

1916 COTTON CROPS COMPLETE FAILURE FROM BOLL WEEVIL

Government Spends Six Million Dollars in Futile Fight Against Pest.

PRICES COMMENCE TO SOAR

Sample immediately jumps from sixty to eighty points on New York Cotton Exchange, following Agricultural Department's Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The bureau of crop estimates announced that the nineteen cotton crops was practically a failure on account of the boll weevil. The government spent six million dollars fighting the weevil.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Cotton jumped sixty to eighty points in the New York cotton exchange following the publication of the agricultural department's reports. December cotton sold up 67 points to 16.75 cents a pound. January was up eighty points to 16.80.

STOCK YARDS AT CLEVELAND BURN

CLEVELAND, Oct. 2.—Firemen this afternoon abandoned hope of saving the Union Stock Yards. The flames started shortly before noon and are sweeping everything. Incendiarism is suspected. Fourteen hundred horses were rescued and several carloads of cattle turned loose. The cattle are plunging wildly around the yards among the flames.

GIRL TWICE WINS STATE FAIR PRIZE

Caroline Jones of McKay Creek carries off second consecutive award for raising best turkeys.

For the second time in two years Miss Caroline Jones, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jones of McKay Creek, has carried off the state prize for turkey raising in the school industrial club work. She was awarded first honors at the state fair last week.

FAIR CONCESSIONS LOSE MUCH MONEY

Panama-Pacific Exposition Amusements Have Lost $1,100,000 So Far.—One Syndicate Loses $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—It is announced the Panama-Pacific exposition concessions lost four million, one hundred thousand dollars. Thirty five amusements closed during the fair. A Japanese syndicate alone lost a hundred thousand dollars.

FIGHT KILLED BECAUSE OF GATEMAN'S NEGLIGENCE

DETROIT, Oct. 2.—Valentine Shewell, Grand Trunk stationer, was arrested charged with criminal negligence. It is alleged he failed to lower the street gates on east Forest Ave. at the Grand Trunk crossing and a collision between a street car and freight train resulted. Eight were killed. The dead are the baby daughter of John Keller, Jacob Tuoss, 24; Ludwig Czhanieski; Joseph Zainsky, 25; Fred E. Landry, two unidentified men and one unidentified woman, may be Mrs. John Keller.

AMERICAN MINING INTERESTS IN MEXICO ENTER PROTEST

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 2.—Representatives of a hundred million dollars worth of American investments in Mexico visited the Mexican-American peace commission to protest against Carranzas treatment of American mining interests. Wilson Loeb, formerly Roosevelt's secretary, was spokesman for the Guggenheim interests and chairman of the delegation. The commission resumed its session after a week end adjournment. American commissioners believed the conference would terminate successfully within a fortnight.

ALLIES TAKE TWO GERMAN 'BREMENS'

GALVESTON, Oct. 2.—Captain Van Schoonbeek of the Belgian steamer Elizabeth Van Belgie, declared the allies had captured two German submarine merchantmen, both called the Bremen. He declared the British seized the first submarine and the French captured the second.

DUCK SEASON IS ON MANY BIRDS FALL

The open season on ducks and geese was inaugurated yesterday with a slaughter of ducks in the west end of the county, according to reports brought back by Pendleton hunters of which there were many out yesterday. The shooting was very good on the duck ponds but those hunters who kept along the river had only indifferent luck.

The ducks in at this time of the year are only local ducks and it is not anticipated that the hunting will continue good for more than a few days later when the migratory birds begin to arrive, the hunting will become better.

SEPTEMBER ARRESTS ARE FAR BELOW THE NORMAL

September, since the inception of the Round-Up, the heaviest month for police arrests brought in the most offenders this year as in past years, but the total number for the month is far below the normal for the month during the wet routine.

WOMEN'S HUGHES ALLIANCE SPECIAL TRAIN OFF FOR WEST

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Women's Hughes Alliance special train has started west. A great crowd cheered its departure. Marie Dressler, comedienne, led the women's cheering from the train and danced a war dance on the rear platform.

