What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

RAVISHING, BEAUTIFUL JOSE COLLINS AT PASTIME TODAY

Comis Opera star is seen for First Time in Pictures.

"A Woman's Honor" will be presented, with the new Fox star, Jose Collins. This will be your first chance to see this ravishing beautiful comic opera star. The synopsis in brief:

Helena, a beautiful girl of the Italian mountains, is in love with Roberto, a poor but honest man. According to Italian laws two ceremonies must be performed before a marriage is legal—the civil and the church. As Roberto is about to depart for America, where he expects to make his fortune, they have the civil ceremony performed, leaving the church ceremony to be performed upon his return from America. Roberto obtains work in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. He is there but a short time until Helena decides to join him. At Naples she misses her steamer and at the instigation of Tchetti, a wealthy rogue she is inveigled to the house of La Terribola where she is kept a prisoner and abused and wronged. After her ruin she swears revenge. Three people cause the downfall of this beautiful peasant. But she wreaks a dramatic revenge.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR HAZEL DAWN

Superb in Famous Players "The Feud Girl."

Hazel Dawn, "The Pink Lady" of the screen, who has since her appearances in the Famous Players productions become one of the best beloved photoplay favorites in the world, returns to the Alta in that leading feature-producing company's current release on the Paramount program, "The Feud Girl" in the role of a resolute, courageous and thoroughly lovable mountain maid whose stout heart is too proud to allow her to bend even before the imperious will of her father, Miss Dawn wins the sympathy of her audience as even she has never done before.

She is the daughter of a rugged mountaineer, the head of the Haddon clan, and she has been reared with one thought uppermost in her mind—the hatred of the Bassett clan, with whom her people have fought for many years over the possession of Iron Mountain, which lies between them. This fierce antipathy for the Bassetts is the only evil thought that ever crosses Nell's mind. She is naturally of a sunny disposition, a typical child of the mountains, who loves all nature—except the Bassetts.

Aside from the exceptionally clever and appealing work which Miss Dawn does in this thrilling story, the production has many points of exceptional interest. In order to get just the right atmosphere for the tale, Miss Dawn, Director Frederick Thompson and a company of fifteen players went to the northern boundary of Georgia, in the wildest mountain district of that state where they spent six weeks in a land that has never before been photographed on the screen.
