Dr. Brundage Back.

Dr. R. B. Brundage has returned to Pendleton after a two weeks' vacation spent at Tokeland, Tacoma, Seattle and North Yakima. At North Yakima he met a friend, George McCauley, an attorney, whom he had not seen in 15 years.

Passes Entrance Exams.

William Ingram of Portland, former Pendleton boy who went to Annapolis a short time ago, has written his grandfather, J. A. Drake, that he was one of 95 out of 250 who successfully passed the entrance examinations.

Haney vs. Helm.

R. P. Haney and O. Skiles have brought suit in the circuit court against Carl G. Helm and Chloé Stanfield Helm to collect $453.75 alleged to be due on a promissory note. Will M. Peterson is attorney for the plaintiffs.

Who Has This Car?

Complaint has been made to O. W. R. & N. headquarters that on August 18 an auto with the number 11959, crossed the O-W-R. & N. track on East Court street just 30 feet ahead of train No. 6 as the passenger train was pulling out of Pendleton. The incident was reported by Engineer Alsen as showing carelessness on the part of the auto driver.

Small Fire at Noon.

At 12:30 yesterday fire department was called out by a blaze at 707 Ann street, a house belonging to William McGregor having caught fire. The blaze was due to a defective stove pipe through the room. According to Chief Ringold the fire department is particularly taxed during this weather and people should take all possible precautions. The loss from the fire amounted to $150.

Forest Fire Is Extinguished.

The forest fire which has been raging at Meacham for the past three days has been extinguished with little resulting damage. There were from 200 to 400 cords of wood nearby and fast work was done by the fighters to quench the flames. F. W. Connor, district state fire warden, returned to Pendleton this morning from Meacham. The blaze had been put out by the time he arrived on the scene yesterday.

F. O. Sicks, deputy state forester from Salem, says that up to this time the forest fire situation is the best in history.

men and reduce the Willamette valley service to a minimum.

WESTERN ROADS SEND WARNING.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Western railroads have warned the public and shippers to prepare for a strike Monday. Dozens of roads entering Chicago have refused to accept perishable freight shipments.

The Santa Fe line has ordered its agents to refuse livestock shipments. The Southern Pacific has warned all prospective travelers to beware of "perplexing delays" after Saturday. Rock Island employes have received instructions to quit at six a. m. Monday. Railroad terminals are jammed. Businessmen are rushing to other cities to close deals and get home before the strike.

The Northern Pacific has refused to accept perishable freight for delivery after Saturday. Six thousand Chicago freight handlers went on strike this afternoon. The Burlington has hired strikebreakers and is prepared to fight.

Strike Prevention Not Considered.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—E. H. Garretson, spokesman of the Brotherhoods, declared that prevention of the strike was not under consideration, when the Brotherhood leaders visited congress. The men were closeted with Secretary of Labor Wilson for over an hour and received his advice. They refused to reveal its nature.

SEATTLE FREIGHT STOPS.

SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Railroads entering Seattle have refused to accept shipments. Passenger service is unaffected as yet. Great Northern officials said the railroads intended to strike desperately to keep things moving and have in preparation reserve lists of emergency employes.

NEW YORK PRICES SOAR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Everything indicated this afternoon that American commerce would halt Saturday unless the strike order is withdrawn. The blow first hits the nation's food supply as many railroads have embargoed perishables. The order ended the supplies of meat and vegetables. Food prices are already reported advancing rapidly. New York authorities took measures to prevent the skyrocketing of prices.

HILL LINE PLACES EMBARGO.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 30.—The Hill lines have simultaneously placed embargo on perishable shipments not deliverable before Saturday. The order affects the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Burlington.

TEXAS ROADS REFUSE FREIGHT.

HOUSTON, Aug. 30.—The Sunset Central, Gulf Coast and International Great Northern railroads have put embargoes on all livestock and perishable freight.

COMPLETE EMBARGO HINTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—The Pennsylvania railroad has put an embargo on all perishables and livestock sent by freight or express after September 2. It hints that a complete embargo be placed on express shipments later.

BIG FLOUR MILLS TO CLOSE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 30.—It is reliably reported that the flour mills manufacturing one third of the nation's flour supply will close within the week after the strike starts.

U. S. MAILS PARALYZED.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—Edward Hooker, manager of the Brotherhoods' publicity, predicted "that Uncle Sam's railway mail service will be paralyzed the instant the strike begins." He declared every mail train would be halted.

STRIKE INJUNCTION ISSUED.

OMAHA, Aug. 30.—District Judge Sears has issued an injunction restraining Union Pacific trainmen from striking Labor Day.

U. P. FREIGHT EMBARGO.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 30.—The Union Pacific placed an embargo on all kinds of freight this morning. It is accepting no freight not deliverable before Saturday noon.

ROAD HEADS IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The railroad heads, including Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern, have ar-

Army Supplies Rushed.

EL PASO, Aug. 30.—Anticipating the great strike, the quartermasters' department of the army is rushing vast supplies here, to form a reserve for the regulars and guardsmen mobilized in this district. Several hundred carloads of rations and supplies are en route. They will reach here before the date set for the strike to begin.