NEW MAINE GOVERNOR

CARL E. MILLIKEN

DEFACTO ARMY HEADS PUT IN NEW POSITIONS

Carranza Reorganizes Northern Military Chiefs Following Villa's Successful Raids.

SYMPATHIZERS ARE EXECUTED

Fugitives from Cuahuiatlaco Declare Bandit Leader Captured 6 Passenger Trains of Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Road—Passengers Not Molested.

JUAREZ, Oct. 2.—Villa's successful attacks on Chihuahua and Cuahuiatlaco have caused the reorganization of Carranza's northern military commanders. General Cuahuiatlaco has been ordered to Chihuahua to conduct operations against Villistas and General Gomez's army has been disciplined. Cuahuiatlaco fugitives declared that Villistas had captured six passenger trains of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway but did not molest the passengers. General Salazar dynamited a steel bridge near Santa Isabel.

An American from Chihuahua said he was positively certain Carranzas executed ninety-five suspected Villa sympathizers last week.

WILL FORCE HUGHES TO OPEN DISCUSSION

Wilson Completes Plans for Western Trip—Intends to Issue Challenge at Omaha.

ASHBURY PARK, Oct. 2.—President Wilson has completed plans to force Hughes to discuss what policy changes the republican advocate. He intends to sound a challenge at Omaha, using his own words. He starts west tomorrow night and makes seven sixteen hour stops en route. Ford conferred with Wilson at Lincoln.

DEC. OPTIONS UP TWO CENTS TODAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(Special to the East Oregonian)—Range of prices today.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Dec.	$1.54 1/2	$1.56	$1.54	$1.55 1/2
May	$1.54	$1.56	$1.54	$1.55 1/2

Portland.
Portland, Ore., Oct. 2.—(Special) —Club, $1.27; Bluestem, $1.35.
Liverpool.
Liverpool, Sept. 29. —Wheat—Spot No. 1 Manitoba, 136 7/8 ($2.12 1/2 per bu.); No. 2, 148 1/4; No. 1 hard winter, 148.

BROOKLYN CLIMBS UP ANOTHER PEG

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Brooklyn advanced another notch toward the National League today by defeating the New York Giants who have been unbeatable for three weeks. Philadelphia contended with Brooklyn for the pennant, could only break even with the sterling Boston club in the two games today.

The scores this afternoon were as follows:
R. H. E.
New York.....0 5 5
Brooklyn.....2 4 1
Boston.....4 9 1
Philadelphia.....1 7 3
Philadelphia defeated Boston this morning 2 to 0.

NEW GREEK CABINET RESIGNS IN A BODY

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A central news dispatch from Athens said the new Greek cabinet had resigned that was formed a fortnight ago because the allies refused to recognize it. It is generally believed the cabinet blocked Greece's entry into the war.

Complaint is Amended.
An amended complaint was filed today in the case of Joseph B. Dennis vs. E. L. Swartzlander. The complaint sets out that defendant received from John Hill $4000 as the first payment on land sold by plaintiff and has refused to turn over the money except $2028.50.

GIRL HEAD OF CORPORATION AT 22

MISS MARY WOHLFORD
Miss Mary Wohlford, 22, a student at Stanford University, is believed to be the youngest woman head of a corporation in the country. When her graduation will assume active management of the corporation.

NEW YORK IS HARD HIT BY MILK WAGON DRIVERS STRIKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Half of the city is milkless as a result of the wagon drivers' strike. Thousands of distributors to supply hospitals and babies. Strikers raided the dairy trains and attempted to halt all shipments. Dealers fear an absolute famine within four days.

TEMPLE THEATRE SOLD TO J. B. WELCH AND T. O. MEAD

Today saw the Temple theater go under new management. W. A. Rhodes, who has owned the picture playhouse since it was enlarged and remodeled, having sold out to James B. Welch of this city and T. O. Mead, of Payette, Idaho.

