PROGRESSIVES REFUSE TO ENDORSE HUGHES

Washington Bull Moose Hold President Wilson has been Progressive.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 2.—The progressive party of Washington in mass convention decided Saturday to maintain the state and county organizations and to support the efforts of Matthew Hale, acting National chairman, to preserve the National organization, and to induce candidates to file for the progressive nomination for state and county offices. A resolution was adopted providing that if progressives do not file for county and state offices an examination be made by party leaders of the records of other candidates with a view to recommending to progressive voters that they personally support such candidates.

The convention took no action toward endorsing a presidential candidate, leaders urging that such a question should be left to the discretion of the individual voter. If a progressive candidate is not nominated, "If we have no National ticket, every progressive has the right to vote on presidential candidates as he pleases," said Walter J. Thompson, of Tacoma. "It would be unwise to offer the support of this meeting to Hughes. Wilson has given us a lot of progressive legislation. Hanley, the choice of the prohibitionists, is progressive."

DISINHERITED VANDERBILTS DO THEIR DUTY

Mrs. CORNELIUS VANDERBILT Major CORNELIUS VANDERBILT

Here are two photographs to show what the Vanderbilt family is doing for the army of the United States in the crisis with Mexico. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt is very busy caring for the helpless widows of national guardsmen. She has kept many of them from actual suffering. Major Cornelius Vanderbilt, her husband, is on the Texas border with General O'Ryan, who is in command of the New York state troops. When young Vanderbilt in 1886 married Grace Wilson, his father, Cornelius, disinherited him. He didn't like the new Mrs. Vanderbilt. But the two are the only persons of the family of New York millionaires who have been heard of in connection with the nation's need.

ORANGES AND LEMONS THE ONLY FRESH FOOD

Deutschland Crew Guarded Against Mal-Nutrition by Supply of "Vitamines."

The fact that the only fresh food that the famous German undersea liner Deutschland carried on its recent pioneering voyage to America was oranges and lemons, may have a bearing on some recent experiments in food values that may change the diet of the world.

Noted scientists, among them eminent Germans, have practically established the fact that certain food substances called "vitamines" are not only necessary to life and the proper development of the body cells, but also serve to prevent diseases due to mal-nutrition.

It has been shown that several of the staple foods of today, because of the modern methods used in preparing them for the market, are entirely lacking in vitamins, but that oranges and lemons are plentifully supplied with vitamins of a very hardy type.

It is said oranges and lemons were chosen for the Deutschland's officers and crew to balance the diet and supply the beautiful live freshness of these fruit juices.

Experiments with animals of several kinds have proved that the juices of certain fresh fruits and vegetables contain revivifying properties. On certain diets, lacking the juices, the animals have died. Other animals about to die for the lack of this peculiar "substance" have immediately returned to normal on the injection of the juice.

A box of Sunkist oranges and a box of Sunkist lemons was presented to the captain and crew of the famous U-boat for the return trip.

WILL SLOAN'S LINIMENT RELIEVE PAIN?

Don't keep on suffering, apply Sloan's Liniment where your pain is and notice how quick you get relief. Penetrates without rubbing. Buy it at any Drug Store. 25c.—Adv.

Progressives Meet to Consider Placing a National Ticket

PARKER DECLARES BULL MOOSE WILL NOT ENDORSE EITHER WILSON OR HUGHES.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—The progressive national conference met at noon. John M. Parker, the progressive vice presidential nominee, said the conference must decide whether to place a national ticket in the field. He said "We won't endorse Wilson or Hughes." It was suggested that the progressives concentrate their fight in the doubtful states, elect the presidential electors and swing their votes to the candidate making the most progressive concessions. The conference adjourned from one thirty until three. The leaders were conferring.
