WILL SLOAN'S LINIMENT RELIEVE PAIN?
Try it and see—one application will prove more than a column of claims. James J. Ferguson, Phila., Pa., writes: "I have had wonderful relief since I used Sloan's Liniment on my knees. To think after all these years of pain one application gave me relief. Many thanks for what your remedy has done for me." Don't keep on suffering, apply Sloan's Liniment where your pain is and notice how quick you get relief. Penetrates without rubbing. Buy it at any Drug Store. 25c—Adv.

Horse Theft is Alleged.
THE DALLES, Ore., July 10.—Geo. Holt, 15 years old, of Scotts Mills, Clackamas county, was arrested here by Sheriff Levi Christian on information furnished by Constable D. E. Frost of Oregon City.

Holt is alleged, rode away from Scotts Mills on a horse which was the property of Floyd Ferguson. Arriving in Portland he traded Ferguson's horse for another. When caught on the Columbia Highway near The Dalles he was endeavoring to trade the Portland horse for a third.

LADY RICHARDSON'S HUSBAND FALLS IN WAR

LADY CONSTANCE AND SIR EDWARD RICHARDSON.

NEW YORK, July 7.—One of the latest victims of the war is Sir Edward Austen Stewart Richardson, husband of Lady Constance Stewart Richardson, who cast aside the traditions of British aristocracy to which she belonged to make public dancing her profession.

Sir Edward, who was a Scotch baronet and a captain in the "Black Watch," was at the front in France and was wounded in the recent drive of the British forces against the German positions in Flanders. He died of his wounds.

He was born in 1872 and married Lady Constance, a daughter of the late Earl of Cromartie and a sister of the present Countess of Cromartie in 1894. As Lady Constance MacKenzie she was well known as an athlete and for her keen interest in all kinds of sports as well as for her eccentricities.

She gave up athletics for dancing and caused much comment at the beginning of her professional career by appearing in an English music hall in a barefoot dance. Afterwards she appeared in the United States, giving the same dance.

limiting the amount of liquor one may have in their possession applies to persons having it for sale or barter. The court adds that the statute is ambiguous and where a criminal and innocent construction may be placed the latter construction must apply.

Judge Fullerton says the act is written in plain and mandatory terms when he dissents from his associates.
