OUT OF THE HITHERWHERE.
Out of the hitherwhere into the yon—
The land that the Lord's love rests upon;
Where one may rely on the friends he meets,
And the smiles that greet him along the streets;
Where the mother that left you years ago
Will lift the hands that were folded so,
And put them about you, with all the love
And tenderness you are dreaming of.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

THEY LEARN TO TEACH BY TEACHING

In an editorial on the subject of normal schools the Portland Journal on Monday said:
It should be the ambition of Oregon to employ none but trained teachers in the public schools. The employment of untrained

A GREAT AID TO THE WILSON CAMPAIGN

WHEN a candidate makes an unfair or untruthful criticism of his opponent the charges react upon the accuser; therefore Mr. Hughes is coming in for some just censure for his acceptance speech and it does not all come from democratic sources.

No fair minded person could read the Hughes speech without resentment over his criticism of the Wilson policies; "It is a dismal record to those who believe in Americanism," said he referring to our foreign affairs under Wilson.

Is it "dismal" that President Wilson has so guided the destinies of this nation that 100,000,000 people are free from war and its horrors; that the nations men are at work and its women are happy in their homes?

Did President Wilson make a "dismal record" when he called the greatest military nation of the world sharply to time for submarine outrages against our people and by his vigorous diplomacy caused that nation to abandon the policy complained of?

Is it "dismal" that the president is working out the Mexican problem without resort to war; would it be better if our brave boys on the border were on the fighting line instead of in peaceful patrol work? Let those who have sons and husbands and fathers give answer.

Mr. Hughes falsely characterized the Wilson foreign policy. It is not a failure but a brilliant record of achievement. The facts show it and the people understand. Whoever claims otherwise goes not by the record but by blinded partisan prejudice.

When he discussed economic subjects Mr. Hughes was equally unfair to his opponent. He says we are living in a "fool's paradise" and our prosperity is due to the war. He did not say what every businessman knows that one big reason for this paradise is the fact that at its outset the Wilson administration enacted the federal reserve act that makes our banks panic proof and safeguards the business of the country. Our financial strength is at the bottom of our good times and for that we have Woodrow Wilson to thank.

Mr. Hughes was illogical as to the European situation after the war. He says Europe will be tremendously efficient and we should beware. How so when millions will be in their graves, more millions crippled for life, industries shattered, homes and cities destroyed and every nation burdened with a war debt to pay? The Hughes view seems to be that a great and devastating war will enrich and strengthen the nations involved, instead of steeping them in misery and ruin. His logic is not sound. If we could cope with Europe when Europe was well, why should we shiver in fear when Europe is sick?

If the Hughes acceptance speech is read and digested in the light of the facts in the case it will have a great influence toward the reelection of President Wilson.

teachers is an injustice to the taxpayers and the children. It is a mere statement of obvious fact to say that they can not earn their money, no matter how sincerely they may try, because they do not know how. Nobody would think of employing a plumber who had not mastered his trade, and teaching is a far more difficult trade than plumbing. It requires both wide knowledge and technical expertness. It is an unforgivable wrong to children to entrust their education to incapable persons.

It may be further said that the most valuable part of a normal course consists in the practice teaching work under experienced critics. Such work requires that there be grade pupils available for the normal students. To give the continuous practice teaching recommended for standard normal schools by the United States bureau of education requires that a large number of pupils be available. The bureau very strongly opposes the location of schools in little towns. It favors the very course called for by the constitutional amendment for a normal school at Pendleton and the people of this state will generally favor the plan when the facts are fully explained.

A BOLD ADVENTURE

THE most dramatic incident of the war, from the American standpoint, occurred when the Deutschland departed yesterday afternoon on its dash for home.

Jules Verne never wrote of anything more thrilling than this. The world's mightiest merchant submarine is playing "darebase" with eight British warships lying off our coast and the stakes are life and death.

If the Deutschland wins it is a German triumph; if she loses Captain Koenig and his crew go to watery graves.

When men play the game that Captain Koenig follows their boldness commands respect. Many who do not espouse the German cause will wish him well.

BOTH CANDIDATES FOR SUFFRAGE

THE declaration of Justice Hughes on the subject of equal suffrage is most welcome and it places both candidates in the light of suffrage advocates. President Wilson long ago declared for this reform and announced his views when he personally voted for the equal suffrage amendment in New Jersey.

The difference in the methods advocated by the two men is academic rather than material. Mr. Hughes is for a national amendment though his party is not committed to that course. President Wilson advises state action along the line that has been so successfully waged in the west. It will lead to the same end as a national amendment because a national amendment must be voted on by each state separately. A state that will not vote for suffrage for its own women will not vote for the national amendment.

When the money has been received from the sale of the O. & C. grant land the interest payments from the irreducible school fund will be much larger.

Bill Hanley says Hughes is not a necessity and he believes in hanging on to a good president when we have one; it is a common line of talk these days.

It is better for the Oregon guardsmen to be facing physical examinations than enemy machine guns.

Hughes is the candidate of criticism; Wilson's record is one of performance.

With wheat worth above $1.70 in Liverpool the price of $5 cents here seems low.

There is a noise like a big Round-Up this year.

DISTRICT SHIVERS IN COLD

Country Around Long Creek, Oregon, Attacked by Frost.

BAKER, Ore., Aug. 2.—If some one could bundle the Long Creek district of Grant county and ship it to Chicago he would make a hit. They have frost in the Long Creek neighborhood and the birds are preparing for an early winter.

Two nights last week the frost was so heavy that every bit of unprotected vegetation was damaged. There will be very little corn raised there and it is feared the potato crop will be short. It has been so cold that birds of all kinds are gathering as in the fall of the year preparatory to migrating.

Like A Boy at 50 Bubbling Over With Vitality—Taking Iron Did It

Doctor Says Nuxated Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders—Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Nervous Folks 200 Per Cent in Two Weeks Time.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 20 he was in bad health; at 16 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved, who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the

"I saw a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and I sent for a free sample. The sample was so good that I bought some more. In three weeks I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. E. M. Spencer, 1025 Santa Fe Drive, Denver, Colo., July 23, 1915.
