K. of P. Entertains Visitors. About 125 Knights of Pythias, many of them from the various lodges over the county, met last evening in the local hall while Damon Lodge No. 4 put on the degree work. Following the work all adjourned to the Kopper Kettle where a splendid banquet was served. J. W. Maloney, grand master of exchequer, presided as toastmaster and John Miller and Mayor Lon Williams of Milton and Mayor J. A. Best and Rev. J. E. Snyder of Pendleton responded to toasts. Miss Mayree Snyder sang several appreciated solos and Miss Alice Doche played several beautiful numbers on the piano. Milton had the largest visiting delegation present and brought a candidate who was given the third degree along with local candidates.

Berlin Calls Landstrum. LONDON, June 6.—A Reuter dispatch from Zurich says that members of the German Landstrum, class of 1917, who are living abroad, have been ordered to return home immediately.

The Landstrum is a home defense force which includes, in addition to trained soldiers between the ages of 17 and 45, all those between the ages of 17 and 39 who have received no military training.

Taft Backs Hughes. CHICAGO, June 6.—Governor Whitman of New York, admitted that the Taft family and fortune are connected with the Hughes campaign. Charles Taft is interested in the campaign, but Whitman was uncertain to what extent. He would not comment on reports that Taft is backing Hughes for revenge on Roosevelt. Whitman assumed that ex-President Taft was in complete sympathy with the political views of his brother.