The new owners are both experienced in the theatrical business. Mr. Welch for a number of years was connected with the business in Portland and since returning to Pendleton has been instrumental in securing some big attractions for this city. His partner, who is an old friend, is an expert operator and will have charge of the mechanical end of the business. Mr. Welch will act as manager. He will retain the Triangle film service and will, in addition, present some first class vaudeville.

PENDLETON COMMERCIAL CLUB IS ASKED TO JOIN BOOSTERS

Pendleton Commercial association has been asked to join with other commercial and like organizations of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia in concerted action looking to attracting a big tourist traffic to the Pacific northwest next year. A meeting to formulate definite plans is to be held in Tacoma on October 11 and the local association is asked to appoint a delegate to attend.

The letter received this morning is from the Portland Chamber of Commerce which, with the Portland Auto Club and the State Hotel Men's association has already joined in the movement. Washington and British Columbia have already organized for the campaign.

NAVAL MONITORS BOMBARDING MOUNT ST. QUENTIN; FRENCH MASSING FOR FINAL ASSAULT

British Admit German Counter Attack Forced the Surrender of Regina Trench.

ROUMANIANS IN BULGARIA

Thirteen Corvettes Found Among Ruins of Zeppelin Destroyed by British—Airships Declared to Be of Latest Type—Captain Horribly Wounded Captured.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—It is announced the Rumanians have invaded Bulgaria for the first time since Rumania entered the war. They crossed the Danube south of Bucharest, despite fire from the Bulgarian fortress of Rusechik nearby. If a large force crosses the river the Tesson rear in Dobruja may be threatened.

HOTEL KEEPER AND BANDIT GANG HAVE BATTLE WITH GUNS

Leader of Robbers is Dangerously Wounded—Police Arrest Another—Held Waitress for Ransom.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—An auto bandit gang was in a gun battle with the proprietor of the Walker Barr Oak Inn near Chicago this morning. Daniel Hartnett, the alleged bandit leader was dangerously wounded and the police arrested Lawrence Simon, another gangster. They declare he confessed. Samuel Harris, the proprietor said the bandits kidnaped a waitress and held her for two hundred dollars ransom. The fight started while the bandits and Harris were discussing terms.

COLONEL TO MAKE ONLY 6 SPEECHES

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Republican headquarters announced that Roosevelt plans to make possibly six carefully prepared speeches within the next three weeks. His tentative itinerary includes Chicago, Denver, Louisville and New York. Republican leaders decided against an extended rear platform stumping trip. Roosevelt may consent to make a few such addresses enroute to Denver.

BRITISH PAPER DISLIKES LLOYD-GEORGE SPEECH

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Manchester Guardian, a strong liberal organ, criticized Lloyd-George's statement to the United Press saying the war must continue to a "knockout." It urged a more detailed concrete exposition of allied aims and said: "To reject all conversations with neutrals is a sign of violence and weakness. Such rhetorical ministerial excursions cost many lives. Lloyd George's language appears passionate. We cannot agree that time does not count in this war, when from two to three thousand are killed and wounded daily."

SON OF GARFIELD IS VICE PRESIDENT OF WILSON LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Harry A. Garfield, son of James A. Garfield, the martyred republican president, has not only declared his intention to support Woodrow Wilson for re-election, but is enrolled as a vice president of the Woodrow Wilson Independent League of Massachusetts.

MICHIGAN MILITIA ORDERED TO BORDER IMMEDIATELY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The war department announced that the remaining Michigan militia, comprising two thousand men, was ordered to the border immediately.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK OF PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—The Pennsylvania train was derailed at Kings Mills, Ohio, Engineer Berry and Fireman Miller were killed. Four passengers were injured and fifteen hundred feet of track were torn up.

News Summary

Local.
Pendleton asked to help secure tourist business.
Police business shows marked falling off.
Last week of registration.
Temple theater changes hands.
Many ducks killed on opening of season.
General.
1916 Cotton Crop Complete Failure.
Naval Monitors Bombard St. Quentin.
Carranza shifts military chiefs.