NEW PICTURE TELLS STORY OF A WOMAN'S DECEPTION

How a girl rises from life in thslums of London to one of the high-est places in English society, then falls suddenly, when the deception by which she had climbed is disclosed, is told in Theda Bara's new subject for

William Fox, "Her Double Life."
Miss Bara takes the part of Mary sone, the tenement child who makes her home in The Refuse, a parish house, at which Eiliot Clifford (A. H Van Buren) is pastor. When the call comes for war nurses, Mary answers.

At the front she meets Lloyd Stan-iey (Stuart Holmes.) a war correspondent, whom she had known in London. She is saved from dishonor at Stanley's hands, by the bom bardment of the hospital tent. After the attack, Mary finds the body of young girl in the tent. It is Ethel Wardley (Madeleine Lee Nard), a nlece of Lady Clifford's, who is on her way to make her home with the aunt she has never seen.

Mary changes clothes with Ethel, takes the girl's papers and luggage. and goes to Lady Clifford's. She is received as the place. The aunt (Lucia Moore) loves the girl, and Elliot, the son, soon falls in love with her imself.

Then Stanley returns to England. He brings with him Ethel Wardley, who has recovered from the wounds received on the battle line. They go together to the Cliffords, and are about to disclose the truth about Mary when the poor girl confesses.

She sees then that further life with the Cliffords is impossible, although Lady Clifford loves her so much the elfe wants her to stay. But Mary returns to The Refuge, to work out her salvation among the children. Pastime today.
