NEWS OF PENDLETON

Admitted to Hospital.
Wilbur Mollman of Baker, has been admitted to the state hospital.

Few at Hot Lake.
Carl Hansen, well known farmer, returned last night from Hot Lake where he has been for the past week. He reports a small number now at the Lake.

Registered in Portland.
Among the Pendleton people registered in Portland at the Buyers' Week convention yesterday, were Mrs. F. E. Cohn, Delma Powell, Dairy Mason, Mrs. Rose Campbell and Maud Crawford.

Ringold to Take Vacation.
Fire Chief W. E. Ringold was granted a vacation of two weeks by the city council last night. During his absence Assistant Chief J. A. Gibson will be acting chief. Mr. Ringold will probably leave for the mountains August 15.

Cemetery is Beautified.
Councilman H. J. Taylor, chairman of the cemetery committee, reported to the council last night that the trees and roses set out at the cemetery this year are growing nicely. Only 12 roses out of 220 bushes set out have been lost. The roses are planted along a roadway a mile long.

Motor to Colorado.
Mr. and Mrs. William Stiles and daughter, passed through Pendleton this morning in a machine. They are en route to Colorado by the way of Salt Lake from Port Townsend, Wash. A good deal of bad road is reported between The Dalles and Pendleton.

Dye Shortage Here.
Should one wish to have dyed one of their last year's shirts or skirts they might meet with considerable difficulty. One man yesterday found it impossible to have a shirt dyed in the city because of the shortage of dyestuffs. The cause is the European war cutting off the source of supply.

Wants Board Signs Removed.
An ordinance to require the removal of all board signs over the sidewalks in the business section of the city will be introduced at the next meeting of the council. Provided the ordinance is passed, only electric signs, approved by the council, will be allowed in the business section. City Attorney Alger Fee will draw up an ordinance this week to submit to the council.

Trees Bloom Second Time.
Fruit trees are blooming in Pendleton a second time this year. A peculiar sight is the sight of second blossoms and at the same time appear on a crab apple tree in the yard of Councilman E. J. Murphy on the north side. Mr. Murphy says he has seen this phenomenon occur only twice or three times in Pendleton. Locust trees are likewise showing a second bloom. The coincidence is not uncommon in the Willamette valley.

New Yard Engine Needed.
The likelihood of an extra yard engine in the Pendleton yards is being talked of in railroad circles. It is said that at the present time there is an extra spurt in business due largely to grain shipments and another engine to handle the local yard work is deemed a probable necessity. The crew for the additional engine will likely be recruited from La Grande—La Grande Observer.

Returns from Lake.
Moss H. Thompson, former veteran Pendleton man, who returned last night from Hot Lake, says that he was benighted by the trip. Mr. Thompson resided in Pendleton for 23 years, leaving here about 16 years ago and going to California. For the past year he has been living in Roseburg. He declares that it seems impossible that one can now make a trip to Lehman Springs and back in a day.

Silver Medal Contest.
At the Christian church this evening a silver medal matrons contest will be held under the auspices of the Y. C. T. U., the contestants being ladies from Milton. Those who will participate in the contest are Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. J. B. Gills, Mrs. H. S. Shankle, Mrs. T. A. Williams and

Mrs. Eva Sewell. Mrs. J. Cannana of Milton will give a reading while the judges are deliberating upon the choice of the winners in the contest. A humorous reading will also be given by Mrs. Adah Lash Rose and musical numbers will be given by local musicians. The program is to start at 8 o'clock.

Admitted to Hospital.
Miss Jessie Fisher of The Dalles has been received at the State Hospital for treatment.

To Montana on Business.
C. Walstrom left this afternoon for a business trip to eastern Montana in the interest of E. L. Burroughs. He will be gone several days.

To Give Melon Feast.
Epulis and Montromery this morning purchased a large 12 pound watermelon from Gray Brothers. A number have been invited in this afternoon to partake of the feast.

Happy Canyon Meeting.
A meeting of the board of directors of Happy Canyon has been called for this afternoon at 4:30 for the purpose of discussing plans for the 1916 show.

Take Out Building Permit.
Dunham, Brownlow & Payne have taken out a building permit to put in a new front at the Central Market and repair the interior. The building is owned by Mrs. N. Berkeley.

Asks for Sidewalk.
L. E. Kaiser appeared before the council last night, asking for a cross sidewalk on Willow street across Tustin, running east and west. The matter was referred to the street committee.

To Make Surveys Here.
Engineer A. H. Holgren of the United States Coast Geodetic survey, passed through Pendleton this morning for Walla Walla in an auto truck of the department. Altitude surveys will be made in the Blue mountains.

Head Buyer for Grain Agency.
N. A. Leach, formerly a resident of Weston and well known locally, is now the head buyer for the Kerr-Gifford grain agency of Portland and yesterday purchased about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat. Mr. Leach was formerly representative of the company in the Heppner country.

Moose Organizer Here.
B. P. Argo, organizer for the Moose lodge, is in Pendleton preparing for a campaign to revive and enlarge the local lodge of that order. It is the intention to add several hundred members to the lodge and a meeting will be held this evening to discuss plans for the campaign.

Special Picnic Rate.
A special round trip rate of one dollar has been made for the O.-W. R. & N. picnic which is to be held at Gibbon on the 17th. Anyone, whether employee of the railroad or not, can make the trip and will be made welcome. A special train is to leave Umatilla at 7 in the morning, arriving at Reith at 8:30 and at Pendleton at 8:40.

Boys Old Toll House.
Edmund Mable manager of the P. T. & T. Co., has purchased the house standing on the lot at the corner of Water and College streets upon which Mrs. P. D. Tall of Spokane intends putting up a modern apartment house. He will move the house to his lot on Lewis street and convert it into a home for his family. The house has stood at its present location for many years but is still in good condition. Oscar Brandberg, who has been living there the past year, will take the house on Alta street now occupied by Mr. Mable.

Says Suit is Dropped.
Joe Craig, well known Indian interpreter, has received a letter from John McCourt his attorney stating that the decision of the federal judge in the Craig adultery case means the case is dismissed entirely. No instructions were given by the federal court that the case be taken up by the state court and the attorneys for Craig say no state action will be taken. Should the case go into the state court an entirely new complaint would have to be filed, the spouse being the complainant.

Huston vs. Michener Co.
Suit was filed in the circuit court this morning by Attorneys Raley & Raley for J. D. Huston against the Michener Horse Company to collect $1925 and costs. It is alleged that the plaintiff contracted with the defendant to sell horses and mules for the defendant and was to receive $5 for each sale. The plaintiff alleges to be the owner of an account of $175 owed by the defendant to George Howett an account of $260 owed to L. B. Johnson and a $120 account alleged to be due W. F. McKinney by the defendant.

Army Might Seize Lines Near Border in Case of Strike
SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 10.—Furnston frowned worriedly when asked concerning the threatened railroad strike's effect on the Rio Grande army. He said the strike would prevent the soldiers getting supplies. He admitted the army might seize lines near the border.

James Cunningham, the father of the girl, left the girl asleep at eleven last night. Women downstairs heard the thud half an hour later.

WATCH RENEWING
We prefer the word renew to repair, when speaking of the work we do in this department of Sawtelle services. The aim is to renew—to restore the watch to its original state, and make it as accurate in its time keeping properties as it was when first purchased.

We are just as particular with the work of jewelry renewing and the overhauling and renewing of clocks, silver and gold ware, etc.

All such will go back to you with the look and feeling of newness—you may depend upon any work you entrust to this department being well done.
