What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

IT CAN BE DONE.

In fact the Pastime proved it yesterday. Hundreds held spellbound by a human story on the screen...

There is no villain; no vampire woman; no murder by the old toll-gate; no rags-are-royal-rainment when worn for virtue's sake...

Everything the public is supposed to want is absent, yet "Dollars and the Woman," featuring Tom Moore and Ethel Clayton...

In addition, Ham & Bud and the Masked Marvel. Last chance. Pastime today.

PAULINE FREDERICKS, A BARE FOOTED BEAUTY

Starred by Famous Players in Adaptation of "Audrey."

A dishevelled, bare-footed, radiantly happy girl, with hair streaming out behind her, sped madly down the course, easily out-distancing all her competitors...

"Audrey" is distinctly different from any character which Miss Frederick has ever played on the screen before and it is interesting to note that the star herself has declared it to be the one which she has most enjoyed playing...

At the Temple.

"The Woman's Law" is a modern drama, the theme of which is largely built up on the curious (although not probable) theme of a man's physical double...

Ohio Town Is On the Map.

SANDUSKY, O., June 5.—The village of Slyde, 14 miles southwest of this city, was the home not only of the highest ranking officer killed during the civil war but also of the first American killed in the Spanish-American war.

According to Joel Elliott, of Clyde, Mrs. Hattie McPherson, aunt of General McPherson, organized the first Ladies' Aid Society after the civil war began, and it was from the Ladies' Aid Society of the '60s that the Women's Relief Corps of the present day grew.

Elliott says further that Army records at Washington will show that in proportion to population, more men enlisted at Clyde for both the civil and Spanish-American wars than from any other place of its size in the United States.

President Garfield was to have been the principal orator at the unveiling of the McPherson monument when, on Saturday, July 2, 1881, he left the White House to go to the seaside to spend Sunday with his family before proceeding to Ohio, and was shot while waiting for his train.

City Has House Famine.

AKRON, O., June 5.—Because of the influx of workers attracted by good wages in the rubber factories that are crowded with orders, Akron is in the midst of a house famine. Many families are living in tents until new houses can be put up.

Patrolman Pat McGuire has his own way of meeting the situation. He explained in the police court that the reason he arrested six men on charges of vagrancy was to get them a place to sleep. All were newcomers and had jobs but couldn't find rooms.

Mass Said for Irish Dead.

NEW YORK, June 5.—A solemn mass of requiem for the Irishmen who fell in the recent revolt in Ireland or were executed for taking part in it was celebrated in All Saints church. Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians attended.
