THE TRAIL MAKERS.
 Let others sing of those who've won
 Full hoard of virgin gold
 I strike the lyre for those Who've none.
 But yet are strong and bold—
 Who've blazed the trails
 Through a pathless waste
 And on the world's new chart
 Have traced
 The lines that lead where the Treasure's placed,
 And all their secrets told.
 So while others sing of the chosen few
 Who o'er the Fates prevail,
 I will sing of the many, staunch
 and true,
 Whose brave hearts never quail—
 Who with the dauntless spirit
 of pioneers
 A state are building for the coming years,
 Their sole reward their loved one's tears—
 The men who blaze the trail!
 —Sam C. Dunham

THE PACIFISTS
 TRYING to be scornful an eastern newspaper refers to the democratic party as the "pacifist party." Just how much reproach is carried in the fling depends upon the meaning of "pacifist."
 If all who do not wish to see the country involved in war or have no overconsuming desire to face bullets are pacifists it might be good political strategy for the democrats to fly the peaceful flag. Down on the border there are some 50 or 100 regiments of national guardsmen and as a rule they are recruited to about one half the war strength.
 Though earnestly calling for recruits these regiments are not getting them very fast. At the present time out of some one hundred million people in the United States about 98,900,000 have entirely refrained from going to the front. The figures may mean nothing but it is not far fetched to say they indicate

Folsom Is Quitting the Furniture and House Furnishing Business every article going at cost

Will Continue Undertaking
 My object in retiring from the furniture business is that I may give my undivided attention to undertaking. I will continue my undertaking parlors in their present location—the corner room of the Masonic building—and will spare no expense nor effort in my endeavor to give Pendleton one of the most modern undertaking parlors in the inland empire.

MUST GET OUT THIS MONTH
 Owners of the building advise me that Conroy has leased the store room and must be given possession this month. Help me get rid of my stock and I will give you the greatest snaps in high-grade furniture and house furnishings that you have ever known, or ever will.
Store Crowded Every Day
 Thursday Will Be Wood Bed Stead and Baby Carriage Day—DON'T MISS IT

ALL SALES CASH ONLY
 As I am retiring from the furniture business all sales must be for spot cash. Prices have been slaughtered and sunk to bed rock. The highest price you can pay is the actual cost of an article and in many instances far below cost. You cannot lose, even if you should buy with your eyes shut, for everything represents a bargain.

that the sentiment for war is not entirely unanimous. However, if "pacifist" applies to people who are willing to sacrifice important national rights or the country's honor for the sake of peace the term is not applicable to Woodrow Wilson and his backers.
 The McLeMORE "scuttle" resolution that would have given in to Germany on the submarine question developed that fact. The administration was against that resolution and it was tabled by democratic votes. The majority of republicans in the house, headed by Minority Leader Mann voted for the resolution. In other words when some real business with a powerful nation was on tap the republican party, as represented in congress was the party of the "white feather."
 Three weeks ago when the Mexican situation looked ominous and the national guard was called to the colors for anticipated action of what political faith were the newspapers, some in Oregon, that showed a saffron streak by assailing the president "for getting the country into war?"

 For anti-Wilson newspapers to attack the president as a pacifist is good.
WARDEN OSBORNE'S VINDICATION
 THE reappointment of T. M. Osborne as Warden of Sing Sing Prison ends a most remarkable incident in politics, criminal procedure and reform movements.
 When Mr. Osborne resigned as Warden some months ago he was under indictment for a number of grave offenses. His enemies predicted not only that his ideas on penology would be hopelessly discredited, but that Mr. Osborne would be disgraced and compelled to occupy a cell along with his convict proteges.
 The charges were shown to be the result of perjury and a conspiracy engineered by the old prison ring, furious and unreconciled because of the reform of the prison. Mr. Osborne's triumphant vindication in court is now made complete by his restoration to the wardenship. The demand for his reinstatement shows the tremendous impression his methods have made on the New York public. He resumes with increased, not diminished, prestige, his former duties at the most famous prison in America and doubtless also with increased sophistication respecting the possibilities of political intrigues, which he apparently found a greater problem than the reclamation of men with criminal records.
 It may easily be believed that his vindication will mark an era in prison management in the United States. Missouri especially is in need of the influence of his intelligent and humane ideas.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

