SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ambrose, accompanied by their two daughters and their son, are visiting a short time with Mrs. E. C. Anibal. The party is en the way to Idaho by automobile from Yoncalla, Ore., the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose. They contemplate returning here in September to take in the Round-Up. Very disagreeable weather has been encountered so far in their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Hoffman, recently married, stopped over here today on their honeymoon trip for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor. Mrs. Hoffman was formerly Miss Ada Taylor, a niece of Mr. Taylor. They were married in Kansas City and are touring the northwest before returning to St. Louis where they will make their home.

Miss Eleanor Ruby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ruby, former Pendletonian, yesterday became the bride of F. L. Privett of Portland. The Oregonian in speaking of the nuptials, says in part:

The other wedding was a notable event at the A. C. Ruby farm on the Base Line road. It was an elaborate affair, and was attended by a number of out-of-town people, as well as Portland residents. The bride, Miss Eleanor Ruby, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ruby, and the bridegroom, F. L. Privett, is a well-known business man of this city. The bride was attended by Miss Kathryn Duerr, of New Martinsville, W. Va., as maid of honor. The Misses Linda Frost and Leista Ruby, a sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. W. W. Dugan, Jr., was best man and Rev. S. E. DuBois officiated. An altar was built in one end of the drawing room, made of palms and roses. Leading the way to the altar from the staircase were two little girls, Myrtle Clark, of Salt Lake City, and Helen Harlow of Bellingham, Wash. They carried shepherd's crooks. They were followed by six girls carrying broad white satin ribbons, with which they formed an aisle for the bride party. The ribbon bearers were Misses Mildred Bartholomew, Annie Ryan, Anna Dugan, Winnie Privett, Miriam Iberg and Margaret Dullops. Little Mary Bella Billion was ring bearer. Miss Lucille Kunz, of Salem, played the wedding march, and Alfred Schramm, also of Salem, sang. A general color scheme of pink, lavender and white was developed with a mass of beautiful flowers.

The second afternoon of Mrs. Samuel P. Sturgis at home for Mrs. J. J. Hartman Sturgis and Mrs. Cyrus Cresswell Sturgis yesterday proved as delightful as the first. Ten tables played at bridge up until the refreshment hour, honors being won by Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mrs. Laura Nash and Mrs. Doss Swearingen. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Royal M. Sawtelle, Mrs. George Hartman and the Misses Beth and Beulah Smith.

Mrs. H. C. Hays was very pleasantly surprised last evening by a jolly crowd of Maccabees who called at her home, corner Blaine and Wilson streets, unannounced after first gathering at the home of Mrs. Rogers. The event was planned as a birthday compliment and was attended by eighteen Maccabees and a number of other friends. The evening was spent with music and readings and at 10 o'clock Mrs. Dave Rogers superintended the spreading of a luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Jewett. Mrs. Hays was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Budd Scott, who was formerly employed with the Troy Laundry, but who has been in Vancouver, Wash., for the past month, returned yesterday morning to Pendleton. During his absence he was married and his bride will join him here Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur G. Means and baby returned to Emmatilla on the evening train yesterday.

ATHLETIC GIRLS TO MEET PICKED LOCAL TEAM THIS EVENING

GIRLS ARE GOOD PLAYERS AND AN EXCITING CONTEST IS EXPECTED HERE.

This evening at 8 o'clock a picked Pendleton team will play Carlton's Athletic Girls of San Francisco, at Round-up Park and an interesting contest is anticipated. That the girls can put up a stiff game of baseball is evidenced by their record along the line. With the assistance of a male batter they have been defeating some of the best amateur teams in the state. Bill McGarrigle has gathered together the best players in Pendleton to give battle to the Amazons. He will do the twirling himself and Gunner Peterson will receive. Byron Gumm will be on first, Ralph Knight on second, Emil Siebert on third and Eubanks on short. McGinnis, Friedley and Webb will hold down the outfield berths.
