Motion Picture News

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

At the Alta.

The Alta was packed to the doors last evening for the opening performance of the Bostonians and if hearty laughter and applause is any criterion, they scored a smashing hit with local playgoers as well as the many visitors who were in attendance.

The company of sixteen is composed almost entirely of girls, there being only one boy in the cast, Charlie Bennett, who proved to be the possessor of a delightful tenor voice as well as a most pleasing stage presence.

Doris Canfield and Patric Henry as Mary and Mike, make a team of laugh getters that is hard to beat, their clever team work getting the most out of every line and situation in the book.

Billee O'Neil and ma Mitchell made a charming pair of lovers and scored in their duet work.

The performance goes with a snap and the entire company seems to enjoy themselves as much as the audience.

"Iroma," a musical play of the south seas, will be the offering tonight to be followed by "The Golden Slipper," and "The Rose of Honolulu" on Saturday and Sunday.

WIFE TO PAY DEBTS, WILL THEN SEEK DEATH

Mrs. Joseph Tuma Prepares to Wipe Out All Obligations Before Joining Young Husband, Who Suicided.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"I shall work until every dollar is paid, and then I, too, shall die."

That was what Mrs. Joseph Tuma said after she had recovered from the shock of hearing that her husband had committed suicide when a run on his private bank here brought him near financial ruin.

Tuma had a loan of $60,000 out and failure to collect it made it impossible for him to pay his depositors, who had become alarmed by the failure of several private banks. He made vain attempts to borrow $12,000 to tide over the emergency.

"For years Joseph had worked as a clerk in a bank and then 12 years ago we started one of our own," said the widow. "Year in and year out we worked hard—and now it is for nothing. Joseph wanted to much to leave his mark in the world.

"And now they say Joseph has killed himself. Poor Joseph! Well, the people shall be paid. And then I shall join him. We worked together too long to remain separated."

At the Cosy.

The quaint story of the adoption, education and later-day romance of Miss Petticoats, granddaughter of an old New Bedford whaling captain has been immortalized on the screen through the efforts of William A. Brady, who has had the famous story of "Miss Petticoats" adopted to motion picture, and filmed under the direction of Harley Knoles, with a strong cast, headed by Alice Brady, supported by such star players as Arthur Ashley, Johnny Hines, Alex B. Francis and Mildred Haven.

A company consists of 28 actors and actresses invaded the quiet city of New Bedford, on the rocky coast of the state of Massachusetts, and there proceeded to film the story of Miss Petticoats, who, in the story is a New Bedford girl, the granddaughter of a fishing schooner captain. The life of the girl while on the old fishing vessel, in the cotton mills, and wide secretary and companion in a fashionable home has been photographed in its entirety in the atmosphere and locale used by the author of the book. An old schooner was prepared, where the scenes were filmed, and Miss Brady, the star in this feature photoplay, spent several days in one of the big mills watching the girls work, later doing work herself.

It is not exaggerating matters in the least in saying that no motion picture has yet been produced in which the producing company was so successful in procuring exactly the required locale for all its scenes as this feature version of "Miss Petticoats," which is the attraction coming at the Cosy theater on Tuesday and Wednesday.

GROCERS NOMINATE OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The second meeting of the Oregon Retail Grocers association was held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Commercial association. The official photograph of the convention was taken at 9:30 this morning preceding the meeting. The principal address of the day was delivered by H. F. Mittman, president of the Log Cabin Baking company who spoke on "The Great Problem."

The following officers were nominated for the coming year: President, U. S. G. Miller, Newberg, vice president (three to be elected) George Custer of Silverton; A. S. Harrison of St. Helens, and E. S. Larson of Oregon City; treasurer, D. J. Van Syke of Portland; directors at large, J. W. Caldwell of Portland, E. M. Eyles of Salem and John Loring of Pendleton. The board of directors will meet together after their election to choose a state secretary. President W. C. Gunther of Portland refused the nomination for re-election on the principle that a Portland man should not be president of the organization.

The convention went on record as favoring all legislation of mutual benefit to the retailer and consumer and as against the unprincipled merchant. The latter class it was voted to call out if possible. The officers will be confirmed tomorrow.

For sale—Five room house, east Court street. Desirable location, close to school. A genuine bargain. For particulars address R. C. Jory, Maupin, Ore.

Sharp and other relatives; Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Guerin, who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt; and L. H. James and E. C. Reynolds.

ARMED MEN STORM JAIL GET PRISONER AND HANG HIM

OLATHE, Kansas, Sept. 22.—Fifty armed men stormed the jail, fired at Sheriff Carroll and smashed the iron doors here today. The fire department hosed the rioters but despite resistance the mob seized Bert Dudley, white, who murdered Henry Muller and wife, carried him a quarter of a mile to the railway and hanged him to a pole.

Even at that, there are probably more self-made widowers than widows.

TO PROVE ALL SUFFRAGISTS ARE NOT SPINSTERS

Officials of the National American Woman Suffrage Association offer this picture of well-known women and their children to prove that belief in woman suffrage does not make spinsters of women nor tend against motherhood. There are no stronger advocates of woman suffrage in the country than Mrs. Guilford Dudley, president of the Tennessee Equal Suffrage Association; Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, wife of the president of the National City Bank, the strongest national bank in the United States, nor Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, first auditor of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.
