26 PENDLETONIANS GO OUT ON
SPECIAL TRAIN LAST NIGHT FOR BOISE.

With several hundred people at the depot to see them leave, the 26 Pendletonians who enlisted in the Idaho National Guard left for Boise on No. 18 last evening to join Co. E. of Grangeville.

The scene at the depot was of the kind that has not been witnessed in Pendleton since old Co. D left for the Philippines. There were many good-byes said, much handshaking, cheers, laughing, joking and there were tears, too, as mothers, sisters and sweethearts took their farewell of the soldier boys. The members were marched to the train, two abreast, by Sergeant Harry Jacobson just before 5 o'clock. Richard Devine and Henry Boies, both of whom have had military training in college, assisted the sergeant as temporary officers.

A special car was attached to No. 18 for the use of the recruits and they left the city with heads out of the windows and hats waving. They went straight through to Boise and will be reported in today. Sergeant Jacobson planned to stop at La Grande and Baker to pick up additional recruits.

The Pendleton boys were all in high spirits when they heard the news that all militia had been ordered to the Mexican border.

It is authoritatively estimated that more than 2,000,000 women and girls have come into the labor market since the beginning of the war.

Salvage of Bear Abandoned.
EUREKA, Cal., June 24.—Salvage of the $1,000,000 steamer Bear, which went ashore June 14 on Sugar Loaf reef, was abandoned when heavy seas drove the derelict 50 feet inshore and strained the hull to the breaking point.

The underwriters have not given up hope of saving the vessel, but admitted that the situation was serious and that a new plan of operation would have to be devised for getting her afloat.

When the seas swept the steamer further inshore the hull opened up in places, water came in rapidly and soon extinguished all fires. The cargo still in the vessel, it was stated by the salvagers, was damaged by water. Much of the cargo was jettisoned and the beach is strewn with paper, flour, cheese and other merchandise.

The salvagers began stripping the vessel to save whatever possible in case the break-up becomes complete.

Fireworks are said to have been first used in Europe in the city of Florence in 1360.

Carranza Will Arrest Catholics.

EL PASO, June 24.—A copy of a message was brought to El Paso from Juarez which is said authoritatively to have been sent to all commanding officials throughout the revolution-riddled republic.

The message reads: "At the outbreak of hostilities with the United States, arrest all Catholics, clerics and other enemies of the constitutional government."

It was asserted by local Mexican officials that the rebels of Coahuila, Durango and parts of Zacatecas and Chihuahua had joined cause with the government.

Dispatches from Chihuahua said General Trevino still was treating with the rebels of Southern Chihuahua and northern Durango.

A. A. Derrah and his wife of Peeking, the smallest town in Maine, were elected to five offices at the annual town meeting. Mr. Derrah was chosen town clerk, constable, auditor and transient officer, while Mrs. Derrah was elected to the school committee.

The American hen produced during the last census year nearly 20,000,000 eggs and the product has been increasing since that time.

lands, helping the negroes and whites of some of the southern states.

Mrs. H. H. Hubbert read a splendid paper on the boys and girls of the churches and how to interest them in missions.

Mrs. M. H. Rice of Milton, showed the value of missionary literature in a well written paper. The message from the state officer, Mrs. Kurtz, who very inspiring and gave those present a higher ideal of missionary work. She emphasized the point that in interesting people in missions and in saving the world individuals must work for individuals. The convention was entertained by a solo by Mrs. W. B. Scott of Athena, who sang "The Lord is My Light," and by a reading.

The Bible school session of the afternoon was opened by a devotional service. George Gierking of Athena, leading. Miss Ruth Copeland delighted all with her solo, "Face to Face."

The work of the afternoon was such as to be a great help to Bible school workers. It was ably conducted by Mrs. Clara G. Esson of Forest Grove, state superintendent of Bible school work.

The first address on the evening program was by J. A. Lord of Milton, after a great song service led by M. Howard Fagan of Albany. Mr. Lord's topic was "Behold I Make All Things New." He spoke radically against conventionalism in religion, making the audience laugh repeatedly by showing up the absurdity of such conventionalism. He said, "Conventionalism is the biggest devil in the world against religion. The coming of Christ brought in a new freedom and a new order of religion, doing away with the bondage under the old law of Moses and the old ritualistic forms. No one can put the new forms of Christianity into the old hide-bound forms of Moses."

Archibald McLean, president of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, next spoke of the work of the society. Mr. McLean has been in the service of the board for over 34 years.

He has seen the foreign society grow from a struggling effort with only a very few out-stations to a great organization with 200 missionaries, 1000 native workers, 113 schools and colleges with orphanages and hospitals. In his address Mr. McLean presented foreign missions in a way that gave the most thoughtful something to think about. In reviewing the fields where the society was at work, he came to China, remarking that China presented the greatest opportunity to the church since Pentecost. He spoke of Tibet as being the farthest mission station, along the far-flung battle line of the church, being the greatest reach of the gospel in 2000 years. His address was also a plea that the graves of the fallen on the field should be remembered as a strengthening hand in our work.

M. L. Peters sang that beautiful solo, "That Sweet Story of Old," during the evening session.

The sessions of today are under the auspices of the Eugene Bible University in the morning and the Christian Endeavor societies this afternoon. Tonight A. M. Meldrum of Spokane, will deliver a sermon followed by E. S. Muckley of Portland. The convention will close in a blaze of glory tomorrow. A great Bible school, to begin at 9:45 a. m., will be led by Mrs. Clara G. Esson. This will be followed at 11 by a sermon by A. M. McLean of Cincinnati. In the afternoon E. S. Muckley will deliver the communion sermon, following which the commu-ion will be observed. At night there will be a model C. E. prayer meeting at 8:30, and a sermon again at 8:00 by A. M. McLean.

Convention Notes.

Great dinner the ladies of the local auxiliary of the C. W. B. M. served yesterday.

The auxiliary of the C. W. B. M. in tone is the only society so far to achieve the honor roll.

The registration shows an attendance of 67 outside of Portland. Athena is present in force with a delegation of 17, led by their pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Errett.

Davis Errett will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. C. F. Swander is to assist at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The Pendleton church has received many compliments on the way they have handled the convention and for the hospitality they have shown.
