What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

WAR'S WOMEN THE MOST STUPENDOUS PRODUCTION OF THE AGE

An Appeal for the Protection of Women in Time of War.

Coming to the Pastime theater tomorrow is Thos. H. Ince's massive spectacle, "War's Women," a six part denunciation of the ravages of war. Frank Geenan supported by an all star cast, including the prominent emotional actress, Enid Markey, give a most vivid performance, depicting war's most terrible side, the violation of God's fairest flowers, women. This is a photoplay with a purpose and the lesson it teaches might well be borne in mind at this time when at any moment this country of ours could be drawn into the awful vortex of war which has drenched Europe with blood. We must prepare to protect our mothers, wives and sweethearts from the ravages of war. "War's Women" is one of the most expensive and magnificent productions ever made and is not an arraignment of any particular army or nation. It has no definite locale and contains situations that might arise in any country at war. We wish to impress on your minds that this picture is not exactly a war picture for it shows no actual fighting. But what it does show and very clearly at that is the after part of a battle. A village is captured, the men are all made prisoners, the ignorant, half-caste troops are turned loose, the women have no protection. What becomes of these women? See "War's Women" for the answer. Pastime theater, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 3 and 4. Admission, adults, 25c; children, 15c. Children under 16 years must be accompanied by parents or have their written consent.

At the Alta.
Having scored such a triumph as the nurse maid in "The Heart of Nora Flynn," Marie Doro, the brilliant Lasky star, will be seen at the Alta on Sunday and Monday, in "Common Ground," a gripping Paramount photodrama, written especially for her by Marian Fairfax, and produced under the direction of William A. Miller. Miss Doro is seen this time as an expert "slipper-on" in an artificial flower factory—a victim of the underworld conditions, and is used as a tool to carry out the plans of the city parasites. How she eventually throws off this yoke and saves the man she loves, from ruin, is told in a manner as only Marian Fairfax can tell it. The cast includes such distinguished artists as Theodore Roberts, Thomas Meighan, Mary Mesch, Horace B. Carpenter, Vera McEvets, and Mrs. Lewis McCord.

At the Cosy.
John Murray, a division superintendent on the West Coast Railroad, is in serious financial troubles, as he has borrowed several thousand dollars from money lenders, has lost the funds in speculation and is unable to pay back the borrowed amounts. His creditors appeal to the railroad officials and they notify Murray that unless he soon pays his debts he will be dismissed from his position as superintendent. Murray has a beautiful daughter, Alice, just budding into womanhood, and she is an enthusiastic automobilist. On one occasion she barely averts a collision with a railroad train. The engineer of the train, Jack Howard, sees Alice's carelessness and admires her good looks. Her father, Bruce, an attorney, has long admired Alice and plans to win her as his bride, but she does not like him. Bruce meets Murray and the latter informs Bruce that he is in sore financial straits, whereupon Bruce tells Murray that if he will persuade Alice to marry him he will settle all of Murray's debts. Alice appears and Murray induces his daughter to go to lunch with Bruce. At the table Bruce asks Alice to marry him but she refuses.

At the Cosy tonight.
Mary H. O'Connor, author of "Hell to Pay" Austin, Triangle's newest starring vehicle for that remarkable character actor, Wilfred Lucas, is proud of her gloriously suburban home and the results of her name. She is also proud of her accomplished sister, Lovella O'Connor, the well known Triangle actress. But her own distinguished achievements in the literary

THEATRICAL BENEFITS FOR HUMANE SOCIETY

Mrs. Minnie Madden Flske Plans to Give Three Performances for American Red Star Relief Work.

Mrs. Minnie Madden Flske, the great American actress, has just informed the American Humane Association, with headquarters in Albany, N. Y., that she is planning to give three benefit performances this winter for the American Red Star Animal Relief work. They will be given in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago where she is booked for long engagements. The money thus raised will be used to forward the work of the American Red Star Animal Relief which was organized on the request of the war department to provide veterinary service and hospitals for the United States army animals.

At the present time Dr. Charles Delano, a well known Boston veterinarian, is at the Mexican border in the interest of the American Red Star Animal Relief, visiting the various camps where horses are employed. On the basis of his report and the recommendation of the war department will depend whether or not the Red Star proceeds to erect a base hospital for sick and injured army animals at some convenient location along the border. Such volunteer assistance will mean a great deal to the government from both humane and economic standpoints.

In order that humanitarians and officers of the United States army may become more thoroughly informed regarding the need of volunteer animal relief work, a whole afternoon session of the 49th annual meeting of the American Humane Association, which meets in Cincinnati, October 15-19, will be devoted to the work of the American Red Star Animal Relief. Dr. Delano will be back from the border to report on the conditions of the United States army animals and two representatives of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of London, England, have been sent to America, especially to tell the delegates to the convention how that society has been able to save the English government more than $20,000,000 since it began its volunteer relief work some two years ago.

BILLINGS ASKS NEW TRIAL: NEW WITNESS DISCOVERED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Warren K. Billings asked a new trial when he appeared before Judge Dwyer for sentence. Attorney McNutt declared a dark man with a black mustache exploded the bomb killing nine during the preparedness parade. William H. Taylor, sailor, a newly discovered witness, swore he saw a dark man deposit his suitcase containing the bomb. Judge Dunn postponed the sentence until tomorrow.

REPUBLICANS MUST GET DOWN TO BRASS TACKS—MARSHALL

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Vice President Marshall said "Unless the republicans get down to brass tacks within the next four weeks, and tell the people exactly where the democrats went wrong and whether they're going into Mexico, and prove they're right, Wilson's reelection is sure. The republican party has yet to suggest any changes or announce anything it intends doing. In a political campaign you can't walk on eggs."

field Miss O'Connor is too modest to discuss. Miss O'Connor is chief of the Fine Arts scenario department under Frank E. Woods and has several Triangle successes to her credit. She entered the motion picture field from magazine work in New York and quickly won high rank. She is said to be able to write so gracefully a letter of rejection that her fellow authors would as willingly get their scripts returned by her as accepted by any one else. This may be a slight exaggeration, but it is additional evidence that Miss O'Connor is Irish and rarely gifted.

In "Hell to Pay" Austin" Miss O'Connor has written a story of the real west that gets under the mere skin of its humorous romance. Austin, the hard and merciless boss of a lumber camp, is an extraordinary character for a woman to create, but Austin's gentle little girl ward—a part that gives Jessie Love the biggest chance yet—has the true feminine spirit and an appeal that is irresistible.

Despondency.
When you feel discouraged and depressed do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Tonight "HELL TO PAY AUSTIN" Tonight
A NEW TRIANGLE PLAY.
"Hell-to-Pay" was the nick-name they gave him back in the Northwestern Mining Camp because that was what happened when his orders were not carried out promptly. He could lick any man in the camp, but his little adopted daughter—Bessie Love—ruled him with one finger.
If you want to see a TRIANGLE PLAY that is real—a picture that makes you feel you were a part of the great Northwest yourself—you should see "Hell-to-Pay Austin." You'll love little Bessie Love, and Wilfred Lucas will impress you as a real man.
