FOOTBALL LOOKS BRIGHT AT P. H. S.

ADDITION OF SEVERAL PROMINENT ATHLETES SENDS PROSPECTS SOARING.

Although last week's football practice was not very well attended, prospects with the beginning of this week have taken a decided jump. Several additions of importance that were made last night are Jim Crane, an Indian player of no mean ability; Moe Sax, last year's halfback and captain of Jefferson high school of Portland and "Booney" Hays, one of last year's fullbacks for this school. These additions with the men already with the men already out would make a good team but there are yet some good men expected to enter the school.

Paul Kerrick, one of last year's fullbacks, "Doc" Carr and Hugh Bowman, two of last year's halfbacks, and Enoch Friedley, a three year guard, are all expected to enter school after the Round-Up. Those already out that will make a strong bid for the team are: Manager Earl Snyder, Captain Sheldon Ulrich, Carly Wilbur, Harold Casey, Olen Huey, "Teddy" Hayden and Balfe Ulrich. Besides these are some that may prove to be dark horses before the season is over. It is hoped that enough for three or four teams will be out after the Round-Up.

Miss Grace Lyons, 132 Newell street, was hostess at a seven table bridge yesterday afternoon honoring Miss Ruth Kent, whose engagement to Harry Paxton was announced. The marriage will take place in the late autumn. The guests were young matrons and maids. Honors were received by Mrs. Mathew Ennis and the guest of honor. Pink roses and white shasta daisies were used for decorations.—Walla Walla Union.
