a good position at Baker in a box factory.

J. E. Kennedy of Pendleton, was a Monday visitor.

Mrs. M. L. Morrison and son Claude were Pendleton visitors Monday.

Last Day of study.

Today is the last school day of real study for the high school students of Pendleton. Examinations will begin tomorrow and continue through to next Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday of next week will be spent by the teachers in getting out the report cards and arranging for graduation exercises.

Curiosity Is Punished.
LEEDS, England, May 17.—Albert Bright, 49 years old, an iron merchant of Sheffield, was sentenced to penal servitude for life. Bright was convicted of collecting and attempting to elicit information from workmen employed at an ammunition plant concerning the description of war materials. The prisoner pleaded guilty. The judge in passing sentence said if Bright had not so pleaded and a jury had considered the question whether he intended to help the enemy and had found him guilty he would have been condemned to death.