land and sister submersibles the Germans will now find that our supplies are for sale to them as well as to the allies. News stories from Baltimore state that already a great quantity of rubber and other material needed for war purposes is piled on the dock awaiting shipment. In other words Germany finds this country neutral when once it can be reached and the United States was not responsible for the fact that for many months German merchant ships were unable to come to our ports.
 For their determination to set up traffic with this country by use of submarines and for their success thus far the Germans are to be congratulated. It is the energetic, manly way to overcome the British blockade. The claim made until now by pro-Germans in this country that we should not sell war supplies to the allies because Germany did not have access to our markets was "baby talk." It was such because it asked for partisanship not neutrality from the United States and asked from this country a policy to which Germany would have vociferously objected had the situation on the ocean been reversed.
 One result of the Deutschland's cruise will be a vindication of the American policy regarding sales to belligerents. It will now be borne home that Germany's failure to obtain supplies in the past was due to German weakness on the sea not to any fault on the part of the United States.
 It is always well to eradicate flies and dirt whether there is an infantile paralysis epidemic or not.
 Britannia rules the waves; Germania waives the rules.
 From a roadside viewpoint the crop outlook is far from worse.

DERELICT SIGHTED.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Floating bottom up in Mexican waters a short distance south of the tip of Lower California is the wreck of a good sized vessel, according to a report brought by the steamer Paradise Captain Fagerstrom, from the lower South American coast. The wreck, which was sighted in latitude 21 degrees 2 minutes north and longitude 168 degrees 11 minutes west, was copper bottomed, but the hull was not high enough out of the water to reveal the name. The derelict was drifting north by northwest.
 While Benson Nizgin, aged 15, of Vineland, N. J. was examining a revolver, the weapon was discharged, the bullet going through his hand. The ball struck a porcelain wash basin, ran around the bowl and lodged in the elbow of the same arm.

LAW POINTS RAISED BY U-BOAT HELD TO BE WELL EXPLAINED
 WASHINGTON DOES NOT EXPECT ANY DIFFICULTY OVER SUBMARINE HERE.
 WASHINGTON, July 11.—Federal officials believed that the question of international law raised by the arrival of the German super-submarine Deutschland might be soon cleared away.
 A preliminary report in the course of the day from Collector Ryan at Baltimore indicated that the vessel was purely a merchant ship, devoid of any peculiar status because of the unprecedented manner of her trip across the Atlantic. Should this indication be borne out by the more detailed examination that will be made officials see no reason why diplomatic complications should develop. There was no prospect that the allied governments were preparing to protest in the event that the Deutschland is held to be a merchantman.

 The navy department detailed Captain C. F. Hughes to aid the Baltimore collector in examining the submarine.
 After experiments covering several years rubber trees have been successfully transplanted from the banks of the Amazon to points in the interior of Brazil.

John Philip Sousa
 by Walt Mason

The March King's stately name is known wherever music holds its own, wherever drums and cymbals throb, and orchestras hold down their job. A Sousa march—just mention that, and mark how people smile thereat; they know what Sousa's music is; it's melody without the fizz; it's full of energy and pep, and makes old graybeards dance a step; they hear the sound of marching men, of chargers trotting down the gien, the shock of battle and the roar, and billows beating on the shore. And Sousa, when he would compose that music which the whole world knows, fills up his pipe with good old "Tux" (name 'o' other brands, and he says, "Shucks!"). Tuxedo is the smoke of men who do big things with lyre or pen, who make the old world's wheels go round, whose names will down the ages sound.
