NEWS OF PENDLETON

Railroad Repairs Crosswalks.

An announcement was made to the council Wednesday night the O-W has commenced work on the repairing of their crosswalks on Main street. This work is to be completed before Round-Up.

Dance Closes Celebration.

The Colored Tigers' celebration was closed last night with a dance at the Eagle-Woodman hall in which more than fifty couples of merry-makers participated. A number of out of town guests were present.

May Open Pool Mornings.

Provided the warm weather continues and patronage will guarantee, Prof. E. E. Geiss, who is in charge of the natatorium, announces that the pool will be opened in the mornings commencing tomorrow.

Man Orders Many Seats.

That Walla Walla will be well represented at the 1916 Round-Up, is borne out by the fact that only Wednesday E. C. Skiles, prominent Walla Walla man sent an order to the Round-Up for twenty seats for the three days of the show.

Woman On Spree.

Marie Monier who was arrested last night at the corner of Cottonwood and Alta streets for being drunk, pleaded guilty to the charge this morning in police court and was fined $10 or sentenced to five days in jail.

R. I. Keator Returns.

Roscoe I. Keator, deputy prosecuting attorney and republican candidate for district attorney, returned this morning from a month's vacation passed in the regions of Lake Chelan. Mr. Keator highly recommends Lake Chelan as a fishing place, saying that he enjoyed the finest fishing there in many years. He reports cool weather during his vacation.

Committee to Act on Concessions.

Mayor Best was Wednesday authorized to appoint a committee to pass on every concession which may seek permission to come here during the Round-Up. The same arrangement was carried out last year very successfully. This obviates the chance of any bunco games or any obscene attractions here at that time. Before a license is granted an official O. K. must be secured from the committee.

Former Farmer Now a Boxer.

John F. Swinton, who five years ago was working as a farmer on the Catholic mission land on the reservation, was here in the guise of a heavy-weight pugilist and is looking for a bout. He is known in the fistie world about Portland as "Farmer Burns," having been given that name by Charles Jost, boxing promoter formerly of this city. After leaving this county, Swinton took up the boxing game and scored many knockouts in a row. He thinks he can defeat any heavy-weight in the northwest and prefers a ten or twenty round go.

Spokane To Send Special.

Spokane will send a special train to the Round-Up, September 21, 22 and 23. This is the word which reached here yesterday. W. F. Carson who is now in Spokane in the interest of the 1916 show writes that the Coeur d'Alene Yacht Club, a well known boat club organization will send a large delegation here for the show. A special invitation was sent the d'Alene Yacht Club, a well known boat club organization will send a large delegation here for the show. A special invitation was sent the d'Alene Yacht Club, a well known boat club organization will send a large delegation here for the show.

Boys Travel Far.

Charles J. Broughton Jr., of Dayton, Wash., and J. M. McInnes, of Hopper, Wash., passed through Pendleton last night in the Broughton automobile enroute to Dayton after an extensive tour of the coast. The boys drove 5000 miles with a repair expense of but nine dollars. At Calexico, where the Washington state troops are camped, and at Palm City, the camping grounds of the Oregon troops, many friends were visited. Mexicali, across the border, is said to be the roughest little city on the continent with gambling running at full blast.

While driving into Mexico the tourists came upon a Mexican whom they carried on the running board for many miles. The young men are seniors at Washington State College next year. Mr. Broughton is president of the Y. M. C. A. at the Pullman institute.

Two Buy Chevrolets.

Enil Belke, well known farmer, and Henry Sams of Weston have purchased new model 1916 Chevrolet automobiles from the Peters Auto Company.

Large Hughes Picture Received.

A large picture of Charles E. Hughes which measures about 12x12 feet in dimensions was received this morning by local republicans. The picture will be hung today in the Judd building on Court street.

Will Move to Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. James Frary and father, W. O. Frary formerly of Portland motored through Pendleton today enroute to Grainsville where they will move onto a farm.

Is Friend of O'Brien.

Gilbert L. Hart, prominent resident of Winsted, Conn., the old home town of T. F. O'Brien, local O. W. R. & N. agent, was here yesterday and had a visit with the Pendleton man whom he had not seen in some years. Mr. Hart is on a pleasure trip through the west.

Make Long Drive in Short Time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patton, which Sevel and Anna McPheters of Caldwell, Idaho, passed through Pendleton yesterday in their automobile having driven from Baker to Pendleton in an afternoon. The distance is 114 miles. They are on their way to Portland.

May Winter Show Here.

The Commercial Association has received a letter from Bert Robinson of the Robinson Animal Show, asking for information about the winters in Pendleton. He says he is looking for a place in which to winter the Robinson show and Pendleton is being considered.

Finds Support for Normal.

George A. Hartman, cashier of the First National Bank, who returned yesterday from his vacation at Seaside and Portland, states that he found much sentiment favorable to the normal school while gone and believes the bill will receive a big vote providing Pendleton people do some personal work among their friends over the state.

Motorists Return From Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wetherbee, Beatrice Wetherbee, Kenneth Cockerline and Ruth Davis of Eugene left Pendleton this morning in the Wetherbee automobile on their return home from a trip to Boston. Miss Davis is an instructor in piano in the music department of the University of Oregon and is accompanied for the University orchestra. The party have been on the trip about two months.

Work to Start Soon.

Owing to a change in the plans for the concrete elevator and wheat cleaning plant to be erected by the Farmers' Union on Webb street, a portion of the present warehouse will be torn down and the elevator placed thereon. The north section of the warehouse is to be dismantled for this purpose. Work on the plant is to start next week and the cost will be $29,000.

Handling Wheat in Bulk.

No less than 25 Umatilla county farmers are handling their wheat in bulk this year and reports are to the effect they are having good results. In most cases the farmers have provided bins for holding the grain until it can be hauled. In one case a big grower sold his last year's wheat, which had been sacked, in the bulk, and is using the same sacks for handling this year's crop. Most of the bulk grain sold thus far has gone to Tacoma.

To Organize Hughes Alliance.

Steps toward the organization of a Hughes Alliance will be taken here soon. W. C. E. Pruitt, secretary of the Umatilla county central committee, will circulate a petition soon for a charter. Twenty five names are required and as soon as these are obtained the application will be sent to Portland headquarters. As soon as the petition is passed on a meeting will be held to elect officers. An application blank was also forwarded to Pilot Rock this morning by Marion Jack.

Fee Home from San Diego.

Chester A. Fee returned this morning from San Diego where he competed in the far western track meet two weeks ago. The Pendleton star athlete will leave next Wednesday for Thursday for Portland to join the Multnomah athletic club athletes on their trip to Newark, N. J., to compete in the national amateur meet.

Fee took second place in the javelin at San Diego despite the fact that he had not had a spear in his hand since college was out in June. The Portland athletes were delayed in getting into San Diego because of crowded travel conditions. As a consequence they entered the meet without any practice at all. Fee will get in form for the big meet in Pendleton. The eastern papers are hailing him as a strong contender for decalor honors. The northwest men who are to make the trip are Walter Hommel and Sam Bellah of Portland, Henry Williams of Spokane and Chester Fee.
