freedom and that in this respect that nation is far behind England. On this assumption it would be natural to suppose that such a thing as freedom of the press does not exist in the Fatherland.

Now here is a surprise for you upon this very line: Maximilian Harden, the foremost editor of Germany, writes—and prints in his paper—of President Wilson: "What is certain is that he is a man of high moral and high intellectual rank, a man of whom, if he belonged to us, we might be proud. He demands nothing more or less than that we return in our naval practices to procedure strictly conforming to dictates of humanity and international law."

This German editor in his German paper is doing nothing more nor less than upholding the American side of the submarine controversy. Over here we naturally think this side is right and therefore that Harden is right. But that is not the point. The interesting fact is that an editor in war imperiled Germany is allowed to express his own views. It is evident that upon some points at least German autocracy is not what it is supposed to be and the facts are complimentary to Germany.

SENATOR LODGE'S VIEWS

SENATOR LODGE who was elected as an unpledged delegate-at-large from Massachusetts to the republican national convention believes that Roosevelt will be the nominee. He says the Hughes strength will be at its maximum on the second ballot and that thereafter, if not named on the second ballot, his strength will decline and the colonel's support will grow.

As the Massachusetts senator has been on intimate terms with Roosevelt for many years his statement may be said to represent the Roosevelt view. Offsetting that opinion is the very pronounced belief on the part of certain big leaders that Roosevelt cannot win the nomination.

The situation indicates a close fight and the convention may produce a prolonged contest such as ensued at the Baltimore convention four years ago. If such a fight occurs the outcome may be something wholly unforeseen at this time.

INSURANCE FOR PEACE

GIFFORD PINCHOT, noted conservationist and a very clear headed American citizen despite those who wish to belittle him, returned recently from Europe and is a firm believer in preparedness as insurance for peace.

The East Oregonian has received from Mr. Pinchot a statement of his views on the subject. The following extract seems well worthy of publication:

"You and I are protected by our laws because behind the law there is force. International law has no force behind it. Some day, we hope and intend, it will be made unsafe to break the law of Nations. As yet, however, each Nation must still go unprotected or protect itself. Until the Nations unite together to enforce international law, our best hope for peace lies in making it dangerous for any Nation to attack us.

"You and I belong to a great peace-loving people. We hate war and desire peace. We seek with eagerness for any means that will hasten the coming of permanent peace. We are ready to do everything that is just and honorable to secure it. Doubtless we join with every lover of peace in looking forward to the day when reason and understanding will settle or prevent disputes among the Nations. But the road to peace does not lie through flabby weakness, as the history of China proves, but through self-respecting strength. That is why I believe in National defence. The mere desire for peace, and the best intentions on our part, can not always secure peace. Among nations, as among men, it often takes but one to make a quarrel.

"Last year I was in Belgium. What I saw there I shall never forget. No sacrifice can be too great to prevent our people or any part of them from being ruled by foreign bayonets. Talk is always cheap, but never cheaper than when it sets guesses and wishes against the tremendous facts of the world war.

"Guessing and wishing are no defense. Guessing and wishing can not even keep the peace between our citizens. The force behind the law does that. How then can we trust them to keep the peace between the Nations? I am for preparedness because I believe it offers the best chance to escape war. It is cheap insurance at the price."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Junior Prom, to be given by the high school class of 1917, will draw forth many people this evening to the Eagle-Woodman hall.

Mrs. Laura B. Nash of Pendleton, is a house guest with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Ivanhoe. Incidentally she today attended the Neighborhood club breakfast, she being a past president of that institution.—La Grande Observer.

Dan P. Smythe has returned from a brief visit in Portland

The advent of a new card club into the social life of the city was made last evening when Mr. and Mrs. James Johns, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Aldrich entertained about a dozen young couples at the Johns home on South Garden street. Auction bridge was played during the early part of the evening, honors being won by Mrs. Edmund Mable and Lyman G. Rice. Refreshments were served at a late hour, the hostesses being assisted by Mrs. James Alger Fee and Misses Sophia Bowler and Alice Butler.

The club, which has not yet been definitely christened, will not meet again until the fall season opens. It is planned to meet fortnightly and to close the year with a dancing party for the high score winners. The members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Baer, Mr. and Mrs. Merle R. Chouman, Mr. and Mrs. James Alger Fee, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. James Johns, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mable, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman G. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Sawtelle, Mr.

and Mrs. Osmer E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson.

Grant Marquis of The Dalles, formerly a druggist at Adams, is visiting in the city.

G. E. Stanfield of Echo was up from the west end of the county yesterday.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement.

Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter:—

Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."
 —Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

THE HOME TOWN.

- Some folks leave home for money
- And some leave home for fame.
- Some seek skies always sunny.
- And some depart in shame.
- I care not what the reason.
- Men travel east or west.
- Or what the month or season.
- The home town is the best.
- The home town is the glad town.
- Where something real abides.
- 'Tis not the money-mad town.
- That all its spirits hides.
- Though strangers scoff and flout it.
- And even jeer its name,
- It has a charm about it.
- No other town can claim.
- The home town skies seem bluer.
- Than skies that stretch away.
- The home town friends seem truer.
- And kinder through the day.
- And whether glum or cheery.
- Light hearted or depressed.
- Or struggle-fit or weary,
- I like the home town best.
- Let him who will go wander
- To distant towns to live,
- Of some things I am fonder
- Than all they have to give.
- The gold of distant places
- Could not repay me quite
- For those familiar faces
- That keep the home town bright.
- —Edgar E. Guest in Detroit Free Press.

BADEN-POWELL IS NEITHER PRISONER NOR SHOT AS SPY.

LONDON, May 24.—Writing from the Boy Scout Association, Lieut. Gen. Sir Robert Baden Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement, denies rumors in circulation in the United States that he is a prisoner in the Tower of London and had been shot as a spy.

"I regret that the report that I am sojourning in the Tower of London on the charge of Espionage cannot be correct," he wrote, "as I was taken out and shot over a month ago—according to a Chicago newspaper. I am not clear which country I was spying for but at the moment I am fairly busy on work for Great Britain."
