THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

Where It Pays To Trade

Thursday afternoon club members resumed their year's work at a very interesting and entertaining meeting for which Mrs. John Voss and Mrs. A. L. Schaefer were business yesterday afternoon in the club room of the Columbia country club. A business meeting preceded the regular program at which delegates were named to attend the state Federation of Clubs which meets at Seaside October 23 to 27th. The delegates and their alternates are: Mrs. Roy T. Bishop and Mrs. G. I. La Dow and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr. and Mrs. W. C. Pratt. The club program began at 7:15 o'clock and was entitled "A Trip Through the Orient." Mrs. Schaefer acted as general guide and future master of the occasion, the tourists sailing from the west coast of the United States and entering Japanese ports at Japan which was vividly described by Mrs. G. I. Bishop. China, which Mrs. R. T. Bishop also depicted, and India, which was described by Mrs. Lura H. Sturge.

The club room, which is particularly light and airy, is an unusually attractive to a wonderful collection of Oriental maps framed especially for the occasion and a provision of palm- and ferns mingled with bowls of bright home flowers. A pleasant social hour followed the program.

Mrs. Clarence Twining was a charming business yesterday afternoon entertaining the members of "The New Idea" Club in a farewell attention to Mrs. C. C. Calavan, who is leaving shortly to make her permanent home in Portland. Refreshments and music provided interesting diversions and during the afternoon four new club members were elected. Mrs. Charles Hearf and Mrs. Raymond Hunt also contributed pleasant musical numbers. At the serving hour the table was presided over by Mrs. Taylor of Portland and Mrs. Layman of New York. The guest list included Mrs. C. H. Norris, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. F. M. Harper, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Charles Hearf, Mrs. Deane, Mrs. G. J. Kim, Mrs. Raymond Hunt and Mrs. Mathews. One of seven guests were Mrs. Taylor of Portland, Mrs. Arthur Harlowe of Bend, and Mrs. Layman of New York.

Miss Margaret Haeder of Portland, below guest of Mrs. Roy Raley, was the inspiration for a pretty little sewing party for which Mrs. William Bond was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on North Main street.

Mrs. Elmer Brewer of Portland is the accomplished guest of an informal afternoon of bridge for which Mrs. George Hasket is hostess this afternoon at her home on Perkins avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greulich are planning to leave Sunday for an auto trip to Crater Lake.

Miss Edith Power will return this evening from Walla Walla where she attended the Gardner-Steele wedding, one of the prominent social events of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Calavan and children expect to leave today for Portland to reside permanently. Mr. Calavan intends taking a course in dentistry.

Mrs. Carl Power is expected to arrive home the first of the week from Portland where she has been studying vocal music with John Claire Month for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff and daughter will arrive today to make their future home in this city. Mr. Hoff was at one time principal of the Pendleton high school but will now be associated in the practice of law with Haley and Haley.

Mrs. Janet Ford with this morning for Alberta to look after property interests there. She was accompanied by her brother, who is returning west after a visit of two months in Bend.

F. E. Atkins, Portland insurance man, is in the city.

G. W. Merwin of Salem, is a guest of the Pendleton team.

Herbert Boylen, Pilot Rock showman, is a Pendleton visitor today.

E. H. Harsha, a grain buyer of Kennewick, is making Pendleton a visit.

L. D. Lay and P. L. Lay of Hermiston, spent the night in the city. They stopped at the Golden Rule.

E. F. Marshall, one of the judges of the late Round-Up, left last night for Portland on a short business trip.

F. A. Baker, Stanfield dairyman, who has been doing jury duty here, was excused last evening and returned to his home.

Mrs. Clinton Buzan of Portland left for her home yesterday, having spent the Round-Up week at the home of Mrs. Buzan in this city.

MAY ESTABLISH AN ACADEMY AT BEND

Bishop O'Reilly Visits Town for Purpose of Investigating Conditions for School and Hospital.

BEND, re. Sept. 23.—For the purpose of investigating conditions for the establishment of an academy and Catholic sisters' hospital in Bend, the Right Rev. Bishop O'Reilly of Baker will arrive in Bend tonight. Tomorrow night he will be the guest of W. D. Cheney at the Emblem club at a banquet which persons interested in the enterprise will be invited to attend.

It is understood that a site for the proposed hospital has been offered free but the identity of the donor and the location have not been made public. At the meeting tomorrow evening (Paid Adv.)

Brightens One Up

There is something about Grape-Nuts food that brightens one up, infant or adult, both physically and mentally.

What is it? Just its delightful flavor, and the nutriment of whole wheat and barley, including their wonderful body and nerve building mineral elements!

A crisp, ready-to-eat food, with a mild sweetness all its own; distinctive, delicious, satisfying—

Grape-Nuts
"There's a Reason"

ing this will likely be made known, and something as to the character and the purposes of the hospital will be given out by Bishop O'Reilly.

Bishop O'Reilly has been a frequent visitor in Bend and for some time past in mind the establishment of a hospital here. On former visits he has expressed himself as favoring the foundation of an academy and hospital under the auspices of the sisters in Bend, provided local conditions were satisfactory.

It has been learned that extensive support will be given to the school and hospital.
