MILITARY TRAINING COURSE AT STANFORD

MILITARY TRAINING CAMP, Monterey, Cal., July 19.—Despite the anti-military and peace propaganda of Dr. David Starr Jordan, president emeritus of Leland Stanford, military preparations will be taught at Stanford both in theory and practice.

Much amusement over this cost was displayed in camp today following receipt of orders from the war department detailing Captain S. A. Purviance, U. S. A. retired, commanding civilian company K, as professor of military science and tactics at Stanford.

Captain Henry B. Casey, camp ordnance officer, whose home station is in San Francisco, has been ordered to the Mexican border as quartermaster of the Fifth provisional regiment.

OFF TO RESCUE EXPLORERS
PUNTA ARESAS, Chile, July 21.

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON, the British antarctic explorer, who, on returning from the south polar zone last April, left twenty-two of his companions on Elephant Island, sailed from this port on a small schooner to rescue them. If conditions are favorable Sir Ernest expects to relieve the marooned explorers and to return to Chile in four weeks.
