SOCIAL PERSONAL

One of the pretty June weddings was that of last evening at which Mrs. Reta E. Wombough of this city, became the bride of William Henderson Bailey of Milton. The nuptials were celebrated at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Raymond on Water street at 7:30 o'clock and many friends were in attendance.

Previous to the wedding Miss Edna Zimmerman sang beautifully, "My Gifts" and was accompanied by Mrs. Edgar Averill. The wedding march was played by Miss Helen Raymond, accompanied on the violin by Miss Margaret Phelps. The bride and groom came down the stairway, at the foot of which were gathered a number of tiny girls and boys, little friends of the bride. They took their place before Rev. Charles Quinney, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, who administered the vows according to the impressive Episcopal ceremony. The bride, who wore a lovely gown of cream voile over cream imported taffeta, was given into the keeping of her husband by Mr. Raymond and little Raymond Rees acted as ring-bearer.

The rooms of the Raymond home were very attractively decorated in roses and other flowers of the season.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held and other friends called. In the receiving line were the bride couple, Mr. and Mrs. R. Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ota of The Dalles. Little Helen Barnhart and Mildred Rogers greeted the guests at the door. Assisting during the evening were Mrs. Charles Greulich, Mrs. H. E. Bickers, Mrs. J. N. Burgess, Mrs. S. A. Newberry, Mrs. Royal Sawtelle and Mrs. Emmett Rees. The wives of Pendleton doctors served refreshments later in the evening and were assisted by the Misses Pauline Rice, Helen Raymond, Margaret Coleworthy, Hester Proctor, Hazel Wyrick, Madeline Burgess, Margaret Phelps and Dorothy Newberry.

The bride has lived in Pendleton for a number of years and has won many friends here and over the county. She has followed the occupation of a professional nurse. Her husband is the proprietor of a paint store in Milton in which city they will make their home.

Miss Harriet Young returned today from Portland where she has been engaged on her final visit of the season with her student class. She will now remain for the summer vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, north of town.—La Grande Observer.

Mrs. Roy Hall and little son were in Pendleton yesterday afternoon enroute to Superior, Montana, to join Mr. Hall after spending four months in Union. Mrs. Hall will be remembered by former University of Oregon students as Miss Pearl Wilbur.

C. L. Lutz, a director in District 27, was in the city yesterday.

George Maurer was down yesterday from his home on Cabbage Hill.

Rue W. McDaniel, press agent for the Ellison-White Chautauqua, arrived in the city yesterday.

ALLIES SEEKING TO PREVENT MEXICAN WAR

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Because they believe German influence has been sought to inflame the Mexican government against the United States representatives of the entente powers are bringing pressure to bear on General Venustiano Carranza in an effort to prevent him from forcing a break with the American government, state department officials admitted the receipt of indirect reports, indicating there was a possibility of the efforts being successful. Representatives of the entente powers say Germany is anxious to see a conflict between the United States and Mexico and South and Central America.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home, I would faint just the same and had the same pains. A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1109 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Explains Need of Good Bodies

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, June 21.—"Man is born the most helpless of animals, but dependence in babyhood is associated with the essentially human characteristics of capacity for progress and of susceptibility and influences of education."

This is the explanation of the special needs of education experienced by all members of the human family, as brought out by Miss Alice Ravenhill, formerly lecturer of Kings College, London, in her series of lectures on the physical development of childhood, which are being delivered at the summer school of the Oregon Agricultural College. The lecturer is a noted international authority on hygiene, child life, eugenics and the forces that shape the development of the child.

Miss Ravenhill has been more significantly honored in the appointment to commissions in various scientific associations by the British government than any other woman. She was especially commissioned by the Royal government as investigator in various European countries. She is the only woman ever to have been made a fellow of the Royal Sanitary Institute and she was appointed university extension lecturer for the universities of London and Cambridge. She was also made a member of the committee in the Eugenic Education Society, in the Child Study Society, and other research working bodies. She is also the author of a number of books on hygiene, child life, and related subjects, and has written many articles for scientific journals. In her work at the summer school Miss Ravenhill is giving two courses of of human life and the physical development of childhood. These lectures include the history of the human race leading with the physical growth and mental development of mankind, the influences upon human nature of hereditary surroundings, occupations and social life, and the development of the instincts and habits of each individual. She explains fully the factors that influence activities of the child and seeks to relate the child's training in home and school to the natural forces operating through the child. That the Oregon teachers appreciate this course is shown by the fact that before the lectures were started, Monday, June 19, more than one hundred teachers had enrolled for the special courses.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND MUST SUPPORT U. S.

PARIS, June 21.—France and England can follow only one policy in Mexico—that is to support loyally any action by the United States in the hope that it will obtain the support of one of the Mexican factions and thus facilitate the pacification of the country.

This was the gist of Paris editorial comment on the Mexican situation, which seems to be nearing a crisis. The Echo De Paris says:

"Wilson's first mistake was to expect gratitude from Carranza. It was a bigger mistake to overlook Mexican hostility to the United States and the impossibility of a weak policy crushing such a feeling. Wilson cannot accept a blow in the face from Carranza after humiliating the kaiser."
